Re Encounters In China:

Re-encounters in China Harold Robert Isaacs, 1985 Re-encounters in China Harold Robert Isaacs, 1985 China Reporting Stephen R. MacKinnon, Oris Friesen, 2023-11-10 China Reporting is an oral history showing how the China correspondent of the 1930s and 1940s constructed his or her news reality or the network of facts from which their stories were written How these men and women pooled information and decided upon the legitimacy of particular sources is explored The influences of competition language facility or lack thereof common personal backgrounds camaraderie and changes in American official China policy are also discussed with special attention paid to the prescriptive gatekeeping role of editors back home This is an approach which has often been applied to the domestic journalist China Reporting is a pioneering effort at using historical perspective to view the foreign correspondent in terms fo the total epistemological context in which he or she operates to produce the news that in turn provides the data base upon which the public and policy makers inevitably draw This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1987 The Tragedy of the Chinese Revolution Harold Isaacs, 2010 The story of contemporary China typically dates back to Mao s 1949 revolution But in this classic work of Marxist scholarship historian Harold Isaacs uncovers how workers and peasants struggled for a different kind of revolution one built from the bottom up in the 1920s The defeat of their heroic efforts profoundly shaped the further course of modern Chinese history Harold Isaacs was an acclaimed Marxist historian who identified with Leon Trotsky s critique of the Soviet Union s degeneration under Stalinism during the 1920s The Tragedy his major work is dedicated to the martyrs of the 1925 1927 revolution who fought for a truly democratic society Jews in China Irene Eber, 2019-10-21 Irene Eber was one of the foremost authorities on Jews in China during the twentieth and twenty first centuries a field that in contrast to the study of the Jewish diaspora in Europe and the Americas has been critically neglected This volume gathers fourteen of Eber s most salient articles and essays on the exchanges between Jewish and Chinese cultures making available to students scholars and general readers a representative sample of the range and depth of her important work in the field of Jews in China Jews in China delineates the centuries long reciprocal dialogue between Jews Jewish culture and China all under the overarching theme of cultural translation The first section of the book sets forth a sweeping overview of the history of Jews in China beginning in the twelfth century and concluding with a detailed assessment of the two crucial years leading up to the Second World War The second section examines the translation of Chinese classics into Hebrew and the translation of the Hebrew Bible into Chinese The third and final section turns to modern literature bringing together eight essays that underscore the cultural reciprocity that takes place through acts of translation The centuries long relationship between Judaism and China is often overlooked in the light of the extensive discourse surrounding European and American Judaism With this volume Eber reminds us that we have much to learn from the intersections between Jewish identity and Chinese culture      Through the Looking Glass Paul French, 2009-05-01 The convulsive history of foreign journalists in China starts with newspapers printed in the European factories of Canton in the 1820s It also starts with a duel between two editors over the future of China and ends with a fistfight in Shanghai over the revolution This book tells the story of China's foreign journalists      Cosmopolitan Publics Shuang Shen, 2009-04-08 Early twentieth century China paired the local community to the world a place and time when English dominated urban centered higher and secondary education and Chinese edited English language magazines surfaced as a new form of translingual practice Cosmopolitan Publics focuses on China's cosmopolitans Western educated intellectuals who returned to Shanghai in the late 1920s to publish in English and who ultimately became both cultural translators and citizens of the wider world Shuang Shen highlights their work in publications such as The China Critic and Tien Hsia providing readers with a broader understanding of the role and function of cultural mixing translation and multilingualism in China's cultural modernity Decades later as nationalist biases and political restrictions emerged within China the influence of the cosmopolitans was neglected and the significance of cosmopolitan practice was underplayed Shen's encompassing study revisits and presents the experience of Chinese modernity as far more heterogeneous emergent and transnational than it has been characterized until now      Wuhan, 1938 Stephen R. MacKinnon, 2008-05-21 During the spring of 1938 a flood of Chinese refugees displaced by the Anti Japanese War 1937-1945 converged on the central Yangtze valley tricity complex of Wuhan For ten remarkable months in a highly charged atmosphere of carnage heroism and desperation Wuhan held out against the Japanese in what would become a turning point in the war and one that attracted international attention Stephen MacKinnon for the first time tells the full story of Wuhan's defense and fall and how the siege's aftermath led to new directions in the history of modern Chinese culture society and politics      Enduring the Revolution Charles J. Alber, 2001-12-30 An anarchist by temperament the beautiful and talented Ding Ling attempted to find her way in the world alone She had a few female friends and a few significant male others but she rebelled against her family Most importantly she rebelled against the Chinese Communist Party to which she desperately hoped to belong The first part of a comprehensive biography of the major 20th century Chinese author Ding Ling this work draws not only on her memoirs but on numerous secondary sources many of which have become available only in the last two decades Though born into a wealthy family Jiang Bingzi was raised by her mother after the untimely death of her father She went to school in the May 4 era when protest was in the air the radical ideas of Mao were already in print and her idol Lu Xun was making his literary mark In her late teens she renounced her engagement changed her name and fled to Shanghai where she embraced the anarchist movement The loss of her brother and lifelong friend Wang Jianhong and the loss of her significant other Hu Yepin all threw her into various states of depression not to mention her own abduction by the Guomindang Nevertheless Ding Ling wrote her way out of despair and into the public limelight Her first collection of short stories In the Darkness made her famous because of its profound grasp of feminine psychology and its daring treatment of human sexuality But when Ding Ling attempted to dispel the darkness in Yan an she like everyone else was told by Mao in his famous Talks to focus on the light Ding Ling made all the necessary adjustments literary and political She survived the rectification campaign and mastered proletarian fiction Mao loved her novel The Sun Shines on the Sanggan so much that he ranked her third among contemporaries Soon she was traveling to Eastern Europe and to Moscow where she consulted with Soviet notables With the founding of the People s Republic it appeared her star was on the rise This study of Ding Ling and China s literary environment in the first half of the 20th century will be useful to scholars and students of contemporary Chinese history literature and women s studies
