Context-Dependence in the Analysis of Linguistic Meaning Hans Kamp, Barbara Partee, 2021-10-01 Does context and context dependence belong to the research agenda of semantics and specifically of formal semantics Not so long ago many linguists and philosophers would probably have given a negative answer to the question However recent developments in formal semantics have indicated that analyzing natural language semantics without a thorough accommodation of context dependence is next to impossible The classification of the ways in which context and context dependence enter semantic analysis though is still a matter of much controversy and some of these disputes are ventilated in the present collection This book is not only a collection of papers addressing context dependence and methods for dealing with it it also records comments to the papers and the authors replies to the comments In this way the contributions themselves are contextually dependent In view of the fact that the contributors to the volume are such key figures in contemporary formal semantics as Hans Kamp Barbara Partee Reinhard Muskens Nicholas Asher Manfred Krifka Jaroslav Peregrin and many others the book represents a quite unique inquiry into the current activities on the semantics side of the semantics pragmatics boundary
