Pageants Of The African World:

Pageants of the African World Nigeria Magazine,1980 The Pan-African Nation Andrew Apter,2008-10-01 When Nigeria hosted the Second World Black and African Festival of Arts and Culture FESTAC in 1977 it celebrated a global vision of black nationhood and citizenship animated by the exuberance of its recent oil boom Andrew Apter's The Pan African Nation tells the full story of this cultural extravaganza from Nigeria's spectacular rebirth as a rapidly developing petro state to its dramatic demise when the boom went bust According to Apter FESTAC expanded the horizons of blackness in Nigeria to mirror the global circuits of its economy By showcasing masks dances images and souvenirs from its many diverse ethnic groups Nigeria forged a new national culture In the grandeur of this oil fed confidence the nation subsumed all black and African cultures within its empire of cultural signs and erased its colonial legacies from collective memory As the oil economy collapsed however cultural signs became unstable contributing to rampant violence and dissimulation The Pan African Nation unpacks FESTAC as a historically situated mirror of production in Nigeria More broadly it points towards a critique of the political economy of the sign in postcolonial Africa A Beautiful Pageant D. Krasner,2016-09-27 The Harlem Renaissance was an unprecedented period of vitality in the American Arts Defined as the years between 1910 and 1927 it was the time when Harlem came alive with theater drama sports dance and politics Looking at events as diverse as the prizefight between Jack Johnson and Jim White Hope Jeffries the choreography of Aida Walker and Ethel Waters the writing of Zora Neale Hurston and the musicals of the period Krasner paints a vibrant portrait of those years This was the time when the residents of northern Manhattan were leading their downtown counterparts at the vanguard of artistic ferment while at the same time playing a pivotal role in the evolution of Black nationalism This is a thrilling piece of work by an author who has been working towards this major opus for years now It will become a classic that will stay on the American history and theater shelves for years to come Native American Princess Pageants Sebahattin Ziyanak,Steven Aicinena,2024-10-15 This book delivers a systematic investigation of Native American princess pageants exploring when and why they started how they spread across and within Native American communities the ways in which these pageants differ from other contests such as Miss USA the workings of the pageants themselves and their socio cultural costs and benefits Building the Black Arts Movement Jonathan Fenderson,2019-03-30 As both an activist and the dynamic editor of Negro Digest Hoyt W Fuller stood at the nexus of the Black Arts Movement and the broader black cultural politics of his time Jonathan Fenderson uses historical snapshots of Fuller's life and achievements to rethink the period and establish Fuller's important role in laying the foundation for the movement In telling Fuller's story Fenderson provides provocative new insights into the movement's international dimensions the ways the movement took shape at the local level the impact of race and other factors and the challenges corporate political and personal that Fuller and others faced in trying to build black institutions An innovative study that approaches the movement from a historical perspective Building the Black Arts Movement is a much needed reassessment of the trajectory of African American culture over two explosive decades Black Theatre Paul Carter Harrison, Victor Leo Walker, Gus Edwards, Walker II Victor Leo, 2002-11 An insider's view of Black theatres of the world and how they reflect their culture concerns and history

Governance and Leadership Institutions in Nigeria Ernest Aniche, Toyin Falola, 2020-11-29 This book examines how modern Nigerian political institutions have grappled with the resurgence of traditional institutions of political leadership in the post colonial era The contributors examine the role and nature of traditional governance institutions in West Africa from pre colonial times to the post colonial era Part I considers a range of traditional institutions including monarchies Islamic institutions and the role of culture and arts such as masking and music in traditional leadership Part II focuses on modern governance institutions elites political action arts and democracy in post colonial Nigeria Part III examines democratic institutions and processes in Nigeria's Fourth Republic covering issues such as electoral reforms women's political participation and democratic citizenship This book will be of interest to students and scholars of African politics governance and democratization

Beauty around the World Erin Kenny, Elizabeth Gackstetter Nichols, 2017-06-22 Taking the concept of beauty seriously this encyclopedia examines how humanity has sought and continues to seek what is beautiful in a variety of cultural contexts giving readers an understanding of how to look at beauty both intellectually and critically Is beauty ever more than skin deep Arguably yes considering that the concept of beauty and the pursuit of it has shaped cultures worldwide across every time period and has even served to change the course of history Studying beauty practices yields insight into social status wealth political ideology religious doctrine and gender expectations including gender nonconformity A truly interdisciplinary text Beauty around the World A Cultural Encyclopedia presents an insightful perspective on beauty that draws from philosophy literature sociology anthropology psychology and feminist studies giving readers a unique view of world beauty practices This volume offers information about beauty practices from the past to the present in alphabetical entries that address terms and topics such as beards dreadlocks Geisha moko tattoos and progressive muscularity Readers will better comprehend how beauty shapes many social interactions in profound ways worldwide and that the unspoken social agreements that shape ideals of attractiveness and desirability within any given culture can matter very much The encyclopedia's entries challenge readers to consider the questions What is beauty and Why does it matter A comprehensive bibliography is a valuable resource for further research

Beauty Pageants Noël Merino, 2010 Sixteen detailed essays are collected here to provide the full landscape of the beauty pageant world and its impact Hotly debated beauty pageants divide public opinion Readers will analyze many issues including whether beauty pageants perpetuate the female beauty myth whether winners are good role models and whether Miss Landmine exploits landmine victims

Language, Globalization and the Making of a Tanzanian Beauty Queen Sabrina Billings, 2013-11-15 This book uses a micro analysis of language in and around Tanzanian beauty pageants to examine what happens at beauty pageants and the ways in which contestants are evaluated and how this sheds light on life in urban Tanzania today By integrating linguistic and non linguistic data the book illustrates the real life effects of language policy and structural inequality on people s lives
