social justice perspectives The second part of the book offers an overview of the information life cycle and dissemination of information followed by an in depth examination of information sources by type including dictionaries encyclopedias indexes and abstracts as well as by broad subject areas including government statistics and data health and legal information This second section introduces the tools and resources that reference professionals use to provide the services described in the first half of the text

Eating Agendas Donna Maurer, Jeffery Sobal, The international group of sociological and nutritional scientists in this volume represent the research that has been conducted on the social problematics of food and nutrition in such areas as food safety biotechnology food stamp programs obesity anorexia nervosa and vegetarianism The broad range of topics addressed and the case studies examined make this book suitable as a course related text both in foodways and cultural aspects of nutrition and as a new departure in social problems courses

Generations and Collective Memory Amy Corning, Howard Schuman, 2015-08-31 When discussing large social trends or experiences we tend to group people into generations But what does it mean to be part of a generation and what gives that group meaning and coherence It's collective memory say Amy Corning and Howard Schuman and in Generations and Collective Memory they draw on an impressive range of research to show how generations share memories of formative experiences and how understanding the way those memories form and change can help us understand society and history Their key finding built on historical research and interviews in the United States and seven other countries including China Japan Germany Lithuania Russia Israel and Ukraine is that our most powerful generational memories are of shared experiences in adolescence and early adulthood like the 1963 Kennedy assassination for those born in the 1950s or the fall of the Berlin Wall for young people in 1989 But there are exceptions to that rule and they're significant Corning and Schuman find that epochal events in a country like revolutions override the expected effects of age affecting citizens of all ages with a similar power and lasting intensity The picture Corning and Schuman paint of collective memory and its formation is fascinating on its face but it also offers intriguing new ways to think about the rise and fall of historical reputations and attitudes toward political issues

Race and the Politics of Welfare Reform Sanford F. Schram, Joe Brian Soss, Richard Carl Fording, 2010-03-10 A searching and succinct restatement of the many ways race and American racial attitudes affect how we talk about the poor and how we handle the problem of poverty relief

Evaluating Women's Health Messages Roxanne Louiselle Parrott, Celeste Michelle Condit, 1996-02-01 The increasing attention placed on women's reproductive health issues in recent years has produced a corresponding interest in the role that communication plays from promoting better health care to fostering greater well being Evaluating Women's Health Messages is the first systematic examination of women's health communication Compiling the works of over 30 contributors editors Roxanne Louiselle Parrott and Celeste Condit explore the various forms health messages take medical social scientific and public and the ways in which they compare with and contradict each other The book is at once groundbreaking and comprehensive examining the range of health issues from political historical technological social support and feminist perspectives all within the broad framework of communication With two chapters on each topic the book provides a variety of perspectives on such issues as abortion infertility drug and alcohol use in pregnancy childbirth prenatal care AIDS breast cancer reproductive technologies menstruation menopause and hysterectomy Evaluating Women s Health Messages is a vital tool for every professional interested in women s health concerns as well as students taking courses in health communication woman s health public health sociology of health health education and gender studies Assessing Media Education William G. Christ,2013-11-05 This volume moves through the steps of developing an assessment plan establishing student learning outcomes in the various areas of the curriculum measuring these outcomes For faculty administrators preparing for accreditation Hollywood Bohemians Brett L. Abrams,2014-11-21 Between 1917 and 1941 Hollywood studios gossip columnists and novelists featured an unprecedented number of homosexuals cross dressers and adulterers in their depictions of the glamorous Hollywood lifestyle Actress Greta Garbo defined herself as the ultimate serial bachelorette Screenwriter Mercedes De Acosta engaged in numerous lesbian relationships with the Hollywood elite And countless homosexual designers brazenly picked up men in the hottest Hollywood nightclubs Hollywood s image grew as a place of sexual abandon This book demonstrates how studios and the media used images of these sexually adventurous characters to promote the industry and appeal to the prurient interests of their audiences We the People Houghton Mifflin Company,1997 Why Americans Hate Welfare Martin Gilens,2009-05-13 Tackling one of the most volatile issues in contemporary politics Martin Gilens s work punctures myths and misconceptions about welfare policy public opinion and the role of the media in both Why Americans Hate Welfare shows that the public s views on welfare are a complex mixture of cynicism and compassion misinformed and racially charged they nevertheless reflect both a distrust of welfare recipients and a desire to do more to help the deserving poor With one out of five children currently living in poverty and more than 100 000 families with children now homeless Gilens s book is must reading if you want to understand how the mainstream media have helped justify and even produce this state of affairs Susan Douglas The Progressive Gilens s well written and logically developed argument deserves to be taken seriously Choice A provocative analysis of American attitudes towards welfare Gilens shows how racial stereotypes not white self interest or anti statism lie at the root of opposition to welfare programs Library Journal Against a Sharp White Background Brigitte Fielder,Jonathan Senchyne,2019-05-14 The work of black writers editors publishers and librarians is deeply embedded in the history of American print culture from slave narratives to digital databases While the printed word can seem democratizing it remains that the infrastructures of print and digital culture can be as limiting as they are enabling Contributors to this volume explore the relationship between expression and such frameworks analyzing how different mediums library catalogs and search engines shape the production and reception of written and visual culture Topics include antebellum literature the Harlem Renaissance the Black Arts Movement post Black art the role of black librarians and how present day technologies aid or hinder the discoverability of work by African Americans Against a Sharp White Background covers elements of production circulation and reception of African American writing across a range of genres and contexts This collection challenges mainstream book history and print culture to understand that race and racialization are inseparable from the study of texts and their technologies Librarian's Genealogy Notebook Dahrl Elizabeth Moore,1998-08 The Librarian s Genealogy Notebook includes the most concise and useful information on where to begin your search for genealogical records
