Robert Burns Robert Burns,1891 The Poetical Works of Robert Burns Robert Burns,1818 The Complete Works of Robert Burns Robert Burns, Robert Burns the chief of the peasant poets of Scotland was born in a little mud walled cottage on the banks of Doon near Alloway s auld haunted kirk in the shire of Ayr on the 25th day of January 1759 As a natural mark of the event a sudden storm at the same moment swept the land the gabel wall of the frail dwelling gave way and the babe bard was hurried through a tempest of wind and sleet to the shelter of a securer hovel He was the eldest born of three sons and three daughters his father William who in his native Kincardineshire wrote his name Burness was bred a gardener and sought for work in the West but coming from the lands of the noble family of the Keiths a suspicion accompanied him that he had been out as rebellion was softly called in the forty five a suspicion fatal to his hopes of rest and bread in so loyal a district and it was only when the clergyman of his native parish certified his loyalty that he was permitted to toil. This suspicion of Jacobitism revived by Burns himself when he rose into fame seems not to have influenced either the feelings or the tastes of Agnes Brown a young woman on the Doon whom he wooed and married in December 1757 when he was thirty six years old. To support her he leased a small piece of ground which he converted into a nursery and garden and to shelter her he raised with his own hands that humble abode where she gave birth to her eldest son. The elder Burns was a well informed silent austere man who endured no idle gaiety nor indecorous language while he relaxed somewhat the hard stern creed of the Covenanted times he enforced all the work day as well as sabbath day observances which the Calvinistic kirk requires and scrupled at promiscuous dancing as the staid of our own day scruple at the waltz. His wife was of a milder mood she was blest with a singular fortitude of temper was as devout of heart as she was calm of mind and loved while busied in her household concerns to sweeten the bitterer moments of life by chanting the songs and ballads of her country of which her store was great. The garden and nursery prospered so much that he was induced to widen his views and by the help of his kind landlord the laird of Doonholm and the more questionable aid of borrowed money he entered upon a neighbouring farm named Mount Oliphant extending to an hundred acres. This was in 1765 but the land was hungry and sterile the seasons proved rainy and rough the toil was certain the reward unsure when to his sorrow the laird of Doonholm a generous Ferguson died the strict terms of the lease as well as the rent were exacted by a harsh factor and with his wife and children he was obliged after a losing struggle of six years to relinquish the farm and seek shelter on the grounds of Lochlea some ten miles off in the parish of Tarbolton. When in after days men's characters were in the hands of his eldest son the scoundrel factor sat for that lasting portrait of insolence and wrong in the Twa Dogs. In this new farm William Burns seemed to strike root and thrive. He was strong of body and ardent of mind every day brought increase of vigour to his three sons who though very young already put their hands to the plough the reap hook and the flail. But it seemed that nothing which he undertook was decreed in the end to prosper after four seasons of prosperity a change ensued the farm was far from cheap the gains under any lease were then so little that the loss of a few pounds was ruinous to a farmer. Bad seed and wet seasons had their usual influence. The gloom of hermits and the moil of galley slaves as the poet alluding to those days said were endured to no purpose when to crown all a difference arose between the landlord and the tenant as to the terms of the lease and the early days of the poet and the declining years of his father were harassed by disputes in which sensitive minds are sure to suffer.
