wider Mediterranean and Islamic world and demonstrates how rulers manipulated architectural form and urban topographies to express political legitimacy on a global stage

The Door of the Caliph Elsa Cardoso, 2023-05-29 This book focuses on the conceptualization of the court palace and ruler of the Umayyad Caliphate of al Andalus Western terminology still plays a normative role in the representation of foreign courts determining concepts that fit poorly into chronologies with their own dynamics and specificities which is the case of Muslim courts While Court Studies is a well developed field for modern Western societies Muslim medieval courts lack a consistent field of research Sources elaborate a specific terminology for medieval Muslim court societies In the specific case of the Umayyad Caliphate of al Andalus the court is usually articulated as B b Suddat al Khal fa The door of the Sudda of the caliph a reference to the symbology of the main city gate of Cordoba or simply as B b B b Suddat al Khal fa became the most emblematic concept to name the Umayyad palace and its society which will be additionally interpreted in the framework of the performance of ceremonial The strong conceptualization of the Umayyad court of Cordoba was highlighted through the articulation of ceremonial as the mise en scène of the conceptualization expressed by gestures insignia and hierarchies The preliminary comparative perspective with the Umayyad Caliphate of Damascus the Abbasid and Fatimid Caliphates and the Byzantine Empire further discusses the Umayyad Andalus model in relation to other dynasties While this book focuses on the Umayyad conceptualization and articulation of ceremonial this model will be discussed within the Mediterranean and Eastern framework of the 10th and 11th centuries which broadens the interest of the book to other fields of research

Reviving the Islamic Caliphate in Early Modern Morocco Stephen Cory, 2016-04-08 Historians have long grappled with the question of how Islamic civilization so clearly dominant during the medieval period

could fall completely under Western hegemony in the modern age Many Western writers answer this question by referencing European ingenuity initiative and transformative energy in contrast with Islamic parochialism passivity and resistance to change This book challenges such assumptions by studying the career of an aggressive sultan in early modern Morocco Mulay Ahmad al Mansur r 1578 1603 who dared to take on the international super powers of his day and sought to redraw the map of Islamic Africa Al Mansur is best known for launching a bold invasion across the Sahara desert to conquer the West African Songhay Empire Most historians ascribe strictly economic motives for this assault stating that the sultan wished to capture the prosperous gold trade that had traveled for centuries from West Africa to the Mediterranean Dr Cory argues instead that Mulay Ahmad was pursuing more expansive goals than simply stuffing his coffers with West African gold as evidenced by audacious claims made on his behalf in numerous panegyric texts produced by the sultan s court Through a detailed analysis of official histories documents and correspondence writings by European observers and architectural evidence he contends that the sultan sought to establish a Western caliphate that would eclipse the Ottoman Empire Mulay Ahmad advanced this agenda through panegyric literature elaborate court ceremonies grand constructions stunning military conquests and astute diplomacy with European powers Ottoman officials and sub Saharan rulers Such assertions of universal caliphal authority had not been seriously promoted in Islam for over three hundred years before al Mansur s reign Thus al Mansur sought to move his country forward into the modern age by returning to an institution that had governed Muslim lands during the fabled golden age of the Abbasid and Andalusian Umayyad caliphates Through an investigation of the sultan s ambitions and achievements Dr Cory provides new insight into the history of relations between Muslim states and the West

Isfahan and its Palaces Sussan Babaie, 2008-07-14 Winner of the Houshang Pourshariati Iranian Studies Book Award 2009 This beautifully illustrated history of Safavid Isfahan 1501 1722 explores the architectural and urban forms and networks of socio cultural action that reflected a distinctly early modern and Perso Shi i practice of kingship An immense building campaign initiated in 1590 91 at the millennial threshold of the Islamic calendar 1000 A H transformed Isfahan from a provincial medieval and largely Sunni city into an urban centered representation of the first Imami Shi i empire in the history of Islam The historical process of Shi ification of Safavid Iran and the deployment of the arts in situating the shifts in the politico religious agenda of the imperial household informs Sussan Babaie s study of palatial architecture and urban environments of Isfahan and the earlier capitals of Tabriz and Qazvin Babaie argues that since the Safavid claim presumed the inheritance both of the charisma of the Shi i Imams and of the aura of royal splendor integral to ancient Persian notions of kingship a ceremonial regime was gradually devised in which access and proximity to the shah assumed the contours of an institutionalized form of feasting Talar palaces a new typology in Islamic palatial designs and the urban spatial articulation of access and proximity are the architectural anchors of this argument Cast in the comparative light of urban spaces and palace complexes elsewhere and earlier in the Timurid Ottoman and Mughal realms as well as in the early modern European capitals Safavid Isfahan emerges as the epitome of a new architectural urban paradigm in the early modern age
