N. Lawrence, 2011-09-14 Who wrote the first five books of the Bible Does it really matter who did The Books of Moses Revisited explores this question by comparing the covenants of Exodus Leviticus and Deuteronomy with the inter state treaties of the late second millennium BC Some compelling similarities come to light both in the pattern adopted and in many small details Lawrence clearly demonstrates this with many examples and diagrams yet without assuming that readers possess a detailed knowledge of ancient history and linguistics Despite the entrenchment of the widely held theory the so called Documentary Hypothesis that the first five books of the Bible were the product of an anonymous editor living many centuries after Moses this book argues that the first five books of the Bible bear many hallmarks of being late second millennium BC compositions and that Moses should not be ruled out as being the author The book also explores how several ancient texts the Egyptian Story of Sinuhe the Mesopotamian Epic of Gilgamesh and Homer's Iliad and Odyssey were transmitted in antiquity and suggests that a similar process also lies behind the transmission of the first five books of the Bible Homer: A Guide for the Perplexed Ahuvia Kahane, 2012-12-05 Shortlisted for the Runciman Award 2013 Homer's poetry is widely recognized as the beginning of the literary tradition of the West and among its most influential canonical texts Outlining a series of key themes ideas and values associated with Homer and Homeric poetry Homer A Guide for the Perplexed explores the question of the formation of the Iliad and the Odyssey the so called Homeric Problem Among the main Homeric themes which the book considers are origin and form orality and composition heroic values social structure and social bias gender roles and gendered interpretation ethnicity representations of religion mortality and the divine memory poetry and poetics and canonicity and tradition and the history of Homeric receptions Drawing upon his extensive knowledge of scholarship on Homer and early epic Ahuvia Kahane explores contemporary critical and philosophical questions relating to Homer and the Homeric tradition and examines his wider cultural impact contexts and significance This is the ideal companion to study of this most influential poet providing readers with some basic suggestions for further pursuing their interests in Homer

The Power of God in Paul's Letters Petrus J. Gräbe, 2008 The concept of God's power is a leading motif in Pauline theology It functions in key passages of Paul's letters and is intrinsically linked to his theology of the cross and its soteriological explication in the message of justification Because this concept is so closely related to the message of the cross Paul often speaks of power in a paradoxical context Although power is generally assumed to be an important motif in Pauline theology the concept has not yet been fully explored Petrus J Grabe investigates the concept of God's power in Paul's letters He also gives an overview of God's power in the broader New Testament context in order to distinguish more clearly the specific Pauline interpretation of the power of God The investigation comprises three sections A lexico and conceptual historical overview of the concept of power an exegetical investigation of the concept of God's power in Paul's letters and a theological scope of the concept of God's power in the Pauline letters In the last section Petrus J Grabe distinguishes between a theological christological and a pneumatological emphasis The concept of God's power plays an important role in the way Paul views his apostolic ministry In the concluding chapter the author therefore deals with Paul's ministry within the christological perspective on weakness and power The work is an important contribution to Pauline studies and is a well researched thorough and scholarly study Jeffrey R Asher in The Catholic Biblical Quarterly vol 64 2002 page 762 This book is a useful refresher course on Paul with a valuable dialogue with the most recent monographs and commentaries on his letters Benedict T Viviano in Zeitschrift für Missions und Religionswissenschaft Jahrgang 86 2002 p 74
