Boynton, 2011-03 Defrocking the Devil Theology of Fear is a brief history of the last 2 500 years of monotheism using the actual words of the men who claimed to know the devilfigure most intimately From Peter to Constantine to Martin Luther to our present day theologians these men and hundreds more included in this book supported the early Church fathers arguments for the inclusion of Satan into Christian polemics A dualism appeared in the story of Jesus immediately after his crucifixion Instead of tirelessly promoting the Christian message of love thy neighbor as thyself a new spiritual equation of hate torture and murder entered the theological landscape Defrocking the Devil is an attempt to puncture the myths surrounding the words evil devil and hell Two thousand years after the birth of Christianity and fourteen hundred years after the start of Islam hundreds of millions of people currently living on this planet are in real fear of one day ending up down in the devil s lair How did Christian belief in Jesus become conditional upon the existence of fictional beings and wicked subterranean places Defrocking the Devil seeks to illuminate the darkness and empower all people of faith to move beyond theologies that advocate violence into the spiritual equation There have been many books written about this dark side of Western theology but few historians do much more than recount its bloody genocidal history Defrocking the Devil actively seeks to tear down such religious dogmas by using the very words of those who extolled such a hurtful anti Christian philosophy The Freedom to Choose Life Scott W. Gustafson, 2024-05-28 In The Brothers Karamazov Fyodor Dostoevsky proposes ministry as the way to resist and overcome the world's evil He employs two plotlines to do so The action plot concerns the events surrounding the murder of Fyodor Karamazov All evidence points to Dmitri Karamazov Rational circumstantial evidence convicts him yet the reader knows he is innocent The ministry plot occurs in this dark context where small acts of love are performed by The Elder Zosima Alyosha Karamazov and many others These acts of love all answer this unspoken question What can be said and done in Jesus name that opens the future to new possibilities in contexts heretofore deemed closed and without hope Asking and answering this question is the essence of ministry and since the question can be asked in any context ministry is possible anywhere Dostoevsky s unabashed antisemitism however undermines his brilliant analysis The concluding chapters document how unconfessed sins like antisemitism exert a death dealing power that undermines our cultures our communities and our ministries The Freedom to Choose Life shows how ministry resists and overcomes evil by these small acts of love and by the global effects of repenting of humanity s unconfessed sins A Box of Crosses C. Coolidge Wilson, 2018-02-15 The Reverend Stirling McCutcheon is a Scottish Presbyterian minister who has been called to serve as senior pastor at Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church in Albany New York As one who has placed in juxtaposition Dostoyevsky's notion that there is nothing lovelier than the Savior alongside Gr newald's grotesque portrayal of the Crucified Christ McCutcheon defines his own identity as a devotee of fractured beauty an identity that rivets him to the beauty of his parishioners fractured by misfortune and tragedy A variety of crosses icons that come to him in various ways represents the suffering of his people each cross possessing its unique story. In addition to dealing with the age old question of a loving God that allows inexplicable suffering in his beautiful world McCutcheon wrestles with the unnerving query of whether God is expendable McCutcheon s predecessor apparently hanged himself in front of his congregation during a Good Friday dramatic presentation of Paul Claudel's Death of Judas Was it an accident or did his disillusionment cause him to identify too closely with Judas In contrast to his predecessor McCutcheon holds fast to his ordination vows as a shepherd of his flock even at his own personal expense and that of his family Reading Seminars I and II Richard Feldstein, Bruce Fink, Maire Jaanus, 1996-01-01 In Parts II III and IV Colette Soler Eric Laurent and others explain in the clearest of fashions the highly influential conceptualization Lacan introduces with the terms symbolic imaginary and real Part V provides the first sustained account in English to date of Lacan s reformulation of psychoanalytic diagnostic categories neurosis perversion psychosis and their subcategories their theoretical foundations and clinical applications ample case material is provided here Transformation of Evil.
