Robert Henri Bennard B. Perlman,1984-05-01      Robert Henri William Yarrow,1921      Robert Henri William Yarrow,2017-11-22 Excerpt from Robert Henri His Life and Works The literature engendered by recent art has been abundant and often brilliant but it has been concerned with psychology and technique and its specialized dispersions have confused the general movement The American public bewildered by so much theorizing has come to regard its own art as an unintelligible imitation of the French and its artists as an inhuman class of men blind to the life surrounding them This condition has led to the belief that an American Art Library would be not less welcome than instructive In preparing the monographs no pains will be spared to make them attractive in letterpress and reproductions to make the text within the grasp of the average reader and at the same time consistent with the highest critical thought Artists of unquestionable accomplishment will first be represented followed by the younger men as their work takes maturity I am convinced that a succession of monographs will show that modern American art while inferior in magnitude is equal to the European in variety and interest About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Robert Henri Robert Henri,1921      A Legacy of Art Carol Lowrey,2007 For more than a century a Gilded Age mansion on the south side of New York City s Gramercy Park has been home to the National Arts Club NAC its magnificent interior a refuge from hectic city life In this special catalog Lowrey curator of the club s permanent collection documents selected works by Artist Life Members artists who were given lifetime memberships in the club in exchange for one of their works the program ended in 1950 with the advent of the abstract expressionists The father of well known American sculptor Alexander Calder Alexander Stirling Calder was an Artist Life Member and his sculpture of the painter George Bellows is among the many artworks included here Also featured are an A to Z listing of Artist Life Members and a brief history of the NAC The catalog section includes full color reproductions and descriptions of the artworks as well as brief biographies of the artist Many members works show European influences particularly impressionism and the Barbizon school while others are distinctly American as in the Ash Can school A fine and fitting tribute to the NAC legacy that will be of interest to club academic and large public libraries 75 colour 175 b w illustrations      The Grove Encyclopedia of American Art Joan M. The Darby School of Art Mark W. Sullivan, 2023-11-15 This first full length account of the Darby School of Art overturns Philadelphia's long held unwarranted reputation and demonstrates that Philadelphia was a hub of avant garde painting in the early twentieth century This first full length account of the Darby School of Art overturns Philadelphia's long held unwarranted reputation as artistically stodgy unwilling and unable to embrace Impressionism post Impressionist and abstract art and demonstrates that Philadelphia was more avant garde in the early twentieth century than previously thought This is the story of an almost completely forgotten summer art school that flourished first in Darby PA and then in Fort Washington PA between 1898 and 1918 The Darby School of Art was founded and operated by Thomas Anshutz and Hugh Breckenridge two artists who taught during the academic year at the Pennsylvania Academy of the Fine Arts Anshutz and Breckenridge brought a lot of new ideas about painting back to Philadelphia after their European sojourns and introduced those ideas to a public that was initially not very responsive to Impressionism Post Impressionism and semi abstract art But an appreciation for modern styles of painting began to slowly grow among Philadelphia artists and collectors and Anshutz and Breckenridge were in the forefront of this development They also sympathized with what some have called the New Woman movement which backed women who wanted to pursue careers outside of the home In this new history expert Mark Sullivan argues that the Philadelphia area was a genuine hub of avant garde painting in the early twentieth century even though it has earned the reputation of lagging far behind New York City in its openness to new styles of painting It also discusses how the Darby School should be recognized as an institution that got behind the idea of women as professional artists at a time when that concept was quite radical
