and philosophers into one responsible for genocide And yet until now a similarly vital question has been ignored That is how did a nation whose past has been marked by mass murder a people who cheered Adolf Hitler reinvent themselves Trentmann tells this dramatic story from the middle of the Second World War through the Cold War and the division of East and West to the fall of the Berlin Wall and Germany's struggle to find its place in the world today This journey includes a series of internal moral conflicts admissions of guilt and shame vying with immediate economic concerns restitution for some but not others tolerance versus racism compassion versus complicity Through a range of voices German soldiers and German Jews displaced persons in limbo East German women and shopkeepers angry about energy shortages opponents and supporters of nuclear power volunteers helping migrants and refugees and right wing populists attacking them Trentmann paints a remarkable and surprising portrait of the German people over eighty years showing how they became who they are today
