Pacific Salmon Management For People:

Pacific Salmon Derek V. Ellis, 1977 Northwest Lands, Northwest Peoples Dale D. Goble, Paul W. Hirt, 2012-03-15 It can be said that all of human history is environmental history for all human action happens in an environment in a place This collection of essays explores the environmental history of the Pacific Northwest of North America addressing questions of how humans have adapted to the northwestern landscape and modified it over time and how the changing landscape in turn affected human society economy laws and values Northwest Lands and Peoples includes essays by historians anthropologists ecologists a botanist geographers biologists law professors and a journalist It addresses a wide variety of topics indicative of current scholarship in the rapidly growing field of environmental history Applied Population Biology S.K. Jain, L.W. Botsford, 2007-07-23 An increasing variety of biological problems involving resource management conservation and environmental quality have been dealt with using the principles of population biology defined to include population dynamics genetics and certain aspects of community ecology There appears to be a mixed record of successes and failures and almost no critical synthesis or reviews that have attempted to discuss the reasons and ways in which population biology with its remarkable theoretical as well as experimental advances could find more useful application in agriculture forestry fishery medicine and resource and environmental management This book provides examples of state of the art applications by a distinguished group of researchers in several fields The diversity of topics richly illustrates the scientific and economic breadth of their discussions as well as epistemological and comparative analyses by the authors and editors Several principles and common themes are emphasized and both strengths and potential sources of uncertainty in applications are discussed This volume will hopefully stimulate new interdisciplinary avenues of problem solving research Magnuson Fishery Conservation and Management Act United States. Congress. House. Committee on Merchant Marine and Fisheries. Subcommittee on Fisheries Management, 1994 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche
