Robert Graves Blooms Modern Critical Views:

Robert Graves Harold Bloom, 1987 Contains a representative selection of criticism on the work of Robert Graves

Focus on Robert Graves and His Contemporaries, 1993 Nothing but the Clouds Unchanged Gordon

Hughes, Philipp Blom, 2014-11-25 Much of how World War I is understood today is rooted in the artistic depictions of the brutal violence and considerable destruction that marked the conflict Nothing but the Clouds Unchanged examines how the physical and psychological devastation of the war altered the course of twentieth century artistic Modernism Following the lives and works of fourteen artists before during and after the war this book demonstrates how the conflict and the resulting trauma actively shaped artistic production Featured artists include Georges Braque Carlo Carrà Otto Dix Max Ernst George Grosz Ernst Ludwig Kirchner Oskar Kokoschka Käthe Kollwitz Fernand Léger Wyndham Lewis André Masson Louis Moholy-Nagy Paul Nash and Oskar Schlemmer Materials from the Getty Research Institute's special collections including letters popular journals posters sketches propaganda books and photographs situate the works of the artists within the historical context both personal and cultural in which they were created The volume accompanies a related exhibition on view at the Getty Research Institute Gallery from November 25 2014 to April 19 2015 Imagining the Past Colleen

Manassa, 2013-10-25 Five hundred years before Homer immortalized the Trojan Horse the ancient Egyptians had already composed a tale of soldiers hiding Ali Baba like in baskets to capture a besieged city Shortly after the rise to power of the warrior pharaoh Ramesses II Egyptian authors began to write stories about battles and conquest However these stories were not set in the present but in the past they were the world's first works of historical fiction These literary recreations of past events which preserve fascinating mixtures of fact and fiction provide unparalleled information about topics as diverse as ancient Egyptian historiography religion and notions of humor and wit Imagining the Past is the first volume to provide complete translations and commentary for the historical fiction composed during Egypt's New Kingdom The four works include The Quarrel of Apepi and Seqenenre The Capture of Joppa Thutmose III in Asia The Libyan Battle Story An introduction explores Egyptian conceptions of the past the universe of historical and literary texts in New Kingdom Egypt and the definition of a new genre of Egyptian literature Extensive commentary and new translations appear within each chapter and a concluding analysis summarizes the audience and function of historical fiction as well as theology and historiography within the tales Despite the fragmentary nature of the papyrus copies the thorough research into the literary political and social context of each tale allows a modern reader to explore this forgotten literary subfield and appreciate the stories as works of historical fiction The Cambridge Companion to Tacitus A. J. Woodman, 2010-01-21 Tacitus is universally recognised as ancient Rome's greatest writer of history and his account of the Roman Empire in the first century AD has been fundamental in shaping the modern perception of Rome and its emperors This Companion provides a new up to date and authoritative assessment of his work and influence which will be invaluable for students and non specialists as well as of interest to established scholars in the field First situating Tacitus within the tradition of Roman historical writing and his own contemporary society it goes on to analyse each of his individual works and then discuss key topics such as his distinctive authorial voice and his views of history and freedom It ends by tracing Tacitus reception beginning with the transition from manuscript to printed editions describing his influence on political thought in early modern Europe and concluding with his significance in the twentieth century Critical Genealogies Jonathan Arac,1987-12 Reassessing the ancestry of contemporary criticism Jonathan Arac opens current debates over English studies to a larger understanding of cultural and political history from romanticism through postmodernism This work of creative scholarship enlarges our knowledge of the history of criticism while also exemplifying a new practice of writing literary history Arac draws new lines from Wordsworth Coleridge Shelley and Arnold to their modern successors and to recent developments in Marxism and poststructuralism

Whitaker's Books in Print ,1998 Gravesiana ,1997 Books in Series, 1876-1949 R.R. Bowker Company,1982
