Avidly Reads Guilty Pleasures Arielle Zibrak, 2021-05-04 My guilty pleasure wasn't just reading low brow fiction or even female authored fiction it was being femme itself What is it about ribald romance novels luxurious interior design and frothy wedding dresses that often make women feel their desires come with a shadow of shame In Avidly Reads Guilty Pleasures Arielle Zibrak considers the specifically pleasurable forms of feminine guilt and desire stimulated by supposedly lowbrow aesthetic tendencies She takes up the overwhelming preoccupation with the experience of being humiliated dominated or even abused that has pervaded the stories that make up women's culture from eighteenth century epistolary novels to popular twentieth century teen magazine features to present day romantic comedies In three chapters Rough Sex Expensive Sheets and Saying Yes to the Dress that mirror the plot structures of feminine fictions themselves this book tells the story of the desires that only the guiltiest of pleasures evoke Zibrak reexamines documents of femme culture long dismissed as trash to reveal the surprisingly cathartic experiences produced by tales of domination privilege and the material trappings of the heteropatriarchy Part of the Avidly Reads series this slim book gives us a new way of looking at American culture With the singular blend of personal reflection and cultural criticism featured in the series Avidly Reads Guilty Pleasures reclaims women's experiences for themselves

Enjoyment of Laughter Max Eastman, 2017-09-29 Humor at its best is a somewhat fluid and transitory element but most books about it are illustrated with hardened old jokes from the comic papers or classic witticisms jerked out of their context Max Eastman in this work avoids this catastrophe by quoting mainly from contemporary American humor This is not an anthology in that selections have been made with a view to making a point rather than covering the field The purpose of Eastman's fabled work is to make the reader laugh Since his early school days it has seemed to him that textbooks are wrongly written in that they are conducted in a way which ignores the natural operation of the mind As a result the opinion is universal and under the circumstances a fact that in order to learn anything you have to study Since this introduction to humor is itself near to writing a textbook Eastman uses the very text he constructs to illustrate the manner in which textbooks should be written Examination and classification of the kinds of humorous experience upon the basis of a theory is a science As such this work offers a fair chance to illustrate a method of instruction However the distinction between a good joke and a bad one will not prevent the reader from making bad jokes nor enable one to make good ones There is an artistic and playful element that simply cannot be taught Enjoyment of Laughter presents a total view of the science of laughter and draws upon some of the great American humorists to do so

London Charles Knight, 2014-05-08 A fascinating illustrated six volume account published 1841 4 of what was then the greatest city in the world London Charles Knight, 1843 The Comedy of Entropy Patrick O'Neill, 1990-12-15 Entropic comedy is the phrase coined by Patrick O'Neill in this study to identify a particular mode of twentieth century narrative that is not generally recognized He describes it as the narrative expression of forms of decentred humour or what might more loosely be called black humour O Neill begins his investigation by examining the rise of an essentially new form of humour over the last three hundred years or so in the context of a rapid decay of confidence in traditional authoritative value systems O Neill analyses the resulting reorganization of the spectrum of humour and examines the implications of this for the ways in which we read texts and the world we live in He then turns from intellectual history to narratology and considers the relationship in theoretical terms of humour play and narrative as systems of discourse and the role of the reader as a textualizing agent Finally he considers some dozen twentieth century narratives in French German and English with occasional reference to other literatures in the context of those historical and theoretical concerns Authors of the texts analysed include Celine Camus Sartre and Robbe Grillet in French Heller Beckett Pynchon Nabokov and Joyce in English Grass Kafka and Handke in German The analyses proceed along lines suggested by structuralist semiotic and post structuralist narrative and literary theory From his analyses of these works O Neill concludes they illustrate in narrative terms a mode of modern writing definable as entropic comedy and he develops a taxonomy of the mode

Sexual Sameness (Routledge Revivals) Joseph Bristow, 2014-03-18 First published in 1992 Sexual Sameness examines the differing textual strategies male and female writers have developed to celebrate homosexuality Examining such writers as E M Forster James Baldwin Sylvia Townsend Warner and Audre Lourde this wide ranging book demonstrates how literature has been one of the few cultural spaces in which sexual outsiders have been able to explore forbidden desires From the humiliating trials of Oscar Wilde to the appalling stigmatisation of people living with AIDS Sexual Sameness reveals the persistent homophobia that has until recently almost completely inhibited our understanding of lesbian and gay writing In opening up homosexual literature to informed and objective methods of reading Sexual Sameness will be of interest to a large lesbian and gay readership as well as to students of gender studies literary studies and the social sciences classroom usually appears as an autonomous object to be dissected thus revealing its internal relations image patterns meter and rhyme schemes and types of figurative language Jeffrey C Robinson a college teacher for many years believes that there is a better way to teach poetry His conviction developed over many years and acted upon in his own classroom has led to a pedagogy that urges the teaching of each poem by examining it in its various contexts The result as expressed in this book is a moving exploration of the relationships among scholarship teaching and learning of critical importance to all teachers of literature as well as to those concerned with educational theory Robinson demonstrates his pedagogy with a case study the teaching of Wordsworth's Ode Intimations of Immortality from Recollections of Early Childhood He interprets the students fascinating and moving confusions and discoveries as the Ode loses its consoling aura and as their thinking takes a correspondingly more energetic critical and self reflective turn As a teacher the author whose muted autobiography itself enriches the context has had his own concerns to which this book provides some answers How would a prolonged encounter with one poem significantly alter students learning Would the poem seen in its social relations become less an object of worship and more an occasion for the students own exploration of the place of art in society and in their own education This book has emerged out of these questions As well as being a full rehearsal of the actual literary and historical contexts of Wordsworth's Ode it is a meditation on the sociology of literary education and necessarily the learning apparatus of the late adolescent

The Curious World of Samuel Pepys and John Evelyn Margaret Willes, 2017-01-01 Introduction curiouiser and curiouiser The world do not grow old at all Two worlds The decade of the diaries Prodigious

 Seen and the Unseen.* Margaret Oliphant Wilson Oliphant,1881-01-01 Medieval Art Veronica Sekules,2001-04-26 This refreshing new look at Medieval art conveys a very real sense of the impact of art on everyday life in Europe from 1000 to 1500 It examines the importance of art in the expression and spread of knowledge and ideas including notions of the heroism and justice of war and the dominant view of Christianity Taking its starting point from issues of contemporary relevance such as the environment the identity of the artist and the position of women the book also highlights the attitudes and events specific to the sophisticated visual culture of the Middle Ages and goes on to link this period to the Renaissance The fascinating question of whether commercial and social activities between countries encouraged similar artistic taste and patronage or contributed to the defining of cultural difference in Europe is fully explored Notes from Underground Fyodor Dostoevsky,2009-07-07 One of the most profound and most unsettling works of modern literature Notes from Underground first published in 1864 remains a cultural and literary watershed In these pages Dostoevsky unflinchingly examines the dark mysterious depths of the human heart The Underground Man so chillingly depicted here has become an archetypal figure loathsome and prophetic in contemporary culture This vivid new rendering by Boris Jakim is more faithful to Dostoevsky's original Russian than any previous translation it maintains the coarse vivid language underscoring the visceral experimentalism that made both the book and its protagonist groundbreaking and iconic Live Your Bliss Terry Cole-Whittaker,2010-10-04 After years of teaching metaphysical principles all over the world through her seminars books and qualities Learning and Literacy over Time Julian Sefton-Green,Jennifer Rowsell,2014-09-25 Learning and Literacy over Time addresses two gaps in literacy research studies offering longitudinal perspectives on learners and the trajectory of their learning lives inside and outside of school and studies revealing how past experiences with literacy and learning inform future experiences and practices It does so by bringing together researchers who revisited subjects of their initial research conducted over the past 10 20 years with people whom they encountered through ethnographic or classroom based investigations and are the subjects of previous published accounts The case studies drawn from countries in three continents and covering a range of social worlds offer an original and at times quite an emotive interpretation of the effects of long term social change in the UK the US Australia and Canada the claims and aspirations made by and for certain kinds of educational interventions how research subjects reflect on and learn from the processes of being co-opted into classroom research as well as how they make sense of school experiences some of the widespread changes in literacy practices as a result of our move into the digital era and above all how academic research can learn from these life stories raising a number of challenges about methodology and our claims to know the people we research In many cases the process of revisiting led to important reconceptualizations of the earlier work and a sense of seeing with new eyes what was missed in the past The reflections on methodology and research processes will interest postgraduate and academic researchers The studies of change and of long term effects are widely relevant to teacher educators and scholars in language and literacy education educational anthropology life history research media and cultural studies and sociology

At Home with Pornography Jane Juffer, 1998-07-01 Twenty five years after the start of the feminist sex wars pornography remains a flashpoint issue with feminists locked in a familiar argument Are women victims or agents In At Home with Pornography Jane Juffer exposes the fruitlessness of this debate and suggests that it has prevented us from realizing women's changing relationship to erotica and porn Over the course of these same twenty five years there has been a proliferation of sexually explicit materials geared toward women made available in increasingly mainstream venues In asking what is the relationship of women to pornography Juffer maintains that we need to stop obsessing over pornography's transgressive aspects and start focusing on the place of porn and erotica in women's everyday lives Where she asks do women routinely find it for how much and how is it circulated and consumed within the home How is this circulation and consumption shaped by the different marketing categories that attempt to distinguish erotica from porn such as women's literary erotica and sexual self help videos for couples At Home with Pornography responds to these questions by viewing women's erotica within the context of governmental regulation that attempts to counterpose a dangerous pornography with the sanctity of the home Juffer explores how women's consumption of erotica and porn for their own pleasure can be empowering while still acting to reinforce conservative ideals She shows how for instance the Victoria's Secret catalog is able to function as a kind of pornography whose circulation is facilitated both by its reliance on Victorian themes of secrecy and privacy and on its appeals to the selfish pleasures of modern career women In her pursuit to understand what women like and how they get it Juffer delves into adult cable channels erotic literary anthologies sex therapy guides cyberporn masturbation and sex toys showing the varying degrees to which these materials have been domesticated for home consumption Representing the next generation of scholarship on pornography At Home with Pornography will transform our understanding of women's everyday sexuality
