Regeneration Of War Torn Societies:

Regeneration of War-Torn Societies NA NA,2016-04-30 Regeneration and peacebuilding in war torn societies is a fast growing area of interest in world politics The book is an original and timely contribution to the study of post conflict transition through an examination of various aspects of regeneration and detailed analysis of examples of intent Four issues are highlighted in particular the legacies of modern conflict in the transitions to relative peace the question of ownership and accountability in the interactions between internal and external actors the need for coherent responses to regeneration the importance of case specific approaches The book s purpose is to encourage students policy makers and practitioners in governments intergovernmental organisations international and local non governmental organisations to understand and reflect on processes designed to promote social stability and relative peace and to re examine the nature of the tasks they confront and their responses The authors represent perspectives from law political economy social work development studies anthropology and international relations Regeneration of War-torn Societies Michael Pugh,2000 Healing the Wounds of Gukurahundi in Zimbabwe Dumisani Ngwenya,2017-12-14 This book is based on a participatory action research project carried out with a group of former Zimbabwe People s revolutionary Army ZPRA which was the armed wing of the Zimbabwe African People s Union ZAPU which was led by the late Joshua Nkomo ZPRA was the primary target of Gukurahundi a pogrom by the Mugabe government which left an estimated 20 000 civilians dead and countless others tortured in the early 1980s in Matebeleland Zimbabwe It has been almost 30 years since the violence ended but there has never been an official healing and reconciliation programme or truth commission into the atrocities The government chose the path of amnesia by granting a blanket amnesty to all involved The regime has enforced a culture of silence over the event through repression and intimidation The book is a culmination of a two year journey by the group and the author of an exploration of group based self healing approaches to the pain caused by the violence of Gukurahundi Initial Steps in Rebuilding the

Health Sector in East Timor Program on Forced Migration and Health at the Mailman School of Public Health, Columbia University,National Research Council,Division of Behavioral and Social Sciences and Education,Committee on Population,Roundtable on the Demography of Forced Migration,Ian Morris,Jane Nassim,Isabel Hemming,Sergio Lobo,Rui Paulo de Jesus,Rui Maria de Araujo,Fadia Saadah,Jim Tulloch,2003-06-20 In May 2002 Timor Leste East Timor emerged as a new nation after centuries of foreign rule and decades of struggle for independence Its birth was a painful one a United Nations brokered Popular Consultation in August 1999 in which an overwhelming majority of the people opted for independence was followed by several weeks of vengeful violence looting and destruction by pro Indonesia militias It left the territory and all of its essential services devastated In this context the United Nations Transitional Administration in East Timor UNTAET with the country s leaders and people and many other partners set about restoring order and services building a government structure and preparing for independence This paper summarizes the rehabilitation and development of the health sector from early 2000 to the end of 2001

The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding, Statebuilding, and Peace Formation Oliver P. Richmond, Gëzim Visoka, 2021-05-31 In addition to being a major area of research within International Relations peacebuilding and statebuilding is a major policy area within the UN and other international and regional organizations It is also a concern of international financial institutions including the World Bank and a significant factor in the foreign and security policies of many established and emerging democracies Peacebuilding and statebuilding are among the main approaches for preventing managing and mitigating global insecurities dealing with the humanitarian consequences of civil wars and expanding democracy and neoliberal economic regimes Peace formation is a relatively new concept addressing how local actors work in parallel to international and national projects and helps shape the legitimacy of peace processes and state reform The Oxford Handbook of Peacebuilding Statebuilding and Peace Formation serves as an essential guide to this vast intellectual and policy landscape It offers a systematic overview of conceptual foundations political implications and tensions at the global regional and local levels as well as key policies practices examples and discourses underlining all segments of peacebuilding and statebuilding praxis Approaching peacebuilding from disciplinary perspectives across the social sciences the Handbook is organized around four major thematic sections Section one explores how peacebuilding statebuilding and peace formation is conceived by different disciplines and IR approaches thus offering an overview of the conceptual bedrock of major theories and approaches Section two situates these approaches among other major global issues including globalization civil society terrorism and technology to illustrate their global regional and local resonance Section three looks at key themes in the field including peace agreements democratization security reform human rights environment and culture Finally section four looks at key features of everyday and civil society peace formation processes both in theory and in practice

Peacebuilding and Civil Society in Bosnia-Herzegovina Martina Fischer (historicus), 2006 The Dayton Accords ended the war in Bosnia Herzegovina in 1995 The 10th anniversary gives reason to investigate the post war period today's realities and future perspectives Bosnian authors and international experts express their views on recent developments Insiders and outsiders working in the conflict and on its transformation have been invited to tackle the questions Which conflict lines mark the present society Did peacebuilding activities address the underlying causes What are obstacles for conflict transformation What are the potentials and limits of international support What does civil society mean in Bosnia and how is it related to statebuilding and democratisation How can people constructively deal with the past in order to design the future in the region of former Yugoslavia The book gives an overview on an important research focus of the Berghof Research Center highlighting the work of its most important cooperation partners

Peace without Politics? Ten Years of State-Building in Bosnia David Chandler, 2013-09-13 Ten years on from the signing of the Dayton Peace Agreement in November 1995 the legacy of the Bosnian war still shapes every aspect of the political social and economic environment of the tiny state This state of affairs is highlighted by the fact that Bosnia is still under international control with the Office of the International High Representative regularly using its powers to dismiss elected presidents prime ministers and MPs and to impose legislation over the resistance of elected legislatures at national regional and local level What has changed in the ten years since Dayton Is international regulation helping to establish a sustainable peace in Bosnia What lessons can be learned for nation building in Bosnia This volume was previously published as a special issue of the leading journal International Peacekeeping

Strangers in Our Midst David Miller,2016-05-09 How should democracies respond to the millions who want to settle in their societies David Miller s analysis reframes immigration as a question of political philosophy Acknowledging the impact on host countries he defends the right of states to control their borders and decide the future size shape and cultural make up of their populations

Post-Conflict Power-Sharing Agreements Imad Salamey,Mohammed Abu-Nimer,Elie Abouaoun,2017-07-27 The book surveys comparative power sharing models implemented in societies that have faced identity conflicts with attention given to post conflict design It analyzes the success and pitfalls of international experiences before proposing a model for Syria Contributors address the central question which among the set of power sharing agreements that have helped settle protracted identity driven armed conflict can provide Syria with a platform for dialogue negotiation and conflict mitigation The comparative analysis advanced in this book extracts lessons from countries such as Bosnia Herzegovina India Iraq Lebanon Mali Northern Ireland the Philippines and Sudan The prospect of a post conflict distribution of power in Syria is then unraveled from different sectarian ethnic and regional perspectives The authors also address challenges of peacebuilding such as violent extremism gender participation resettlements retributions transitional justice integration of armed groups and regional and international sponsorship

Regulating Business for Peace Jolyon Ford,2015-02-05 The first book to study how peace operations have engaged with business to influence its peace building impact in fragile and conflict affected societies

War Economies and Post-war Crime Sabine Kurtenbach,Angelika Rettberg,2020-05-21 Even when armed conflicts formally end the transition to peace is not clear cut This comprehensive volume explores the mounting evidence which suggests that it is rather unlikely to see a clean break from violence to consent from theft to production from repression to democracy or from impunity to accountability The authors analyse the complex endeavour of transitioning out of war studying how it is often interrelated with other transformations such as changes in the political regime democratisation and in the economy opening of markets to globalisation They explore how in the same way as wars and conflicts reflect the societies they befall post war orders may replicate and perpetuate some of the drivers of war related violence such as high levels of instability institutional fragility corruption and inequality This book thus suggests that even in the absence of a formal relapse into war and the re mobilisation of former insurgents many transitional contexts are marked by the steady and ongoing reconfiguration of criminal and illegal groups and practices This book will be of great interest to students and researchers of political science and peace studies It was originally published as an online special issue of Third World Thematics

Post-conflict

Disarmament, Demobilization and Reintegration Antonio Giustozzi, 2016-04-08 This book revisits post Cold War Disarmament Disintegration and Reintegration DDR programmes in the light of previous experiences of disarmament demobilisation and reintegration In the history of North America and Europe in particular such programmes had a major impact on state building contributing to the development of the welfare state shaping political settlements and directing government policy to maintain social peace The authors in this important book ask what is left of these state building dimensions in contemporary DDR programmes and whether the constraints imposed by international organisations on DDR programmes have more negative effects than positive ones The role of political leadership in DDR processes is highlighted can bureaucratically driven processes deliver success Only if political elites take full control and manage DDR programmes can there be a lasting impact on state building Even then most political elites avoid deep changes in their relationship with the veterans Is there a chance of reshaping international intervention in such a way as to favour the development of a social contract between political elites and veterans In taking a historical perspective this book is unique in the existing literature on DDR and will be essential reading for policy makers students and scholars of conflict studies and those working in NGOs particularly donor agencies This volume was produced with the contribution of the Crisis States Research Centre LSE

Aid, Peacebuilding and the Resurgence of War S. Holt, 2011-02-08 As one of South Asia's oldest democracies Sri Lanka is a critical case to examine the limits of a liberal peace peacebuilding and external engagement in the settlement of civil wars Based on nine years of research and more than 100 interviews with those affected by the war NGOs and local and international elites engaged in the peace process

Forgetting Children Born of War Charli Carpenter, 2010-05-31 Sexual violence and exploitation occur in many conflict zones and the children born of such acts face discrimination stigma and infanticide Yet the massive transnational network of organizations working to protect war affected children has for two decades remained curiously silent on the needs of this vulnerable population Focusing specifically on the case of Bosnia Herzegovina R Charli Carpenter questions the framing of atrocity by human rights organizations and the limitations these narratives impose on their response She finds that human rights groups set their agendas according to certain grievances the claims of female rape victims or the complaints of aggrieved minorities for example and that these concerns can overshadow the needs of others Incorporating her research into a host of other conflict zones Carpenter shows that the social construction of rights claims is contingent upon the social construction of wrongs According to Carpenter this pathology prevents the full protection of children born of war

Peace on Earth Thomas Matyók, Maureen Flaherty, Hamdesa Tusó, Jessica Senehi, Sean Byrne, 2013-12-16 Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies provides a critical analysis of faith and religious institutions in peacebuilding practice and pedagogy The work captures the synergistic relationships among faith traditions and how multiple approaches to conflict transformation and peacebuilding result in a creative process that has the potential to achieve a more detailed view of peace on earth containing breadth as well as depth Library and bookstore shelves are filled with critiques of the negative impacts of religion in conflict scenarios Peace on Earth The Role of Religion in Peace and Conflict Studies offers an alternate view that suggests religious organizations play a more complex role in conflict than a simply negative one Faith based organizations and their workers are often found on the frontlines of conflict throughout the world conducting conflict management and resolution activities as well as advancing peacebuilding initiatives

Local Ownership of Peacebuilding in Afghanistan Chuck Thiessen, 2013-11-08 The international community has followed up its 2001 invasion of Afghanistan with a complex multi faceted peacebuilding project However informed observers believe that this Western led mission in Afghanistan has failed to address the inherent peacebuilding needs of Afghanistan and has hindered the formation of a locally experienced sustainable peace In response emerging peacebuilding theories and rhetoric have pointed to an urgent need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and strategies that hold local Afghan ownership of peacebuilding activities as a central concern This book responds to this need for revised peacebuilding paradigms and 1 introduces the topic of local ownership of peacebuilding in Afghanistan 2 surveys current shifts in peacebuilding theory and practice that are only starting to be realized on the ground 3 sets the context for a discussion of local ownership of peacebuilding 4 reports on the perceptions of foreign and Afghan peacebuilding leaders working in Afghanistan in regards to the journey towards local ownership of peacebuilding and 5 suggests the creation of a locally designed and led conflict transformation system that might help restructure local foreign relations and advance the journey towards Afghan ownership of peacebuilding
