Robert Capa

Robert Capa Photographs:

Robert Capa, 1913-1954 Robert Capa, 1974 Robert Capa Photographs is the first true retrospective book of one of the century's greatest photographers. Drawing upon hundreds of previously unseen images, this collection reveals Capa as one of the great poets of the camera. In these photographs we see through the eyes of a driven humanist who was also a documentarian of the highest caliber. While previous volumes on Capa have focused on his role as a war photographer, Robert Capa Photographs shows us the remarkable range of his work which encompasses the sufferings as well as the tenderness, humor and wonder of his subjects. Robert Capa demonstrated not only a passionate commitment to improving the human condition but also an unfailing eye for graphic impact. Although his photographs remain the definitive visual records of such momentous events as the siege of Madrid, the bombing of Hankou and the Allied landings on D Day, many of his images have a timeless and universal quality that transcends the specifics of history. A Spanish soldier recoils at the impact of a bullet, the final instant of his life. In a scene of perfect joy, a group of Chinese children laugh at the sky as snow begins to fall. Four farm workers hauling all the belongings they can manage trudge grimly away from an apocalyptic backdrop of smoke and ruins, their war-devastated homes. Capa's images reveal his profound compassion and perceptiveness about our tenuous human state. As Cornell Capa, Robert's younger brother and the Founding Director Emeritus of the International Center of Photography, writes in his eloquent remembrance: "He managed to travel all over the world and to communicate his experience and feelings through a universal language: photography." Robert Capa Photographs also includes a foreword by Capa's close friend Henri Cartier-Bresson as well as an informative historical essay by Capa biographer Richard Whelan. At last here is the book that reveals Robert Capa in a new light. The extraordinary collection of images in Robert Capa Photographs brings us through the events of history to the very heart of humanity. Robert Capa, Photographs Robert Capa, 1996 This work contains 13 chapters demonstrating the extraordinary scope and diversity of the images from two decades that made Robert Capa one of the world's most distinguished photographers. Robert Capa Photographs, 1932-54 Philadelphia Museum of Art, 1997

Robert Capa Richard Whelan, 1994-01-01 The legendary war photographer Robert Capa carried into his personal life the same remarkable vitality that characterizes his pictures. Driven from his native Hungary by political oppression, he was first recognized for photographing the Spanish Civil War. In 1938 he was in China recording the Japanese invasion. During World War II he was in London, North Africa and Italy, and then in France covering D Day on Omaha Beach, the liberation of Paris and the Battle of the Bulge. When the new nation of Israel was founded in 1948 he was there. In 1954 he was in Vietnam taking photographs until the moment he was killed. Away from battle, Capa gathered about him such famous people as Ernest Hemingway and his wife, the war correspondent Martha Gellhorn, Gary Cooper, Irwin Shaw and Gene Kelly. Whelan shows Capa photographing the street life of Paris, crisscrossing America on assignment from Life, in Russia with John Steinbeck, in Italy with John Huston, on the Riviera with Picasso and with Ingrid Bergman. Robert Capa Robert

Capa,1999-11-01 Robert Capa was the most highly acclaimed war photographer of his time and one of the most courageous photojournalist who ever lived His startling often shocking images of the realities of war served to bring home the true horrors of combat while conveying the intense humanity of their creator Capa hated war but he was drawn to it From his earliest pictures of the Republican forces in the Spanish Civil War to the Japanese invasion of China from his work as a war correspondent for Life and Collier covering American conflicts in North Africa and Europe during the second World War to the emergence of the Israeli homeland Capa portrayed the incredible heroism and suffering of the soldiers on the front lines and in the war torn lives of civilians Although his career was cut short when he was tragically killed by a land mine in Thai Binh Indochina Capa remains one of the most celebrated imitated and revered photographers of all the time The more than 100 photos presented in this volume spans the entire spectrum of Capa s varied career including his most legendary Hollywood photo s and rare images of post war Germany Robert Capa ,2001 Robert Capa war photographs Magnum Photos,Robert Capa,National Gallery of Canada,Smithsonian Institution. Traveling Exhibition Service,1961*

Robert Capa: Death in the Making Robert Capa,2020-09-29 Once a cult status rarity Capa s classic impassioned Spanish Civil War photobook is available again with new high quality image scans and supplementary research Robert Capa s Death in the Making was published in 1938 as a poignant tribute to the men and women civilians and soldiers alike fighting in Spain against Franco s fascist insurrection The book included only one year of images from the Republican position but covered the spectrum of emotions of a civil war from the initial excitement to the more harrowing realities of modern warfare But over time after World War II and rising anti communist paranoia in the United States association with the Spanish Civil War was a liability and the book became obscured Today however Death in the Making has reached cult status not least because copies are hard to find particularly ones with Capa s famous Falling Soldier image on the dust jacket With new scans of all the images this facsimile of the original edition reproduces the original layout by photographer Andr Kert sz the original caption text by Capa and preface by writer Jay Allen The muddy 1938 publication is entirely transformed by high quality printing to reflect the beauty and pathos of the original intention This edition also includes a new essay with new research on the making and the reception of the original book and a complete checklist identifying the author location and date of each image The most important new information is that Robert Capa and Gerda Taro are not the only photographers in the book but also included was work by their good friend and colleague Chim later known as David Seymour Born Endre Erno Friedmann in Budapest Robert Capa 1913-54 spent his early years moving from Hungary to Germany to France and Spain first to dodge political strife and then to actively follow and document it From 1936 to 1945 Capa photographed the Spanish Civil War the Second Sino Japanese War and World War II In 1947 he founded the Magnum Photos agency with fellow photographers Henri Cartier Bresson and David Chim Seymour among others Several years later while documenting the First Indochina War Capa died when he stepped on a landmine Blood and Champagne Alex Kershaw,2003-07-25 Friend of Hemingway John Huston and lover of beautiful women Capa lived a life that was equal parts glamour and danger He was the best of combat photographers yet no one knew that Capa was not his real name and that his greatest artistic achievement may well have been himself Two 8 page photo inserts Photographs Robert Capa, 1985
