Painter and the photograph from Delacroix to Warhol (the). van COKE DEREN, 1981 The Painter and the Photograph Van Deren Coke, 1964 Traces the relationship between painting and photography especially the use of photographs by artists as sources for their work The Painter and the Photograph from Delacroix to Warhol ,1972 The Painter and the Photograph from Delacroix to Warhol Rev. and Enl. Ed ,1972 Sargent's Venice Warren Adelson, John Singer Sargent, William H. Gerdts, Richard Ormond, Elaine Kilmurray, Rosella Mamoli Zorzi, 2006-01-01 Den amerikanske kunstner John Singer Sargents 1856 1925 skildringer af Venedig Lee Miller, Photography, Surrealism and the Second World War Lynn Hilditch, 2018-01-23 Lee Miller 1907 1977 was an American born Surrealist and war photographer who through her role as a model for Vogue magazine became the apprentice of Man Ray in Paris and later one of the few women war correspondents to cover the Second World War from the frontline Her comprehensive understanding of art enabled her to photograph vivid representations of Europe at war the changing gender roles of women in war work the destruction caused by enemy fire during the London Blitz and the horrors of the concentration camps that embraced and adapted the principles and methods of Surrealism This book examines how Miller s war photographs can be interpreted as surreal documentary combining a surrealist sensibility with a need to inform Each chapter contains a close analysis of specific photographs in a generally chronological study with a thematic focus using comparisons with other photographers documentary artists and Surrealists such as Margaret Bourke White Dorothea Lange Walker Evans George Rodger Cecil Beaton Bill Brandt Henry Moore Humphrey Jennings and Man Ray In addition Miller s photographs are explored through Andr Breton s theory of convulsive beauty his credence that any subject no matter how horrible may be interpreted as art and his notion of the marvellous Victorian Urban Settings Debra N. Mancoff, D.J. Trella, 2013-10-28 This volume of 13 original interdisciplinary essays surveys the relationship of Victorian works and the urban experience that shaped them Each essay addresses how the selection or rejection of an urban setting provide the context for a representative product of Victorian art or culture Lincoln President-Elect Harold Holzer, 2008-10-21 One of our most eminent Lincoln scholars winner of a Lincoln Prize for his Lincoln at Cooper Union examines the four months between Lincoln s election and inauguration when the president elect made the most important decision of his coming presidency there would be no compromise on slavery or secession of the slaveholding states even at the cost of civil war Abraham Lincoln first demonstrated his determination and leadership in the Great Secession Winter the four months between his election in November 1860 and his inauguration in March 1861 when he rejected compromises urged on him by Republicans and Democrats Northerners and Southerners that might have preserved the Union a little longer but would have enshrined slavery for generations Though Lincoln has been criticized by many historians for failing to appreciate the severity of the secession crisis that greeted his victory Harold Holzer shows that the president-elect waged a shrewd and complex campaign to prevent the expansion of slavery while vainly trying to limit secession to a few Deep South states During this most dangerous White House transition in American history the country had two presidents one powerless the president-elect possessing no constitutional authority the other paralyzed the incumbent who refused to act Through limited brilliantly timed and crafted public statements determined private letters tough political pressure and personal persuasion Lincoln guaranteed the integrity of the American political process of majority rule sounded the death knell of slavery and transformed not only his own image but that of the presidency even while making inevitable the war that would be necessary to make these achievements permanent Lincoln President Elect is the first book to concentrate on Lincoln's public stance and private agony during these months and on the momentous consequences when he first demonstrated his determination and leadership Holzer recasts Lincoln from an isolated prairie politician yet to establish his greatness to a skillful shaper of men and opinion and an immovable friend of freedom at a decisive moment when allegiance to the founding credo all men are created equal might well have been sacrificed

Julian Scott Robert J. Titterton, Julian Scott, 1997-01-01 The art of Julian Scott 1846–1901 is admired by historians and critics alike for its authenticity and for his attention to detail His paintings and drawings came directly from his own experiences he was a Civil War hero whose earliest recorded actions include the saving of nine soldiers and the capture of a Confederate officer for which he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor He also took part in the Indian census of 1890 and witnessed firsthand the demise of the old Native American West This first ever biography of Scott focuses on how his experiences were reflected in his art from the oil paintings of Civil War soldiers in the field to pencil sketches of Native Americans There are almost 100 reproductions some in color
