Homeless Tongues Monique Balbuena, 2016-07-27 This book examines a group of multicultural Jewish poets to address the issue of multilingualism within a context of minor languages and literatures nationalism and diaspora It introduces three writers working in minor or threatened languages who challenge the usual consensus of Jewish literature Algerian Sadia Levy Israeli Margalit Matitiah and Argentine Juan Gelman Each of them Levy in French and Hebrew Matitiah in Hebrew and Ladino and Gelman in Spanish and Ladino expresses a hybrid or composite Sephardic identity through a strategic choice of competing languages and intertexts Monique R Balbuena's close literary readings of their works which are mostly unknown in the United States are strongly grounded in their social and historical context Her focus on contemporary rather than classic Ladino poetry and her argument for the inclusion of Sephardic production in the canon of Jewish literature make Homeless Tongues a timely and unusual intervention
