Responses to Pakistan's Blasphemy Laws Qaiser Julius,2017-09-30 The roots of Pakistan s blasphemy laws can be traced back to the British colonial rule in India but their harsher clauses were added to the Pakistan Penal Code during a wave of intense Islamization in the 1980s Everyone in Pakistan is threatened by the misuse of these laws even Muslims however a disproportionate number of victims targeted by these laws have come from two minority groups the Ahmadis and Christians Dr Qaiser Julius focuses on how these two groups have been affected by Pakistan s blasphemy laws their different reactions to these laws and more specifically why they are responding differently despite living under the same circumstances In this well structured and understandable study Julius provides a valuable tool for Christians to understand what it means to be a minority in a hostile culture This thorough analysis presents a way forward for the Christian church in Pakistan providing hope amidst the discrimination and persecution THOUGHTS ON PAKISTAN M.K. GANDHI, The Muslim Leaguers have today raised the slogan that ten crores of Indian Muslims are in danger of being submerged and swept out of existence unless they constitute themselves into a separate state I call the slogan scare mongering pure and simple It is nonsense to say that any people can permanently crush or swamp out of existence one fourth of its population which the Mussalman s are in India But I would have no hesitation in conceding the demand of Pakistan if I could be convinced of its righteousness of that it is good for Islam But I am firmly convinced that the Pakistan demand as put forth by the Muslim League is un islamic and I have not hesitated to call it sinful Islam stands for the unity and brotherhood of mankind not for disrupting the oneness of the human family Therefore those who want to divide India into possibly warring groups are enemies alike of India and Islam They cut me to pieces but they cannot make me subscribe to something which I consider to be wrong M K Gandhi to the Muslim Leaguers and M A Jinnah Harijan Oct 6 1946 At this juncture we should try to understand the genesis of this almost pathological abhorrence of Gandhiji to the concept of Pakistan and consequent partitioning of India and trace its roots We must keep in mind two fundamental tenets of Gandhian philosophy which principally governed the thought process behind penning the articles that follow in this book The views sentiments expressed in this book of Mahatma Gandhi some seventy four years ago hold good even today The very demand of Pakistan he has characterised as a sin The recent tragic happenings have amply proved what an unmitigated sin it is A complete and coherent picture of the Pakistan problem as viewed by Gandhi has been reproduced from the pages of Harijan which he edited besides many press notes on the issue At the end copious appendixes have also been incorporated
