Families, Labour and Love Maureen Baker, 2020-07-29 We think of our family life as very personal but in fact it is shaped by influences well beyond our control Families Labour and Love identifies the ways in which family and personal life in three settler societies Australia New Zealand and Canada has been shaped by colonisation immigration globalisation demographic changes law and policy Baker shows that these three countries each a former colony developed similar family trends and similar family policies Strongly gendered patterns of paid and unpaid work played a major role in family life The family practices of indigenous people were largely overlooked as were those of recent immigrant groups However local conditions also produced significant differences in family experiences among the three countries Richly illustrated with examples comparative data and textual sources Families Labour and Love provides a broad ranging analysis of the family which will appeal to students researchers and policy makers Maureen Baker outlines with great clarity the diversity of families and the way in which they are shaped by historical and cultural forces The focus on Australia New Zealand and Canada is not only refreshing but throws into sharp relief the impact on contemporary families of the colonial experience industrialisation large scale immigration and globalisation David de Vaus La Trobe University

Dangerous Love Chad Ford, 2020-06-23 Chad Ford reminds us that humanity lies within all of us and although conflict is everywhere in today's world we have the tools we need to overcome obstacles and to thrive This is a fantastic timely book that I highly recommend Steve Kerr Head Coach Golden State Warriors Knowing how to transform conflict is critical in both our personal and professional lives Yet by and large we are terrible at it The reason says longtime mediator Chad Ford is fear When conflict comes our instincts are to run or fight To transform conflict Ford says we need to turn toward the people we are in conflict with put down our physical and emotional weapons and really love them with the kind of love that leads us to treat others as fellow human beings not as objects in our way We have to open ourselves up with no guarantee that anyone on the other side will do the same While this can feel even more dangerous than conflict itself it allows us to see the humanity of others so clearly that their needs and desires matter to us as much as our own Ford shows dangerous love in action through examples ranging from his work in the Middle East to a deeply moving story about reconciling with his father He explains why we disconnect from people at the very time we need to be most connected and the predictable patterns of justification and escalation that ensue Most importantly he gives us a path to practice dangerous love in the conflicts that matter most to us The New Zealand Project Max Harris,2017-04-11 By any measure New Zealand must confront monumental issues in the years ahead From the future of work to climate change wealth inequality to new populism these challenges are complex and even unprecedented Yet why does New Zealand s political discussion seem so diminished and our political imagination unequal to the enormity of these issues And why is this gulf particularly apparent to young New Zealanders These questions sit at the centre of Max Harris s New Zealand project This book represents from the perspective of a brilliant young New Zealander a vision for confronting the challenges ahead Unashamedly idealistic The New Zealand Project arrives at a time of global upheaval that demands new conversations about our shared future Love and Honour? David D E Evans,2021-06-17 Love and Honour Marriage for Peace exposes the ongoing phenomenon of Romeo and Juliet style romance tragedy families killing their own and other families daughters sons sisters and brothers in the name of family honour Focused on Northern India and Nepal the stories illustrate that despite India adopting a democratic constitution in 1950 the public murder of forbidden lovers continues Media reports of this phenomenon did not surface until 1993 but have increased dramatically since then Love and Honour Marriage for Peace has been written to seek a path from murder to reconciliation to acceptance and ultimately to marriage for peace The Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology, Volume 3 Irving B. Weiner,W. Edward Craighead,2010-01-19 Psychologists researchers teachers and students need complete and comprehensive information in the fields of psychology and behavioral science The Corsini Encyclopedia of Psychology Volume Three has been the reference of choice for almost three decades This indispensable resource is updated and expanded to include much new material It uniquely and effectively blends psychology and behavioral science The Fourth Edition features over 1 200 entries complete coverage of DSM disorders and a bibliography of over 10 000 citations Readers will benefit from up to date and authoritative coverage of every major area of psychology Native Displacement in the Twenty-First Century: Applying Leadership Knowledge Abann Kamyay

Ajak Yor,2020-09-15 This book Native Displacement in the Twenty First Century Applying Leadership Knowledge is produced of project and exegesis of Master of Applied Indigenous Knowledge That provided to the author a vehicle to apply and evaluate learning within the context of an applied project connected to indigenous epistemology and an indigenous community The study sought to as a question Applying Leadership Knowledge how can it build on and enhance relationships in South Sudanese and other ethnic communities through encouraging the development of new and effective leadership roles This book is a Taonga Tuku Iho Resource Product for the South Sudanese and other ethnic communities and New Zealand society as a whole It is a contribution to present and future generations Provides the readers with practical knowledge with a new perspective about forced immigrations to Aotearoa New Zealand It is using the research findings and author story of forced immigration family tribal affiliation and country historical narratives that use as a template for other forced migrant background of New Zealand It serves as a resource and product resulted from conversations with fourteen South Sudanese and a hundred and six ethnic communities participants

Dangerous Country of Love and Marriage Amy Leigh

Wicks,2019-06-13 A collection of sharp sensory poems that build a narrative of love and marriage migration and isolation Tonight marks a thousand dry nights and I wantto show you something It s a little cavehollowed out by my thirst a place for you to live In this powerful collection Amy Leigh Wicks takes the reader on a literal journey from New York City to Wellington and Kaikoura and on an emotional journey from youth into the dangerous country of love and marriage Wicks produces sharp sensory poems that circle around love and commitment migration and isolation With a powerful narrative and emotional arc this collection introduces us to an important new voice in New Zealand poetry The dark ocean from the window is still the waves are sparkling as in photographsand all I can think is how I wantto cut through the sun setting on the purple horizonwith a pair of big scissors
