History of Photography Laurent Roosens, 1994 Robert Lebeck, Fotoreportagen Karl Steinorth, 1993

Photographic Literacy Katherine M. H. Reischl, 2018-12-15 Photography introduced to Russia in 1839 was nothing short of a sensation Its rapid proliferation challenged the other arts including painting and literature as well as the very integrity of the self If Leo Tolstoy and Fyodor Dostoevsky greeted the camera with skepticism in the nineteenth century numerous twentieth century authors welcomed it with a warm embrace As Katherine M H Reischl shows in Photographic Literacy authors as varied as Leonid Andreev Ilya Ehrenburg and Alexander Solzhenitsyn picked up the camera and reshaped not only their writing practices but also the sphere of literacy itself For these authors a single photograph or a photograph as illustration is never an endpoint their authorial practices continually transform and animate the frozen moment But just as authors used images to shape the reception of their work and selves Russian photographers including Sergei Prokudin Gorsky and Alexander Rodchenko used text to shape the reception of their visual work From the diary to print the literary word imbues that photographic moment with a personal life story and frames and reframes it in the writing of history In this primer on photographic literacy Reischl argues for the central place that photography has played in the formation of the Russian literary imagination over the course of roughly seventy years From image to text and back again she traces the visual consciousness of modern Russian literature as captured through the lens of the Russian author photographer

Photohistorica ,1990 Foto/montáž tiskem Jindřich Toman,2009 Photomontage was pioneered as a technique in central Europe in the 1910s where it flourished as an art form through the end of World War II While German artists such as John Heartfield Max Ernst and Hannah Hoch used the medium to respond to the atrocities of war other areas of Europe were simultaneously experiencing a newfound political autonomy as the Austro Hungarian Empire collapsed For these artists namely Polish and Czech photomontage manifested itself in a Surrealist approach to cut and paste imagery that emphasized its potential for visual poetry Photo Montage in Print traces the explosion of photomontage art in book cover design and illustrated magazines in the interwar period Documenting the remarkable contributions of Czech artists in the creation of the visual language of modern print media the publication includes some of the leading artists of the Czech avant garde such as Karel Teige Jindřich Styrsky Toyen Ladislav Sutnar and Frantisek Muzika Political Censorship of the Visual Arts in Nineteenth-Century Europe Robert Justin Goldstein,Andrew M. Fotoreportagen Robert Lebeck,Karl Steinorth,Meinrad Maria Grewenig,1993 Magazines and Modern Identities Tim Satterthwaite,Andrew Thacker,2023-09-21 In the late nineteenth and early twentieth century ideals of technological progress and mass consumerism shaped the print cultures of countries across the globe Magazines in Europe the USA Latin America and Asia inflected a shared internationalism and technological optimism But there were equally powerful countervailing influences of patriotic or insurgent nationalism and of traditionalism that promoted cultural differentiation In their editorials images and advertisements magazines embodied the tensions between these domestic imperatives and the forces of global modernity Magazines and Modern Identities explores how these tensions played out in the magazine cultures of ten different countries describing how publications drew on resisted and informed the ideals and visual forms of global modernism

Chapters take in the magazines of Australia Europe and North America as well as China The Soviet Turkic states and Mexico With contributions from leading international scholars the book considers the pioneering developments in European and North American periodicals in the modernist period whilst expanding the field of enquiry to take in the vibrant magazine cultures of east Asia and Latin America The construction of these magazines modern ideals was a complex dialectical process in dialogue with international modernism but equally responsive to their local cultures and the beliefs and expectations of their readers Magazines and Modern Identities captures the diversity of these ideals in periodicals that both embraced and criticised the globalised culture of the technological era Bibliographic Guide to Art and Architecture New York Public Library. Kriebel,Andrés Mario Zervigón,2016-11-25 Recent decades have seen photography s privileged relationship to the real come under question Spurred by the postmodern critique of photography in the 1980s and the rise of digital technologies soon thereafter scholars have been asking who and what built this understanding of the medium in the first place Photography and Doubt reflects on this interest in photography s referential power by discussing it in rigorously historical terms How was the understanding of photographic realism cultivated in the first place What do cases of staged and manipulated photography reveal about that realism s hold on audiences across the medium s history Have doubts about photography s testimonial power stimulated as much knowledge as its realism Edited by Sabine T Kriebel and Andr s Mario Zervig n Photography and Doubt is the first multi authored collection specifically designed to explore these questions Its 13 original essays illustrated with 73 color images explore cases when the link between the photographic image
