A weekend fling turns into a week long manhunt as the Nameless Detective's last solo case involves him in a cat and mouse chase through San Francisco's Japantown that ends in a confusion of murder rape and suicide
It is Friday and on Monday Nameless will grudgingly welcome Eberhardt a retired cop and old friend into his detective agency
The weekend should give him just enough time to wrap up the little mystery of Haruko Gage's secret admirer who sends her expensive jewels but doesn't sign his name
With Gage a domineering designer as a client Nameless figures a little light work will bring him a little extra cash
But instead of uncovering a mokey lover Nameless stumbles on a violent ritual murder and finds himself enmeshed in a bizarre case of confused identity and perverse kidnapping whose roots stem from the Tule Lake Relocation Center one of the World War II camps for Japanese Americans and a long buried secret that would never have happened if a different crime against 100 000 people hadn't been committed in 1942
While Eberhardt is pressing Nameless to set up shop a kingpin in the Yakuza the Japanese Mafia is brutally butchered in his bathhouse a rancher is killed in a hit and run accident and a masoleum is burglarized and filled with fresh cut roses
The best clue Nameless has is a grainy black and white photo of three young Japanese men standing in front of a wire mesh fence
To unmask the killer Nameless must unravel a web of guilt and intrigue that spans many lives and forty years
