Paint Your Wagon:

The Musical Worlds of Lerner and Loewe Gene Lees, 2005-01-01 Biography of lyricist Alan Jay Lerner and composer Frederick Loewe creators of memorable Broadway and motion picture musicals The Oxford Handbook of Musical Theatre Screen Adaptations Dominic McHugh, 2019-06-14 Hollywood's conversion to sound in the 1920s created an early peak in the film musical following the immense success of The Jazz Singer. The opportunity to synchronize moving pictures with a soundtrack suited the musical in particular since the heightened experience of song and dance drew attention to the novelty of the technological development. Until the near collapse of the genre in the 1960s the film musical enjoyed around thirty years of development as landmarks such as The Wizard of Oz, Meet Me in St. Louis, Singin' in the Rain, and Gigi showed the exciting possibilities of putting musicals on the silver screen. The Oxford Handbook of Musical Theatre Screen Adaptations traces how the genre of the stage to screen musical has evolved starting with screen adaptations of operettas such as The Desert Song and Rio Rita and looks at how the Hollywood studios in the 1930s exploited the publication of sheet music as part of their income. Numerous chapters examine specific screen adaptations in depth including not only favorites such as Annie and Kiss Me Kate but also some of the lesser known titles like Li'l Abner and Roberta and problematic adaptations such as Carousel and Paint Your Wagon. Together the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies That's Entertainment Tighe E. Zimmers, 2021-05-19 Arthur Schwartz 1900-1984 a premier composer of American Popular Song during the mid 20th century has been overlooked by historians. This first full length biography covers his work on Broadway and in Hollywood where he was known as the master of the intimate revue for his songs in the 1930s with Howard Dietz. Schwartz wrote music for films in the 1940s with Academy Award nominations for They're Either Too Young or Too Old and A Girl in Calico produced two popular movie musicals Cover Girl and Night and Day and was among the first songwriters to work in the new medium of television. The author describes his creative process and includes behind the scenes stories of each of his major musicals Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. transgressive fare Ken Windrum focuses on four genres of traditionalist movies big budget musicals war spectacles naughty sex comedies and Westerns From El Dorado to Lost Horizons shows how even seemingly innocuous family oriented films still participated in the progressive aspects of the time while also holding a conservative point of view Windrum analyzes representations of issues including gender roles marriage sexuality civil rights and Cold War foreign policy revealing how these films dealt with changing times and reflected both status quo positions and new attitudes He also examines how the movies continued or deviated from classical principles of structure and style Windrum provides a counter history of the Hollywood Renaissance by focusing on a group of important films that have nevertheless been neglected in scholarly accounts This book is detailed and insightful in discussing the traditional classical and maverick but ultimately recuperative qualities of the mainstream films of the period Windrum s discussion of the narrative structure and stylistic elements of the films both classical and innovative is a highlight of the book Glenn Man author of Radical Visions American Film Renaissance 1967 1976

Roadshow! Matthew Kennedy, 2015-09-02 In Roadshow The Fall of Film Musicals in the 1960s film historian Matthew Kennedy explores the downfall of a beloved genre caught in the hands of misguided creators who glutted the American film market with a spate of expensive and financially unrewarding musicals between 1967 and 1972 In doing so it offers an alternative view of this era in the world of American popular entertainment telling of the cultural importance of the studios death grip on the film business rather than dwelling on the failures of the flops themselves
