Robert Pinget Robert M. Henkels, 1975 Postmodernity, Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson, 2002-01-04 In Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel Andrew Gibson sets out to demonstrate that postmodern theory has actually made possible an ethical discourse around fiction Each chapter elaborates and discusses a particular aspect of Levinas thought and raises questions for that thought and its bearing on the novel It also contains detailed analyses of particular texts Part of the book's originality is its concentration on a range of modernist and postmodern novels which have seldom if ever served as the basis for a larger ethical theory of fiction Postmodernity Ethics and the Novel discusses among others the writings of Joseph Conrad Henry James Jane Austen Samuel Beckett Marcel Proust and Salman Rushdie The Continental Novel Louise S. Fitzgerald, Elizabeth I. Kearney, 1983 The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization The Avant-Postman David Vichnar, 2023-11-01 The Avant Postman explores a broad range of innovative postwar writing in France Britain and the United States Taking James Joyce's revolution of the word in Ulysses and Finnegans Wake as a joint starting point David Vichnar draws genealogical lines through the work of more than fifty writers up to the present including Alain Robbe Grillet B S Johnson William Burroughs Christine Brooke Rose Georges Perec Kathy Acker Iain Sinclair H L ne Cixous Alan Moore David Foster Wallace and many others Centering the exploration around five writing strategies employed by Joyce narrative parallax stylistic metempsychosis concrete writing forgery and neologising the logos the book reveals the striking continuities and developments from Joyce's day to our own The Arthurian Handbook Norris J. Historical Dictionary of French Literature John Flower,2013-01-17 Almost all of us know French literature even if we don t know French because it is probably the second largest and certainly the most translated into English And even if we don t read we would have seen film and television versions think Count of Monte Cristo and even a musical rendition Les Mis So this is a particularly interesting volume in the literature series since it covers French literature from the earliest times to the present It is also a particularly rich literature espousing ever genre from poetry to novel to biography to drama and adopting every style including realism and surrealism and expressing the views of all classes and political stands with recently strong feminist and gay strains Obviously the core dictionary section includes among its panoply of often substantial and detailed entries hundreds of authors dozens of significant works the various styles mentioned above and many others events that have impacted literature such as the Dreyfus Affair and the Algerian War and literary prizes The chronology manages to cover about 1 200 years of literary output And the introduction sets it all out neatly from one historical and literary period to the next The bibliography broken down by period and author directs us to further reading in both French and English

Music Into Fiction Theodore Ziolkowski,2017 Illuminates unexplored dimensions of the music literature relationship and the sometimes unrecognized talents of certain famous writers and composers This book deals with three aspects that have been neglected in the burgeoning field of music and literature The First Movement of the book considers writers from German Romanticism to the present who like Robert Schumann first saw themselves as writers before they turned to composition or like E T A Hoffmann and Anthony Burgess sought careers in music before becoming writers It also considers the few operatic composers such as Richard Wagner and Arnold Schoenberg who wrote their own libretti The Second Movement turns to literary works based specifically on musical compositions This group includes first and more generally prose works whose author chose a specific musical form such as sonata or fugue as an organizational model And second it includes novels based structurally or thematically on specific compositions such as Bach s Goldberg Variations The Finale concludes with unique case efforts by modern composers to render musically the compositions described in detail by Thomas Mann in his novel Doktor Faustus This book which addresses itself to readers interested generally in music and literature and is written in a reader friendly style draws attention to unexplored dimensions of the music literature relationship and to the sometimes unrecognized talents of certain writers and composers Theodore Ziolkowski is Professor Emeritus of German and Comparative Literature Princeton University
