Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum, 2002-03-01 In Girt By Sea Mungo MacCallum provides a devastating account of the Howard government's treatment of the refugees as well as delineating the factors in Australian history which have worked towards prejudice and those which have worked against it ranging from Calwell's postwar immigration policy to the recent revelations of beat ups and distortions in the 2001 election campaign This is a powerful account of how the government played on what was ultimately the race issue In an essay which is by terms witty dry and bitingly understated Mungo MacCallum asks what epithets are appropriate for a prime minister who has brought us to this pass He also raises the question of whether Australia's contemporary treatment of refugees has anything in common with the sane and decent policies that have characterised the better moments in our history it will take a long time to recover from the campaign of hate and fear which was deemed to be necessary to return the Howard government in the first year of the new millennium Mungo MacCallum Girt By Sea This most cold eyed of one time Canberra chroniclers brings to this story all his wit and dryness and power of mind It's a sad tale though it is everywhere enlivened by MacCallum's tendency to suggest that spades really are bloody shovels at the end of the day Peter Craven A document of immense power MacCallum's essay will stand as a record of Australia's shame and depravity It will haunt us Julian Burnside Australian Book Review Mungo's assertion that Howard is a man with no vision only division to his name and his recognition that Howard will never have the approval of those elites he so gratuitously desires is a blistering strike at the Liberal man Geoff Parkes Journal of Australian Studies Mungo MacCallum has long been one of Australia's most influential and entertaining political journalists in a career spanning more than four decades Mungo has worked with the Australian the Age the Financial Review Sydney Morning Herald and numerous magazines as well as the ABC SBS Channel Nine and Channel Ten His books include the bestselling Mungo The Man Who Laughs The Good the Bad and the Unlikely Australia's Prime Ministers and The Whitlam Mob Parliamentary Papers Great Britain. One Illness Away Anirudh Krishna,2010-08-26 Why does poverty persist A critical but so far ignored part of the answer lies in the fact that poverty is regularly created Large numbers of people are escaping poverty but large numbers are concurrently falling into chronic poverty This book presents the first large scale examination of the reasons why people fall into poverty and how they escape it in diverse contexts Drawing upon personal interviews with 35 000 households in different parts of India Kenya Uganda Peru and the United States it takes you on an illustrative journey filled with facts analyses and the life stories of people who fell into abject poverty and others who managed to escape their seemingly predetermined fates Letting a farmhand s son or daughter remain a farmhand even though she or he is potentially the next Einstein is a tragedy that poor people witness time after time Remedying this situation is crucial for making poverty history This book addresses how equal opportunity can be promoted and how slum born millionaires can arise in reality Speaking to Barack Obama s message for more effective health care One Illness Away feeds directly into current public debates Learning from thousands of individual experiences this book presents a clear agenda for action and provides more effective ways of keeping people out of micro poverty traps of the great tragedies of the twenty first century has been the rise of religious intolerance and the disrespect of other faiths that has been associated with it Around the world bias bigotry religious venom and violence have led to the wanton destruction of sacred shrines across the planet Nowhere has this intolerance been as virulent as in the Middle East which is the heart and soul of the three great Western religious traditions of Judaism Christianity and Islam In lands where millennia of peaceful coexistence had for the most part prevailed a rabid spiritual darkness of intolerance has fueled the wanton destruction of religious sanctuaries of all three of these children of Abraham The hatred has not been limited to any one of the traditions But there have been glimmers of hope seen in the clandestine efforts of recovery and restitution of our collective past Archaeologists have followed in the footsteps of military action against these religious fanatics and in the process they have recovered bits and pieces of everyones religious heritage This is a story indicative of these efforts although it is fiction It can give hope to the future when they shall beat their swords into plowshares and their spears into pruning hooks nation shall not lift up sword against nation neither shall they learn war anymore Isa 2 4 Pearson's Magazine ,1902
