that parts of the stone wall on the edge of his property have fallen the poet joins his neighbor to walk the line And set the wall between us once again Although he feels they do not need the wall his neighbor insists that Good fences make good neighbours continuing down the line to reinforce the space between them A meditation on humanity civilization and democracy Mending Wall is an iconic and frequently anthologized poem In After Apple Picking as fall gives over to winter the poet remembers in dreams how the Magnified apples appear and disappear Stem end and blossom end as he climbs the ladder into the heart of the tree Both a symbol for life and a metaphor for the poetic act apple picking leaves the poet overtired Of the great harvest he himself desired awaiting sleep as he describes its coming on wondering what if anything it will bring With a beautifully designed cover and professionally typeset manuscript this edition of Robert Frost's North of Boston is a classic of American literature reimagined for modern readers
