Seldom Sung Songs:

Seldom Sung Songs Raymond Friday Locke, 1984 A novel of family secrets and hatreds that are finally made plain and faced when the group gathers for the burial of a son killed in Korea Songs that Never Die Dudley Buck, 1892 Folk Song in England Steve Roud, 2017-08-15 In Victorian times England was famously dubbed the land without music but one of the great musical discoveries of the early twentieth century was that England had a vital heritage of folk song and music which was easily good enough to stand comparison with those of other parts of Britain and overseas Cecil Sharp Ralph Vaughan Williams Percy Grainger and a number of other enthusiasts gathered a huge harvest of songs and tunes which we can study and enjoy at our leisure But after over a century of collection and discussion publication and performance there are still many things we don't know about traditional song Where did the songs come from Who sang them where when and why What part did singing play in the lives of the communities in which the songs thrived More importantly have the pioneer collectors restricted definitions and narrow focus hindered or helped our understanding This is the first book for many years to investigate the wider social history of traditional song in England and draws on a wide range of sources to answer these questions and many more Travellers' Songs from England and Scotland Ewan MacColl, Peggy Seeger, 2015-12-22 Originally published in 1977 The Travellers from those living in bow tents and horse drawn caravans to those dwelling in motor caravans and permanent homes are an important source of traditional music Their society means that songs that have died out in more settled communities are preserved among them Ewan MacColl and Peggy Seeger widely known as two of the founding singers of the British and American folk revivals here display a vast fund of folklore scholarship around the songs of British travelling people Resulting from extensive collecting in southern and southeastern England and central and northeastern Scotland in the 1960s and 70s this book contains 130 songs with music and comprehensive notes relating them to folkloristic and historical points of interest It includes traditional ballads and ballads of broadside origin bawdy tragic and humorous songs about love work and death Most are in English or in Scots dialect with four in Anglo Romani Dāphā: Sacred Singing in a South Asian City Richard Widdess, 2016-12-05 D ph or d ph bhajan is a genre of Hindu Buddhist devotional singing performed by male non professional musicians of the farmer and other castes belonging to the Newar ethnic group in the towns and villages of the Kathmandu Valley Nepal The songs their texts and their characteristic responsorial performance style represent an extension of pan South Asian traditions of r ga and t la based devotional song but at the same time embody distinctive characteristics of Newar culture This culture is of unique importance as an urban South Asian society in which many traditional models survive into the modern age There are few book length studies of non classical vocal music in South Asia and none of d ph Richard Widdess describes the music and musical practices of d ph accounts for their historical origins and later transformations investigates links with other South Asian traditions and describes a cultural world in which music is an integral part of everyday social and religious life The book focusses particularly on the musical system and structures of d ph but aims to integrate their analysis with that of the cultural and historical context of the music in order to address the question of what music means in a traditional South Asian society

Music News ,1928 Hit Songs, 1900-1955 Don Tyler,2007-04-16 This is a chronology of the most famous songs from the years before rock n roll The top hits for each year are described including vital information such as song origin artist s and chart information For many songs the author includes any web or library holdings of sheet music covers musical scores and free audio files An extensive collection of biographical sketches follows providing performing credits relevant professional awards and brief biographies for hundreds of the era s most popular performers lyricists and composers Includes an alphabetical song index and bibliography Sunday school memorials Benjamin Braidley,1831 The Celt ,1857 The Music of Hindostan Arthur Henry Fox Strangways,1914
