Sandplay and Storytelling Barbara A. Turner,Kristin Unnsteinsdottir,2012-12-31 Combining the fields of child psychology and child education this groundbreaking work explores how engaging children in Jungian sandplay therapy and imaginative storytelling can improve classroom performance and to increase intelligence scores Written by child specialists it makes a solid argument for the necessary consideration of the unconscious and the inner world of the individual child in learning and advocates that curriculum design for children must include both imaginative therapeutic play and active attention to children s emotional needs Educators psychotherapists and concerned parents alike will find this book informative and useful

Frog in the Pot Richard Beckham II,2009-11 If life is not a test then what is it That s what Alvin Taylor a 27 year old alcoholic janitor tries to figure out over his winter vacation with help from a mocking yet conscientious voice but after a belligerent night in Canada with his friend Alvin decides to sober up and give back to society by becoming a crossing guard at an elementary school Somewhere along the line between the idealisms of youth and the realities of adulthood we become pacified by our jobs we tolerate how we hurt the world so that we can sustain our lives At some point blurred in the past we traded the greater good for ourselves From Frog in the PotFrog in the Pot is a meditation on loneliness its desperation loss and rejection The narrative is a mixture of introspection opinion and drunken nonsense but there is a larger theme that underscores this prose something reticent in those of us caught between generations or a quarter life crisis This novel is an entertaining blend of cynicism sarcasm and desolation though at its heart is a thread of hope
