Machiavelli in Brussels M. P. C. M. van Schendelen, 2002 Countless interest groups representing governments and civil societies try to lobby the European Union effectively in pursuit of the desired legislation subsidies and more This book describes the everyday practice of lobbying in Brussels drawing on extensive research and the author s personal experience The objective of these interest groups is to influence the EU decision making of which they see themselves as a stakeholder To the existing representative bodies such as the Parliament and the Council they add their practice of lobbying for a desired outcome by making their interests present or represented at the EU level In a roundabout way they contribute to the EU integration and also to its democracy so long as the following conditions are fulfilled More Machiavelli in Brussels M. P. C. M. van Schendelen, Rinus Van Schendelen, 2010 Countless interest groups representing governments and non governmental bodies try to lobby the European Union effectively in pursuit of the desired legislation subsidies and more Many lobby groups simply do what they see fit Others manage their affairs in the EU arena more professionally and it is their home front and their playing field which are the focus of this book Filled with real cases examples of good practice and special issues of EU lobbying it presents a wealth of information and analysis Like other political processes EU lobbying has its limits acknowledged here alongside its contribution to democracy both of which are discussed in this thought provoking and reflective book Machiavelli in Brussels M. P. C. M. van Schendelen, 2005 This title can be previewed in Google Books <http://books.google.com/books/vid/ISBN9789053565568> The Art of Lobbying the EU M. P. C. M. van Schendelen, 2013-03-11 Recalling the work of Niccolo Machiavelli leading researcher Rinus van Schendelen distills the practices of successful lobbyists down to three basic principles ambition study and prudence Paying close attention to the special issues implicit in EU lobbying this book illuminates the practice its opportunities and pitfalls and even its contributions to democracy This revised edition has been strengthened with several new cases insights and trends and takes into account the new Treaty of Lisbon On Niccolò Machiavelli Gabriele Pedullà, 2023-10-17 Five hundred years after his death Niccol Machiavelli still draws an astonishing range of contradictory characterizations Was he a friend of tyrants An ardent republican loyal to Florence s free institutions The father of political realism A revolutionary populist A calculating rationalist A Renaissance humanist A prophet of Italian unification A theorist of mixed government A forerunner to authoritarianism The master of the dark arts of intrigue This book provides a vivid and engaging introduction to Machiavelli s life and works that sheds new light on his originality and relevance Gabriele Pedull a leading Italian expert and acclaimed writer offers fresh readings of the Florentine thinker s most famous writings The Prince and the Discourses on Livy as well as lesser known texts A new and often surprising Machiavelli emerges one closer to his time but also better suited to inform our own Pedull s portrait of Machiavelli highlights his close attention to social and emotional bonds staunch opposition to oligarchy keen awareness of the economic side of power dynamics and strong preference for history over philosophy as a

imagine when we imagine Europe and the European Union To what extent is our understanding of the EU of its development its policies and its working processes shaped by unacknowledged assumptions about what Europe really is The book constructs a case for re imagining Europe not as an entity in Brussels or a series of fixed relations but as a simultaneously real and imagined space of action which exists to the extent that Europeans and others act in and on it This Europe is constantly being made in particular spaces through specific actor struggles whose interconnections are often ill defined We ask how do those concerned with building Europe with extending and elaborating the EU think of where they are and what they are doing The book captures Europeans in the process of making Europe of performing interpreting modelling referencing consulting measuring and de politicising Europe The Unseen Hand Roger Scully,Rinus van

Schendelen,2004-06-01 Who is really making EU laws and regulations Formally and according to most popular accounts responsibility lies with European politicians who are directly elected MEPs or indirectly accountable to elected bodies at the European or national level council In practice however as this book shows things can be very different The real makers of European legislation and rules are frequently unelected and far from the public gaze This book describes and evaluates the role of many such unseen lawmakers including commission officials experts from national governments and companies lobbyists secretaries of the council and others

The European Renaissance in American Life Paul F. Grendler, 2006-03-30 An informative but light hearted look at the popularity of the Renaissance today this book was written by a Renaissance scholar intrigued with the way his subject continues to resonate outside the scholarly community His purpose is to uncover and describe the many manifestations of America s love of the Renaissance Why do millions don costumes to attend Renaissance Faires Why do novels and films about the period enjoy continued popularity as do Renaissance icons such as Elizabeth I Michelangelo Shakespeare and the Mona Lisa How is it that American politicians and business leaders still look to Machiavelli as a symbol of wisdom or of evil Grendler posits that Americans embrace the Renaissance as a model of culture and sophistication seeing it as confirmation that the individual can achieve greatness against long odds a belief at the core of our own society After an examination of The Real Renaissance 1400 1620 the book looks at ways in which Americans relive the experience including Faires and Living Last Suppers ways in which we re create the Renaissance in our own world and finally ways in which the Renaissance is portrayed for better or worse in fiction and film

The Regional Puzzle Christian B. Breuer, 2012 Regions have increasingly broken ground in the European sphere For decades they have been subject to forces both influencing them from above regionalisation as well as from below regionalism In the European Union the regions and their actors have mainly manifested themselves via EU Regional Policy Besides a closer look at the rationales behind this trend e g multi level governance and the changes in the decision making process three case regions have thoroughly been addressed Latvia Scotland and Saxony This dissertation highlights the pitfalls the possibilities and the position of regions and its actors in both the domestic and the European setting in a clear and structured way Dissertation Series European Regions Regionen in Europa Vol 4 Corporate Europe David Cronin,2013-08-12 During the chaos of the eurozone crisis few mainstream commentators have stopped to question the purpose of the European Union itself and whose interests it serves Corporate Europe goes beyond the divisions between nation states focusing instead on the division between the corporate elite and the peoples of Europe David Cronin spent a year investigating the privileged access that big business enjoys in Brussels In this book he reveals how the EU s policies on health climate change armaments and food safety have been tailored to please an unaccountable elite Making extensive use of previously unpublished documents he explores how ideologically blinkered lobbyists have seized on the financial crisis of recent years to entrench the casino capitalism that caused the crisis in the first place What emerges is a powerful expos of how vested interests in the EU have manipulated opportunities to introduce ideologically driven reforms Convincing Political Stakeholders Klemens Joos,2023-08-15 In the new edition of his standard work the founder of one of the most successful lobbying companies in the European Union EU Prof Klemens Joos bundles experience acquired over more than three decades to form a scientific theory on governmental relations It focusses on the insight that in view of the increasingly complex decision making structures of the EU the most precise possible knowledge of decision makers and decision making processes is at least equally as important to success as the content aspects of interest representation In a new chapter the author sets out the formula for science based interest representation developed by him from his practical experience With the Treaty of Lisbon which entered into force on 1 December 2009 the EU de facto became a state territory stretching from Portugal to Finland and from Ireland to Cyprus The European Parliament became an equal status decision maker alongside the Council of the European Union Council The previous co decision procedure was elevated to become the standard procedure ordinary legislative procedure The so called qualified majority 55 percent of the EU member states which simultaneously represent at least 65 percent of the EU population was introduced for all important areas in the Council As a result the outcome of decision making processes has become largely incalculable for the actors on the European Union stage the EU member states EU regions companies associations and organisations The second edition includes a new chapter in which Prof Klemens Joos makes the variables of successful interest representation even more tangible on the basis of his scientific formula at the latest since the Treaty of Lisbon the basic prerequisite for successful interest representation in the EU involves the continuous and close intermeshing of the affected party s content competence of the four classic instruments of interest representation corporate representative offices associations public affairs agencies law firms with process structure competence i.e. the EU wide maintenance of the required spatial personnel and organisational capacities as well as strong networks across institutions political groups and member states on the part of an independent intermediary The likelihood of success can be increased exponentially if success is achieved firstly in committing to the concern of an affected party through a change of perspective such that the positive effects on the common good are shifted into the foreground for the decision makers in the EU perspective change competence and secondly in successfully integrating the concern into the crucial decision making processes at the political level and continuously supporting it process support competence Guest authors This work includes guest contributions from Prof Christian Blumelhuber Berlin University of the Arts Prof Anton Meyer formerly LMU Munich Prof Armin Nassehi LMU Munich and Prof Franz Waldenberger Director of the German Institute of Japanese Studies Tokyo as well as a foreword by Prof Gunther Friedl Dean of the TUM School of Management and a preface by Prof Thomas F Hofmann President of TU Munich
