political and national boundaries war graves and the human cost of the war on every continent Japanese Military Strategy in the Pacific War James B Wood, 2023-06-14 In this provocative history James B Wood challenges the received wisdom that Japan's defeat in the Pacific was historically inevitable. He argues instead that it was only when the Japanese military prematurely abandoned its original sound strategic plan to secure the resources Japan needed and establish a viable defensible perimeter for the Empire that the Allies were able to regain the initiative and lock Japanese forces into a war of attrition they were not prepared to fight. The book persuasively shows how the Japanese army and navy had both the opportunity and the capability to have fought a different and more successful war in the Pacific that could have influenced the course and outcome of World War II. It is therefore a study both of Japanese defeat and of what was needed to achieve a potential Japanese victory or at the very least to avoid total ruin. Wood's argument does not depend on signal individual historical events or dramatic accidents. Instead it examines how familiar events could have been different. The Palgrave Concise Historical Atlas of World War II M. Folly, 2004-10-06 The Palgrave Concise Historical Atlas of the Second World War explores in graphical form the causes, course, and consequences of this global war. Clear two-colour maps and diagrams are accompanied by a facing page of explanatory text addressing not just battles and campaigns but also clarifying the key social, economic, and political aspects of the war. These tend to get less coverage in conventional military history atlases but are vital for understanding the totality of the war experience and its enduring legacy. Students and general readers will find it a useful and accessible introduction to the war in all its facets from its origins to its legacy. World War II in Literature for Youth Patricia Hachten Wee, Robert James Wee, 2004-11-10 This comprehensive volume provides a wealth of information with annotated listings of more than 3,500 titles, a broad sampling of books on the war years 1939-1945. Includes both fiction and nonfiction works about all aspects of the war. Professional resources for educators aligned to the educational standards for social studies, technical references, periodicals, and electronic resources, a directory of WWII museums, memorials, and other institutions, and topics for exploration complement this excellent library and classroom resource. Fortnight of Infamy John Burton, 2013-09-23 While America was preoccupied with the aftermath of Pearl Harbor, an even greater tragedy was unfolding across Southeast Asia. From Wake Island to Burma, the Empire of Japan opened the largest front in the history of warfare: an aircraft-driven invasion of colonial possessions throughout the Far East that crumbled the entire Western imperial legacy of the nineteenth century. Events during the first two weeks of battle set the stage for the greatest military defeats America and Great Britain would suffer during any conflict. This book offers the first comprehensive overview of the collapse of Allied air forces during the period between December 8 and 24, 1941. Written for a wide audience, it gives readers both a cockpit view of the desperate actions that took place and an understanding of why such heavy losses occurred. The narrative account includes enough detail and analysis to hold the interest of serious students of Pacific War aviation and enough exciting descriptions of air combat to attract those with little knowledge of the subject. Explaining how and why the

Japanese were able to win a quick victory John Burton points to U S failures in the concepts for employment of airpower and a significant underestimation of Japanese air mindedness and aviation capabilities failures that resulted in the loss or surrender of more than 200 000 troops at Bataan and Singapore

World War II Medal of Honor Recipients (1) Robert Hargis, Starr Sinton, 2012-08-20 The first of two titles looking at the recipients of the Medal of Honor the highest military award that can be bestowed on personnel in the United States Armed Forces during World War II It covers Navy and Marine Corps awardees in all theaters of war from the attack on Pearl Harbor in 1941 to the brutal fighting on Iwo Jima in 1945 Among the inspiring stories told are those of Signalman 1st Class Douglas Munro the only Coast Guardsman to ever receive the Medal of Honor and Commander Antrim who faced almost certain death to save fellow prisoners in a Japanese prisoner of war camp Robert Hargis and Starr Sinton s evocative text is accompanied by illustrations and photographs throughout
