PACIFIC WAR DIARY 1942-1945: THE SECRET DIARY OF AN AMERICAN SAILOR. JAMES. FAHEY, 1992 PERSONAL NARRATIVES OF U S MILITARY PERSONNEL Pacific War Diary, 1942-1945 James J. Fahey, 2003 Fahey was a 24 year old garbage truck driver when he enlisted in the Navy on Oct 3 1942 and became a seaman first class on the USS Montpelier During almost three years of battle in the Pacific Ocean he defied Navy rules against keeping a diary by writing copious notes on loose sheets of paper that appeared to anyone watching to be ordinary let To the End of the Earth John C.

McManus, 2023-05-02 Winner of the Army Historical Foundation Award for Excellence in U S Army Writing From the liberation of the Philippines to the Japanese surrender the final volume of John C McManus s trilogy on the US Army in the Pacific War Brilliant and riveting a truly great book Gen David Petraeus Triumphant and compelling Richard Frank McManus is one of the best if not the best World War II historians working today World War II magazine The dawn of 1945 finds a US Army at its peak in the Pacific Allied victory over Japan is all but assured The only question is how many more months or years of fight does the enemy have left John C McManus winner of the Gilder Lehrman Prize for Military History concludes his magisterial series described by the Wall Street Journal as being as vast and splendid as Rick Atkinson s Pulitzer Prize winning Liberation Trilogy with this brilliant final volume On the island of Luzon a months long stand off between US and Japanese troops finally breaks open as American soldiers push into Manila while paratroopers and amphibious invaders capture nearby Corregidor The Philippines are soon liberated and Allied strategists turn their eyes to China Iwo Jima Okinawa and the Japanese home islands themselves Readers will walk in the boots of American soldiers and officers braving intense heat rampant disease and a by now suicidal enemy determined to kill as many opponents as possible before defeat and they will encounter Japanese soldiers faced with the terrible choice between capitulation or doom At the same time this outstanding narrative lays bare the titanic ego and ambition of the Pacific War s most prominent general Douglas MacArthur and the complex challenges he faced in Japan s unconditional surrender and America s lengthy occupation Theaters of War V. Casaregola, 2009-09-28 Historian Vincent Casaregola examines the portrayal of WWII in popular culture and how that portrayal has changed over time By examining WWII films literature theatre and art from the Cold War era the Vietnam War the Reagan years and present day he seeks to understand the part played by current politics events and conflicts

Rampage James M. Scott, 2018-10-30 Illuminating An eloquent testament to a doomed city and its people The Wall Street Journal In early 1945 General Douglas MacArthur prepared to reclaim Manila America s Pearl of the Orient which had been seized by the Japanese in 1942 Convinced the Japanese would abandon the city he planned a victory parade down Dewey Boulevard but the enemy had other plans The Japanese were determined to fight to the death The battle to liberate Manila resulted in the catastrophic destruction of the city and a rampage by Japanese forces that brutalized the civilian population resulting in a massacre as horrific as the Rape of Nanking Drawing from war crimes testimony after action reports and survivor interviews Rampage recounts one of the most heartbreaking chapters of Pacific War history The Souvenir Louise Steinman,2013-05-07 A soldier s daughter unravels the secrets of her father s experience in the Pacific Theater in this graceful understated World War II memoir for fans of The Things They Carried The New York Times Book Review Louise Steinman s American childhood in the fifties was bound by one unequivocal condition Never mention the war to your father That silence sustained itself until the fateful day Steinman opened an old ammunition box left behind after her parents death In it she discovered nearly 500 letters her father had written to her mother during his service in the Pacific War and a Japanese flag mysteriously inscribed to Yoshio Shimizu Setting out to determine the identity of Yoshio Shimizu and the origins of the silken flag Steinman discovered the unexpected a hidden side of her father the green soldier who achingly left his pregnant wife to fight for his life in a brutal 165 day campaign that changed him forever Her journey to return the souvenir to its owner not only takes Steinman on a passage to Japan and the Philippines but also returns her to the age of her father s innocence where she learned of the tender and expressive man she d never known Steinman writes with the same poignant immediacy her father did in his letters Together their stories in The Souvenir create an evocative testament to the ways in which war changes one generation and shapes another Pacific War Diary James J. Fahey,1973 The War Geoffrey C. Ward,Ken Burns,2020-02-04 The vivid voices that speak from these pages are not those of historians or scholars They are the voices of ordinary men and women who experienced and helped to win the most devastating war in history in which between 50 and 60 million lives were lost Focusing on the citizens of four towns Luverne Minnesota Sacramento California Waterbury Connecticut Mobile Alabama The War follows more than forty people from 1941 to 1945 Woven largely from their memories the compelling unflinching narrative unfolds month by bloody month with the outcome always in doubt All the iconic events are here from Pearl Harbor to the liberation of the concentration camps but we also move among prisoners of war and Japanese American internees defense workers and schoolchildren and families who struggled simply to stay together while their men were shipped off to Europe the Pacific and North Africa Enriched by maps and hundreds of photographs including many never published before this is an intimate profoundly affecting chronicle of the war that shaped our world From the Hardcover edition When the Shooting Stopped Barrett Tillman,2022-04-14 Highly recommended as a sobering but enlightening account Richard B Frank author of Downfall The End of the Japanese Empire In the 44 months between December 1941 and August 1945 the Pacific Theater absorbed the attention of the American nation and military longer than any other Despite the Allied grand strategy of Germany first after the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor the U S especially was committed to confronting Tokyo as a matter of urgent priority But from Oahu to Tokyo was a long sanguinary slog averaging an advance of just three miles per day The U S human toll paid on that road reached some 108 000 battle deaths more than one third the U S wartime total But by the summer of 1945 on both the American homefront and on the frontline there was hope The stunning announcements of atomic bombs on Hiroshima and Nagasaki on August 6 and 9 seemed sure to force Tokyo over the tipping point since the Allies surrender demand from Potsdam Germany in July What few understood was the vast gap in the cultural ethos of East and West at that time In fact most of the Japanese cabinet refused to surrender and vicious dogfights were still waged in the skies above Japan This fascinating new history tells the dramatic story of the final weeks of the war detailing the last brutal battles on air land and sea with evocative first hand accounts from pilots and sailors caught up in these extraordinary events Barrett Tillman then expertly details the first weeks of a tenuous peace and the drawing of battle lines with the forthcoming Cold War as Soviet forces concluded their invasion of Manchuria When the Shooting Stopped retells these dramatic events drawing on accounts from all sides to relive the days when the war finally ended and the world was forever changed Escape from Bataan Ross E. Hofmann, 2016-08-04 U S Navy Supply Corps Ensign Ross Hofmann had no idea what was in store for him when he arrived at Cavite Naval Base in October 1941 Two months later Japanese forces struck the Philippines destroying the base and forcing U S personnel to retreat to Bataan There Hofmann joined a makeshift unit of Army Aircorps ground personnel U S Marines U S sailors U S Naval ground battalions and Filipinos to fight a Japanese force that landed nearby In March 1942 with the fall of Bataan imminent he traveled to Cebu to run supplies through the blockade of Bataan and Corregidor Soon after his arrival the Japanese landed on Cebu forcing the Americans to retreat again Hiking through jungles and crossing dangerous waters in barely seaworthy vessels Hofmann avoided capture and reached an American base in Mindanao He received orders to establish a seaplane base on Lake Lanao As Japanese troops landed nearby two seaplanes returning from Corregidor stopped to refuel one of them hitting a submerged rock on take off In a harrowing race against the enemy advance Hofmann and others worked feverishly to fix the plane and escape before the Japanese converged on Lake Lanao This memoir recounts Hofmann s experiences in vivid detail Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here
