Higgins, Kevin Burns, 2014-05-14 An intimate look at this important spiritual writer's life enriched with the personal accounts of some of the people closest to him friends family and colleagues A twelve page photo section is included Seeds of Redemption Andy White, 2021-05-24 Struggle of both the small and staggering sort is woven throughout all our lives It can erode our faith strip us of hope rob us of joy extinguish our vitality and diminish our capacity to love But because God is always present and at work seeds of redemption lie as hidden treasure buried in the ground of struggle By taking a deeply human look at various figures in the lineage of Jesus in Matthew 1 Andy White shows us that the people we once may have considered unlike us because of thousands of years of separation suddenly come close in their pain loss and failures He too comes close as a man who has faced hardships to offer others a hand when their feet are unsteady By digging into the lives of these biblical sojourners White unearths hidden treasures guides readers on a journey of self discovery and points the way forward showing us ways to cultivate tenacious hope stronger faith and greater capacity to live and love as participants in God's ongoing redemption story The Serendipity of Hope Simon Lee, Ian S. Markham, 2023-07-07 Institutions are very precious. If any idea is going to persist into the future, then it needs an institution to keep it going. Each of us comes to understand, often only gradually, over the decades, how some influences from our earlier life have affected us. Some will have been inspiring. Some will have given us direct models of how to behave or how not to behave. Indeed, it is often the case that the deeper an influence turns out to have been in the long run, the less likely it is that we noticed it at the time it was happening. For this reason, it has become necessary to find the time to reflect on and express gratitude for the institutions that helped form who we are and the work that we do. This collection of essays explores the impact of one institution on twenty-five participants twenty-five years after we worked together. The Institution was Liverpool Hope University College and is now Liverpool Hope University. By telling and reflecting on our stories, we aim to encourage others to think about their own experiences and ultimately our earnest hope is that a greater awareness of this aspect of university life will help to transform our collective understanding of the nature of universities in particular and of communities, institutions or societies in general. But there was something special about belonging to a community called Hope.
