Robert Browning: Selected Poems John Woolford, Daniel Karlin, Joseph Phelan, 2013-11-19 Robert Browning 1812-1889 was one of the defining figures of the Victorian age. Famous in his lifetime for his elopement and marriage to Elizabeth Barrett, his critical reputation grew steadily in the years following her early death. Browning's mastery of dramatic verse was evident throughout his career from such chillingly unforgettable monologues as My Last Duchess and Porphyria to the mature work included in his collection Dramatis Personae. This selection, chosen by leading scholars, reveals the innovation, complexity, and profound psychological insight that have ensured Browning's enduring reputation and his continuing appeal to readers today. Browning Selected Poems results from a completely fresh appraisal of the canon text and context of the writer's work. The poems are presented in the order of their composition and in the text in which they were first published, giving a unique insight into the development of Browning's art. An introduction and chronology offer useful background material, whilst annotations and headnotes provide details of composition, publication sources, and contemporary reception. This authoritative yet accessible selection should become the first point of reference for scholar, student, and general reader alike.
