Engineering News and American Contract Journal, 1896. The Saturday Evening Post, 1926. Monsters on the Loose Richard Carrico, 2023-10-16. In 1931 San Diego's idyllic image as a beach town with peaceful suburbs concealed a harrowing reality: a series of unsolved crimes targeting women fueling fear and vulnerability. MONSTERS ON THE LOOSE tells the tragic and true stories of three women murdered early that year: Virginia Brooks, Louise Teuber and Hazel Bradshaw. Local law enforcement, out of town criminologists and investigators from what would become the FBI pursued hundreds of leads. Statewide newspapers covered every angle and clue and sometimes played a role in the investigations. Yet the killers were never identified and brought to justice. In MONSTERS ON THE LOOSE award winning author and historian Richard L. Carrico pieces fragments of evidence together for three cold cases, shedding light on a dark chapter in San Diego's history. More than ninety years after the murders, Carrico emerges as an advocate for the victims, meticulously reconstructing their stories. Immersed in dusty files, long forgotten oral histories and newly discovered investigation records, his primary objective remains unwavering: to seek justice for the three young women. With no witnesses to the crimes, the significance of circumstantial evidence and speculation both then and now became paramount And he may have even solved one of the murders The Singer's Musical Theatre Anthology - Volume 1, Revised (Songbook) Hal Leonard Corp.,1987-01-01 Vocal Collection This series is the world's most trusted source for great theatre literature for singing actors Features of the series include authentic editions for each song in the original key songs chosen particularly for each voice type selection of songs from classical and contemporary shows notes about each show and song This edition features 40 songs for the tenor voice including King Herod's Song Lonely House Not While I'm Around On the Street Where You Live Stranger in Paradise Younger Than Springtime and many more Singing Like Germans Kira Thurman,2021-10-15 In Singing Like Germans Kira Thurman tells the sweeping story of Black musicians in German speaking Europe over more than a century Thurman brings to life the incredible musical interactions and transnational collaborations among people of African descent and white Germans and Austrians Through this compelling history she explores how people reinforced or challenged racial identities in the concert hall Throughout the nineteenth and twentieth centuries audiences assumed the categories of Blackness and Germanness were mutually exclusive Yet on attending a performance of German music by a Black musician many listeners were surprised to discover that German identity is not a biological marker but something that could be learned performed and mastered While Germans and Austrians located their national identity in music championing composers such as Bach Beethoven and Brahms as national heroes the performance of their works by Black musicians complicated the public's understanding of who had the right to play them Audiences wavered between seeing these musicians as the rightful heirs of Austro-German musical culture and dangerous outsiders to it Thurman explores the tension between the supposedly transcendental powers of classical music and the global conversations that developed about who could perform it An interdisciplinary and transatlantic history Singing Like Germans suggests that listening to music is not a passive experience but an active process where racial and gendered categories are constantly made and unmade The Exhibitor ,1947 Some issues include separately paged sections Better management Physical theatre extra profits Review Service What Editors and Publishers Want Mark Meredith,1924 The Hunt William Diehl,1991-04-13 As the world trembles with the approach of World War II a woman dies at the hands of Hitler's henchmen Her murder forever changes her lover Francis Scott Keegan a relentless anti-Nazi mercenary who becomes locked in a desperate cat and mouse game with the Third Reich's perfect spy a man of a thousand faces In an arena that encompasses presidents and gangsters spies and sirens the deadly present and the dark past Keegan pursues his elusive quarry into the cutting edge of world events and into the secret inner workings of a terrifying mission known only as 27 The best book of its kind since THE DAY OF THE JACKAL Edge of the seat stuff PEOPLE Aaron Copland and His World Carol J. Oja,Judith Tick,2018-06-05 Aaron Copland and His World reassesses the legacy of one of America's best loved composers at a pivotal moment as his life and work shift from the realm of personal memory to that of history This collection of seventeen essays by distinguished scholars of American music explores the stages of cultural change on which Copland's long life 1900 to 1990 unfolded from the modernist experiments of the 1920s through the progressive populism of the Great Depression and the urgencies of World War II to postwar political backlash and the rise of serialism in the 1950s and the cultural turbulence of the 1960s. Continually responding to an ever-changing political and cultural panorama, Copland kept a firm focus on both his private muse and the public he served. No self-absorbed recluse, he was very much a public figure who devoted his career to building support systems to help composers function productively in America. This book critiques Copland's work in these shifting contexts. The topics include Copland's role in shaping an American school of modern dance, his relationship with Leonard Bernstein, his homosexuality especially as influenced by the writings of Andr  Gide, and explorations of cultural nationalism. Copland's rich correspondence with the composer and critic Arthur Berger, who helped set the parameters of Copland's reception, is published here in its entirety, edited by Wayne Shirley. The contributors include Emily Abrams, Paul Anderson, Elliott Antokoletz, Leon Botstein, Martin Brody, Elizabeth Crist, Morris Dickstein, Lynn Garafola, Melissa de Graaf, Neil Lerner, Gail Levin, Beth Levy, Vivian Perlis, Howard Pollack, and Larry Starr.
