Sense Symbol A Textbook Of Human Behal:

Anatomy of Spirituality: Portrait of the Soul Chander Behl, 2015-04-27 The domain of spirituality separated from its theological overburden believes in the existence of a spiritual self presumed to be distinctly separate from the psychological self The spiritual eternal self also known as the soul or spirit sometimes supported by an overarching Spirit is asserted to be operating behind the ephemeral self This book takes a contrarian stance it argues that the premise of the soul concept is obtained through the magic of language maintained through the marvel of the brain's biochemistry and sustained through the mirage of the psychological juggernauts of the brain The magic the marvel and the mirage together bring about subtle shifts as the linguistic brain suppresses many psychological details habitually applies mental templates such as inversions and dichotomies and enhances its language by coining religious and spiritual metaphors The consequence of these changes is that the usual flickering self begins to be impressed by itself believing it is buttressed by something transcendental and eternal within the soul or the spirit The self although indoctrinated during its formative years also begins to assimilate and accept the opinion that the overwhelming weight of religious doctrines and dogmas the overburden signifies as the legitimate proof for the eternal soul

The Afterlives of Monuments Deborah Cherry, 2015-09-07 South Asia is famous for its monuments past and present Monuments have been created destroyed and rescued by competing communities and incoming empires in the making and re making of history identity and memory This collection brings together an international cohort of senior scholars and younger researchers to examine the vast diversity of monuments and conceptions of monuments in South Asia from the 1850s to the present The chapters investigate what constitutes a monument and interrogate the conditions for its survival demise or recycling To explore the afterlives of monuments is to investigate how where when and why monuments have been remodelled re sited destroyed defaced or abandoned It is to investigate the theories of memory history and community as well as new forms of artistic practice and global media As different South Asian communities claim a stake in the making of national religious cultural and local identities and histories the status of monuments and debates about cultural memory have become increasingly urgent This book was published as a special issue of South Asian Studies
