Michael Faraday's Mental Exercises Alice Jenkins,2008-01-01 In 1818 Michael Faraday and a handful of other London artisans formed a self help group with the aim of teaching themselves to write like gentlemen For a year and a half the essay circle met regularly to read aloud and criticize one another s writings The Mental Exercises they produced are a record of the life literary tastes and social and political ideas of dissenting artisans in Regency London This complete corpus of the essay circle s writings is accompanied by detailed annotations extracts from key sources and a full length introduction explaining the biographical historical and literary context of the group An essay on Physiological Psychology Robert DUNN (M.R.C.S.),1858 The New Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature: Volume 4, 1900-1950 George Watson,I. R. Willison,1972-12-07 More than fifty specialists have contributed to this new edition of volume 4 of The Cambridge Bibliography of English Literature The design of the original work has established itself so firmly as a workable solution to the immense problems of analysis articulation and coordination that it has been retained in all its essentials for the new edition The task of the new contributors has been to revise and integrate the lists of 1940 and 1957 to add materials of the following decade to correct and refine the bibliographical details already available and to re shape the whole according to a new series of conventions devised to give greater clarity and consistency to the entries Psychology Robert Dunn, 1858 Gurdjieff Kathleen Riordan Speeth, Ira Friedlander, 1980 An Essay on Physiological Taste and Experience in Eighteenth-Century British Aesthetics Dabney Townsend, 2022-06-02 Taste and Experience in Eighteenth Century Aesthetics acknowledges theories of taste beauty the fine arts genius expression the sublime and the picturesque in their own right distinct from later theories of an exclusively aesthetic kind of experience By drawing on a wealth of thinkers including several marginalised philosophers Dabney Townsend presents a novel reading of the century to challenge our understanding of art and move towards a unique way of thinking about aesthetics Speaking of a proto aesthetic Townsend surveys theories of taste and beauty arising from the empiricist shift in philosophy A proto aesthetic was shaped by the philosophers who followed Locke and accepted that theories of taste and beauty must be products of experience alone Francis Hutcheson David Hume Alexander Gerard and Thomas Reid were among the most important advocates joined by others who re thought traditional topics Featuring chapters tracing its philosophical principles issues raised by the subjectivity of the empiricist approach and the more academic proto aesthetic formed toward the end of the century Townsend argues that Lockean empiricism laid the foundations for what we now call aesthetics Essays on Social Psychology George Mead, 2017-09-08 George Herbert Mead 1863 1931 is a central founding figure of modern sociology comparable to Karl Marx and Max Weber Mead s early work prior to his posthumous publications that appeared after 1932 is believed to be a series of articles contemporary scholarship defines as disconnected A previously unknown never published set of galleys for a book of essays by Mead written between 1892 and 1910 unites these articles into a logical perspective Essays on Social Psychology Mead s first book clearly locates him within a significantly different tradition and network than documented in his posthumous volumes The discovery of this work is a major scholarly event Instead of being abstract and unemotional as some scholars argue Mead s early scholarship focused on the significance of emotions instincts and childhood as well as political issues underlying political problems in Chicago During these early years he was involved with the emerging Laboratory Schools at the University of Chicago which was then the center of progressive education These early topics interpretations and scholarly networks are dramatically different in these writings from those of Mead as a mature scholar They demonstrate that he was clearly making a transition from psychology to social psychology at a time when the latter was in its infancy Mary Jo Deegan a world renowned Meadian scholar has comprehensively edited this volume footnoting now obscure references and authors Her introduction explains how this previously lost manuscript affects contemporary Meadian scholarship and how it reflects the city and times in which he lived Unlike the posthumous volumes assembled from lecture notes Essays in Social Psychology is the only book actually written by Mead and challenges most current scholarship on him The selections are highly readable surprisingly timely yet historically significant Psychologists sociologists and educators will find it immensely important George Herbert Mead 1863 1931 taught at the University of Chicago from 1894 to 1931 His posthumous volumes are The Philosophy of the Present Mind Self and Society and The Philosophy of the Act Mary Jo Deegan is professor of sociology at the University of Nebraska Lincoln She is the author of Jane Addams and the Men of the Chicago School 1892 1918 named by Choice as among the outstanding academic books of 1989

Gurdjieff Joseph Azize, 2020 This is the first analysis of all of Gurdjieff's published internal exercises together with those taught by his students George and Helen Adie It includes a fresh biographical study of Gurdjieff with ground breaking observations on his relationships with P D Ouspensky and A R Orage especially why he wanted to collaborate with them and why that broke down It shows that Gurdjieff was fundamentally a mystic and that his contemplation like methods were probably drawn from Mt Athos and its hesychast tradition It shows the continuity in Gurdjieff's teaching but also development and change His original contribution to Western Esotericism lay in his use of tasks disciplines and contemplation like exercises to bring his pupils to a sense of their own presence which could to some extent be maintained in daily life in the social domain and not only in the secluded conditions typical of meditation It contends that he had initially intended not to use contemplation like exercises as he perceived dangers to be associated with these monastic methods and the religious tradition to be in tension with the secular guise in which he first couched his teaching As Gurdjieff adapted the teaching he had found in Eastern monasteries to Western urban and post religious culture

he found it necessary to introduce contemplation His development of the methods is demonstrated and the importance of the three exercises in the Third Series Life Is Real only then when I Am is shown together with their almost certain borrowing from the exercises of the Philokalia G I Gurdjieff P D Ouspensky A R Orage George Adie Mysticism Meditation Contemplation Fourth Way Hesychasm Western Esotericism Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1976 Psychological Exercises & Essays Alfred Richard Orage,1972 An Essay on the Principles of Mental Hygiene David Allyn Gorton,1873 Moral Psychology Thomas Nadelhoffer,Eddy Nahmias,Shaun Nichols,2010-10-18 Moral Psychology Historical and Contemporary Readings is the first book to bring together the most significant contemporary and historical works on the topic from both philosophy and psychology Provides a comprehensive introduction to moral psychology which is the study of psychological mechanisms and processes underlying ethics and morality Unique in bringing together contemporary texts by philosophers psychologists and other cognitive scientists with foundational works from both philosophy and psychology Approaches moral psychology from an empirically informed perspective Explores a wide range of topics from passion and altruism to virtue and responsibility Editorial introductions to each section explain the background of and connections between the selections An Essay on Labor John Scott,1877 Reid's Essays on the Intellectual Powers of Man ...
