The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting, 1775-1809 Dr Liam Lenihan, 2014-01-10

Examining the literary career of the eighteenth century Irish painter James Barry 1741 1806 through an interdisciplinary methodology The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting 1775 1809 is the first full length study of the artist s writings Liam Lenihan critically assesses the artist s own aesthetic philosophy about painting and printmaking and reveals the extent to which Barry wrestles with the significant stylistic transformations of the pre eminent artistic genre of his age history painting Lenihan s book delves into the connections between Barry s writings and art and the cultural and political issues that dominated the public sphere in London during the American and French Revolutions "The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting, 1775?809 " Liam Lenihan, 2017-07-05 Examining the literary career of the eighteenth century Irish painter James Barry 1741 1806 through an interdisciplinary methodology The Writings of James Barry and the Genre of History Painting 1775 1809 is the first full length study of the artist s writings Liam Lenihan critically assesses the artist s own aesthetic philosophy about painting and printmaking and reveals the extent to which Barry wrestles with the significant stylistic transformations of the pre eminent artistic genre of his age history painting Lenihan s book delves into the connections between Barry s writings and art and the cultural and political issues that dominated the public sphere in London during the American and French Revolutions Barry s writings are read within the context of the political and aesthetic thought of his distinguished friends and contemporaries such as Edmund Burke his first patron Joshua Reynolds his sometime friend and rival Mary Wollstonecraft and William Godwin with whom he was later friends and his students and adversaries William Blake and Henry Fuseli Ultimately Lenihan s interdisciplinary reading shows the extent to which Barry s faith in the classical tradition in general and the genre of history painting in particular is permeated by the hermeneutics of suspicion This study explores and contextualizes Barry s attempt to rethink and remake the preeminent art form of his era Painting with Words, Writing with Pictures Franco Ricci, 2001-01-01 Ricci s book ranges widely over Calvino s oeuvre to illustrate the accuracy of the idea articulated by Calvino himself that a visual image lies at the origin of all his narrative The book s main theme is the difficult interface between word and image that Calvino struggled with throughout his career the act of perception that rendered visible that which was invisible and transformed what was seen into what is read Ricci holds that Calvino s narrative has an imagocentric program and that his literary strategy is ekphrastic i e it is characterized by literary description of visual representation real or imaginary The book is interdisciplinary in nature and will interest not only scholars of literature but also those who work with the visual arts and with information technology Writing Back to Modern Art Jonathan P. Harris, 2005 Studying the art writing and critique of the three leading art writers of the latter 20th century with focus on canonical modern artists Harris brings us this study which assesses the development of modern art writing Hot, Cold, Heavy, Light, 100 Art Writings 1988-2018 Peter Schjeldahl, 2019-06-04 Hot Cold Heavy Light collects 100 writings some long some short that taken together forma group portrait of many of the world s most significant and interesting artists From Pablo Picasso to Cindy Sherman Old Masters to contemporary masters paintings to comix and saints to charlatans Schjeldahl ranges widely through the diverse and confusing art world an expert guide to a dazzling scene No other writer enhances the reader s experience of art in precise jargon free prose as Schjeldahl does His reviews are more essay than criticism and he offers engaging and informative accounts of artists and their work For more than three decades he has written about art with Emersonian openness and clarity A fresh perspective an unexpected connection a lucid gloss on a big idea awaits the reader on every page of this big absorbing buzzing book Writing and Filming the Painting Laura M. Sager Eidt,2008 This innovative interdisciplinary study compares the uses of painting in literary texts and films In developing a framework of four types of ekphrasis the author argues for the expansion of the concept of ekphrasis by demonstrating its applicability as interpretive tool to films about the visual arts and artists Analyzing selected works of art by Goya Rembrandt and Vermeer and their ekphrastic treatment in various texts and films this book examines how the medium of ekphrasis affects the representation of the visual arts in order to show what the differences imply about issues such as gender roles and the function of art for the construction of a personal or social identity Because of its highly cross disciplinary nature this book is of interest not only to scholars of literature and aesthetics but also for scholars of film studies By providing an innovative approach to discussing non documentary films about artists the author shows that ekphrasis is a useful tool for exploring both aesthetic concerns and ideological issues in film This study also addresses art historians as it deals with the reception of major artists in European literature and film throughout the 20th century Conservation of Easel Paintings Joyce Hill Stoner,Rebecca Rushfield,2013-02-15 Conservation of Easel Paintings is the first comprehensive text on the history philosophy and methods of treatment of easel paintings that combines both theory with practice With contributions from an international group of experts and interviews with important artists this volume provides an all encompassing guide to necessary background knowledge in technical art history artists materials scientific methods of examination and documentation with sections that present varying approaches and methods for treatment including consolidation lining cleaning retouching and varnishing The book concludes with a section featuring issues of preventive conservation storage shipping exhibition lighting safety issues and public outreach Conservation of Easel Paintings is a crucial resource in the training of conservation students and will provide generations of practicing paintings conservators and interested art historians curators directors collectors dealers artists and students of art and art history with invaluable information and guidance When Writing Met Art Denise Schmandt-Besserat,2009-02-17 An archaeologist and art historian examines the impact of literacy on visual art during the early urban period in the Near East Denise Schmandt Besserat opened a new chapter in the history of literacy when she demonstrated that the cuneiform script invented in the ancient Near East in the late fourth millennium BC the world s oldest known system of writing derived from an archaic counting device Her discovery was published in Before Writing From Counting to Cuneiform and How Writing Came About which was named by American Scientist as one of the 100 or so Books that shaped a Century of Science In When Writing Met Art Schmandt Besserat expands her history of writing into the visual realm Using examples of ancient Near Eastern writing and masterpieces of art she shows that between 3500 and 3000 BC the conventions of writing everything from its linear organization to its semantic use of the form size order and placement of signs spread to the making of art resulting in artworks that presented complex visual narratives in place of the repetitive motifs found on preliterate art objects Schmandt Besserat then demonstrates art s reciprocal impact on the development of writing She shows how beginning in 2700 2600 BC the inclusion of inscriptions on funerary and votive art objects emancipated writing from its original accounting function To fulfill its new role writing evolved to replicate speech this made it possible to compile organize and synthesize unlimited amounts of information Schmandt Besserat s pioneering investigation documents a turning point in human history when two of our most fundamental information media reciprocally multiplied their capacities to communicate When writing met art literate civilization was born

Chinese Ways of Seeing and Open-Air Painting Yi Gu,2021-02-01 How did modern Chinese painters see landscape Did they depict nature in the same way as premodern Chinese painters What does the artistic perception of modern Chinese painters reveal about the relationship between artists and the nation state Could an understanding of modern Chinese landscape painting tell us something previously unknown about art political change and the epistemological and sensory regime of twentieth century China Yi Gu tackles these questions by focusing on the rise of open air painting in modern China Chinese artists almost never painted outdoors until the late 1910s when the New Culture Movement prompted them to embrace direct observation linear perspective and a conception of vision based on Cartesian optics The new landscape practice brought with it unprecedented emphasis on perception and redefined artistic expertise Central to the pursuit of open air painting from the late 1910s right through to the early 1960s was a reinvigorated and ever growing urgency to see suitably as a Chinese and to see the Chinese homeland correctly Examining this long overlooked ocular turn Gu not only provides an innovative perspective from which to reflect on complicated interactions of the global and local in China but also calls for rethinking the nature of visual modernity there
