Residential Mortgage Lending,1994 The Financialization of Housing Manuel B. Aalbers,2016-05-05 Due to the financialization of housing in today's market housing risks are increasingly becoming financial risks Financialization refers to the increasing dominance of financial actors markets practices measurements and narratives It also refers to the resulting structural transformation of economies firms states and households This book asserts the centrality of housing to the contemporary capitalist political economy and places housing at the centre of the financialization debate A global wall of money is looking for High Quality Collateral HQC investments and housing is one of the few asset classes considered HQC This explains why housing is increasingly becoming financialized but it does not explain its timing politics and geography Presenting a diverse range of case studies from the US the UK the Netherlands Germany Italy and Spain the chapters in this book include coverage of the role of the state as the driver of financialization processes and the part played by local and national histories and institutions This cutting edge volume will pave the way for future research in the area Where housing used to be something local or national the two way coupling of housing to finance has been one crucial element in the recent crisis It is time to reconsider the financialization of both homeownership and social housing This book will be of interest to those who study international economics economic geography and financialization

Lending Principles and Practices American Savings and Loan Institute,1971 Understanding Neighbourhood Dynamics Maarten van Ham,David Manley,Nick Bailey,Ludi Simpson,Duncan MacLennan,2012-09-26 This rare interdisciplinary combination of research into neighbourhood dynamics and effects attempts to unravel the complex relationship between disadvantaged neighbourhoods and the life outcomes of the residents who live therein It seeks to overcome the notorious difficulties of establishing an empirical causal relationship between living in a disadvantaged area and the poorer health and well being often found in such places There remains a widespread belief in neighbourhood effects that living in a poorer area can adversely affect residents life chances These chapters caution that neighbourhood effects cannot be fully understood without a profound understanding of the changes to and selective mobility into and out of these areas Featuring fresh research findings from a number of countries and data sources including from the UK Australia Sweden and the USA this book offers fresh perspectives on neighbourhood choice and dynamics as well as new material for social scientists geographers and policy makers alike It enriches neighbourhood effects research with insights from the closely related but currently largely separate literature on neighbourhood dynamics

Florida Real Estate Principles, Practices & Law George Gaines,David Coleman,Linda L. Crawford,2001-11 Urban Politics of Human Rights Janne Nijman,Barbara Oomen,Elif Durmuş,Sara Miellel,Lisa Roodenburg,2022-11-14 Increasingly urban actors invoke human rights to address inequalities combat privatisation and underline common aspirations or to protect vested private interests The potential and the pitfalls of these processes are conditioned by the

urban and deeply political These urban politics of human rights are at the heart of this book An international line up of contributors with long term engagement in this field shed light on these politics in cities on four continents and eight cities presenting a wealth of empirical detail and disciplinary theoreticalisation perspectives They analyse the city society the urban actors involved and the mechanisms of human rights mobilisation In doing so they show the commonalities in rights engagement in today s globalised and often deeply unequal cities characterised by urban law private capital but also communities that rally around concepts as the right to the city Most importantly the chapters highlight the conditions under which this mobilisation truly contributes to social justice be it concerning the simple right to presence cultural rights accessible housing or in times of COVID health care Urban Politics of Human Rights provides indispensable reading for anyone with a practical or theoretical interest in the complex deeply political and at times also truly promising interrelationship between human rights and the urban Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4 0 license

Urban Warfare Raquel Rolnik, 2019-03-26 In Urban Warfare Rolnik charts how the financialisation of housing has become a global crisis as models of home ownership originating in the US and UK are being exported around the world These developments were largely organised by htosw who benefit the most construction companies and banks supported by government facilitated schemes such as the right to buy subsidies and micro financing Using examples ranging from Kazakhstan Indonesia Chile Israel Haiti the UK and especially Brazil Rolnik shows how our homes and neighbourhoods have effectively become the last subprime frontiers of capitalism This neoliberal colonialism is experienced on the scale of the city but also within our everyday lives Yet since the financial crisis and wider urban politics that have left millions homeless forced from their homes because of urban development politics and mega events such as the Rio World Cup in 2013 These narratives are weaved together with theoretical reflections and empirical evidence to explain the crisis in depth In response Rolnik restates the political need for activism and resistance Examining in detail the June Days protests in Rio 2013 14 she shows that housing remains an essential and global struggle
