Perspectives on Complementary and Alternative Medicine Tom Heller, Geraldine Lee-Treweek, Jeanne Katz, Julie Stone, Sue Spurr, 2005-02-01 This book explores the challenging issues associated with complementary and alternative medicine in the context of the social political and cultural influences that shape people s health Divided clearly into three sections this book sets out the general context of social change consumption and debate around the rise of public interest in CAM argues for and against different classifications of CAM critically assesses the importance of ethics and values to CAM practice and how these inform what practitioners do focuses on the question of what people want the changing and contested nature of health and the nature of personal and social factors associated with the use of CAM leading to a focus on therapeutic relationships examines the diversity of settings in which CAM takes place and the social political and economic milieu in which CAM is provided and used Together with its accompanying text Complementary and Alternative Medicine Structures and Safeguards it forms the core text for the Open University course K221 Perspectives on Complementary and Alternative Medicine The Invention of Martial Arts Paul Bowman, 2020-12-31 Through popular movies starring Bruce Lee and songs like the disco hit Kung Fu Fighting martial arts have found a central place in the Western cultural imagination But what would martial arts be without the explosion of media texts and images that brought it to a wide audience in the late 1960s and early 1970s In this examination of the media history of what we now call martial arts author Paul Bowman makes the bold case that the phenomenon of martial arts is chiefly an invention of media representations Rather than passively taking up a preexisting history of martial arts practices some of which of course predated the martial arts boom in popular culture media images and narratives actively constructed martial arts Grounded in a historical survey of the British media history of martial arts such as Bartitsu jujutsu judo karate tai chi and MMA across a range of media this book thoroughly

recasts our understanding of the history of martial arts By interweaving theories of key thinkers on historiography such as Foucault and Hobsbawm and Said's ideas on Orientalism with analyses of both mainstream and marginal media texts Bowman arrives at the surprising insight that media representations created martial arts rather than the other way around In this way he not only deepens our understanding of martial arts but also demonstrates the productive power of media discourses
