Private Collection A Personal Reminiscen:

Jayhawkers Bryce Benedict, 2012-11-19 No person excited greater emotion in Kansas than James Henry Lane the U S senator who led a volunteer brigade in 1861 1862 In fighting numerous skirmishes liberating hundreds of slaves burning portions of four towns and murdering half a dozen men Lane and his brigade garnered national attention as the saviors of Kansas and the terror of Missouri This first book length study of the jayhawkers as the men of Lane s brigade were known takes a fresh look at their exploits and notoriety Bryce Benedict draws on a wealth of previously unexploited sources including letters by brigade members to dramatically re create the violence along the Kansas Missouri border and challenge some of the time honored depictions of Lane s unit as bloodthirsty and indiscriminately violent Bringing to life an era of guerillas bushwhackers and slave stealers Jayhawkers also describes how Lane s brigade was organized and equipped and provides details regarding staff and casualties Assessing the extent to which the jayhawkers followed accepted rules of warfare Benedict argues that Lane set a precedent for the Union Army s eventual adoption of hard tactics toward civilians An entertaining story rich in detail Jayhawkers will captivate scholars and history enthusiasts as it sheds new light on the unfettered violence on this western fringe of the Civil War Human Factors in Computing and Informatics Andreas Holzinger, Martina Ziefle, Martin Hitz, Matjaz Debevc, 2013-06-26 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the First International Conference on Human Factors in Computing and Informatics SouthCHI 2013 held in Maribor Slovenia in July 2013 SouthCHI is the successor of the USAB Conference series and promotes all aspects of human computer interaction The 38 revised full papers presented together with 12 short papers 4 posters and 3 doctoral thesis papers were carefully reviewed and selected from 169 submissions The papers are organized in the following topical sections measurement and usability evaluation usability evaluation medical environments accessibility methodologies game based methodologies Web based systems and attribution research virtual environments design culture for ageing well designing for situated elderliness input devices adaptive systems and intelligent agents and assessing the state of HCI research and practice in South Eastern Europe The Life and Work of Francis Willey Kelsey John G Pedley, 2012 If Indiana Jones had relied on trains The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1967 Historical Collections Michigan State Historical Society, 1900 The New Republic Herbert David Croly, 1917 Conquering the Valley Robert K. Teaching with Authority Richard R. Gaillardetz,1997 This book faithfully represents the teaching of Roman Catholicism on the Church's doctrinal authority while pointing to areas where there remains a gap between an ecclesiological vision of the Church informed by Vatican II and the popular understanding and concrete exercise of that authority in the life of the Church today

Truth ,1903 Azure ,2005 The Elephant Man and Other Reminiscences Sir Frederick Treves,2021-08-30 In The Elephant Man and Other Reminiscences Sir Frederick Treves presents an evocative collection of personal recollections that illuminate his experiences as a prominent surgeon and his encounters with some of the most extraordinary individuals of his time The narrative is imbued with a deeply empathetic tone vividly capturing the human condition through the lens of surgical practice and social interaction Treves's meticulous attention to detail and his ability to weave poignant anecdotes reflect a literary style rooted in realism providing insight into the Victorian era's medical advances while also offering a critique of contemporary social attitudes toward disability As a distinguished physician at the Royal London Hospital Treves was profoundly impacted by his work with John Merrick known as the Elephant Man His interactions with Merrick alongside other compelling figures fueled Treves's interest in the often overlooked narratives of those on the fringes of society His commitment to humanitarianism and ethical medical practice is evident throughout this work which seeks not only to entertain but also to provoke thought regarding morality and compassion I highly recommend The Elephant Man and Other Reminiscences to readers interested in the complex interplay between medicine and humanity Treves's reflections not only shed light on the medical practices of his time but also invite contemplation on societal attitudes and compassion making this collection a valuable addition to both medical literature and social history

The Big Break Stephen Dando-Collins,2017-01-10 Oflag 64 a World War II prisoner of war POW camp based in Schubin Poland was speculated to be one of the only POW camps set up exclusively for U S Army ground component officers About 150 American officers lived in the camp in 1943 and by 1945 that number had expanded to 1 500 When the German commandant Colonel Fritz Schneider received orders to march all of his prisoners to west Germany to escape the Russians in January 1945 that number declined rapidly as the American officers put into place long existing escape plans that would make history In The Big Break we follow famous POWs such as General Eisenhower's personal aide General Patton's son in law and Ernest Hemingway's eldest son as the first American escapes via a tunnel in a stinking latrine with almost 250 US officers following closely behind in a mass break The Schubin escapes are by far the largest Allied POW escape of the second World War surpassing even The Great Escape of 1944 Historian Stephen Dando Collins chronicles the gripping story of irrepressible Americans determined to be free brave Poles risking their lives to help them and dogmatic Nazis determined to stop them
