Klare Scarborough, Susan Dixon

Robert Campin New Directions In Scholarship:

Robert Campin Susan Foister, Susie Nash, 1996 The nineteen studies presented in this publication provide a range of new research from leading scholars which will provide a fresh basis for assessing Robert Campin's oeuvre Defining the Holy Sarah Hamilton, 2016-12-05 Holy sites both public churches monasteries shrines and more private domestic chapels oratories populated the landscape of medieval and early modern Europe providing contemporaries with access to the divine These sacred spaces thus defined religious experience and were fundamental to both the geography and social history of Europe over the course of 1 000 years But how were these sacred spaces both public and private defined How were they created used recognised and transformed And to what extent did these definitions change over the course of time and in particular as a result of the changes wrought in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Taking a strongly interdisciplinary approach this volume tackles these questions from the point of view of archaeology architectural and art history liturgy and history to consider the fundamental interaction between the sacred and the profane Exploring the establishment of sacred space within both the public and domestic spheres as well as the role of the secular within the sacred sphere each chapter provides fascinating insights into how these concepts helped shape and were shaped by wider society By highlighting these issues on a European basis from the medieval period through the age of the reformations these essays demonstrate the significance of continuity as much as change in definitions of sacred space and thus identify long term trends which have hitherto been absent in more limited studies As such this volume provides essential reading for anyone with an interest in the ecclesiastical development of western Europe from the thirteenth to the eighteenth centuries Vested Angels Maurice Basil McNamee, 1998 McNamee's detailed and well illustrated new study is about eucharistic symbolism in Early Netherlandish painting It focuses on the pervading presence of the vested angel in this school of painting and its eucharistic significance These angels dressed in every possible variation of the vestments of the subministers of the traditional Solemn High Mass are represented as serving the Christ in each episode of His life The history of the vested angel is traced through numerous paintings representing scenes from the life of Christ from the Annunciation through the Last Judgement The theological basis of this study is offered in a discussion of Maurice de la Taille's Mysterium Fidei a theory of Mass that best parallels the concept of Eucharistic symbolism in Early Netherlandish painting Colour illustrations and over a hundred photographs of the original paintings help the reader to follow this fascinating analysis Northern Renaissance Art Susie Nash, 2008-11-27 This book offers a wide ranging introduction to the way that art was made valued and viewed in northern Europe in the age of the Renaissance from the late fourteenth to the early years of the sixteenth century Drawing on a rich range of sources from inventories and guild regulations to poetry and chronicles it examines everything from panel paintings to carved altarpieces While many little known works are foregrounded Susie Nash also presents new ways of viewing and understanding the more familiar such as the paintings of Jan van Eyck Rogier van der Weyden and Hans Memling by considering the social and economic context of their creation and reception Throughout Nash challenges the perception that Italy was the European leader in artistic innovation at this time demonstrating forcefully that Northern art and particularly that of the Southern Netherlands dominated visual culture throughout Europe in this crucial period Ekphrastic

Image-making in Early Modern Europe, 1500-1700 Arthur J. DiFuria, Walter Melion, 2021-12-20 In epideictic oratory ekphrasis is typically identified as an advanced rhetorical exercise that verbally reproduces the experience of viewing a person place or thing more specifically it often purports to replicate the experience of viewing a work of art Not only what was seen but also how it was beheld and the emotions attendant upon first viewing it are implicitly construed as recoverable indeed reproducible This volume examines how and why many early modern pictures operate in an ekphrastic mode such pictures claim to reconstitute works of art that solely survived in the textual form of an ekphrasis or they invite the beholder to respond to a picture in the way s he responds to a stirring verbal image or they call attention to their status as an image in the way that ekphrasis as a rhetorical figure makes one conscious of the process of image making or finally they foreground the artist s or the viewer s agency in the way that the rhetor or auditor is adduced as agent of the image being verbally produced Contributors Carol Elaine Barbour Ivana Bi ak Letha Ch ien James Clifton Teresa Clifton Karl Enenkel Arthur DiFuria Christopher Heuer Barbara Kaminska Annie Maloney Annie McEwen Walter Melion Lars Cyril N rgaard Dawn Odell April Oettinger Shelley Perlove Stephanie Porras Femke Speelberg Caecilie Weissert Elliott Wise and Steffen Zierholz

The Sides of the North Tamar Cholcman, Assaf Pinkus, 2015-09-18 The Sides of the North is dedicated to Yona Pinson s extensive scholarly work on Northern Renaissance art from Hieronymus Bosch s and Peter Breughel s oeuvre through lessons of morality the Fool s imagery gender problems in the representation of the femme fatale bourgeois seductress to emblem studies and up to her most recent project on Mirror Moralization and Irony in Bosch s painting In tribute to her research this volume offers new insights into her fields of interest from a number of leading scholars in these disciplines Larry Silver reconstructs a recently found Adoration of the Magi Triptych by Bosch while Mara R Wade Michael J Giordano and Kathryn M Rudy discuss aspects of self fashioning through portraiture emblem books and manuscripts and their spiritual and performative qualities Nurith Kenaan Kedar and Liad Rinot delve into problems of marginality in Gothic sculpture as well as in Robert Campain s and Jan van Eyck s paintings Ingrid Alexander Skipnes Ruth Strauss and Juliette Roding explore the topic of artistic identities and intentionalism and political ideologies in various media such as in small scale sculptures and paintings Just as Yona Pinson s research diversified from iconographical studies to post modern reflections on such issues as marginality and folly this anthology presents a broad spectrum not only of the diverse topics genres and media of Northern Renaissance art but also and particularly an overview of the methodological range of art scholarship of recent decades thus offering readers insights into the intricate sides of contemporary Netherlandish visual culture The Mind's Eye Jeffrey F. Hamburger, Anne-Marie Bouché, 2006 The Mind s Eye focuses on the relationships among art theology exegesis and literature issues long central to the study of medieval art yet ripe for reconsideration Essays by leading scholars from many fields examine the illustration of theological commentaries the use of images to expound or disseminate doctrine the role of images within theological discourse the development of doctrine in response to images and the place of vision and the visual in theological thought At issue are the ways in which theologians responded to the images that we call art and in which images entered into dialogue with theological discourse In what ways could medieval art be construed as argumentative in structure as well as in function Are any of the modes of representation in medieval art analogous to those found in texts In what ways did images function as vehicles not merely vessels of meaning and signification To what extent can exegesis and other genres of theological discourse shed light on the form as well as the content and function of medieval images These are only some of the challenging questions posed by this unprecedented and interdisciplinary collection which provides a historical framework within which to reconsider the relationship between seeing and thinking perception and the imagination in the Middle Ages

Rothstein, 2005-06-08 Publisher Description Early Netherlandish Paintings Bernhard Ridderbos, Henk Th. van Veen, Anne van Buren, 2005 An illustrated scholarly analysis of the art and the cultural interpretations of the Flemish Primitives Art and Social Change Klare Scarborough, Susan Dixon, 2015-10 The scholarly essays in this book focus on the theme of art and social change in Western art from the Renaissance to about 1950 The edited volume includes contributions by scholars with a range of professional backgrounds and affiliations Their essays address some aspect of the theme and engage with one or more artworks in the collection of La Salle University Art Museum Topics include religious iconography portraiture landscape journal illustrations and Modernist abstraction These essays on the collection add to the body of scholarship which situates works of art in contexts that help reveal and explain changes in social political or cultural values The book is lavishly illustrated with 104 color illustrations
