Boone,2014-03-25 One of the largely untold stories of Orientalism is the degree to which the Middle East has been associated with deviant male homosexuality by scores of Western travelers historians writers and artists for well over four hundred years And this story stands to shatter our preconceptions of Orientalism To illuminate why and how the Islamic world became the locus for such fantasies and desires Boone deploys a supple mode of analysis that reveals how the cultural exchanges between Middle East and West have always been reciprocal and often mutual amatory as well as bellicose Whether examining European accounts of Istanbul and Egypt as hotbeds of forbidden desire juxtaposing Ottoman homoerotic genres and their European imitators or unlocking the homoerotic encoding in Persian miniatures and Orientalist paintings this remarkable study models an ethics of crosscultural reading that exposes with nuance and economy the crucial role played by the homoerotics of Orientalism in shaping the world as we know it today A contribution to studies in visual culture as well as literary and social history The Homoerotics of Orientalism draws on primary sources ranging from untranslated Middle Eastern manuscripts and European belles lettres to miniature paintings and photographic erotica that are presented here for the first time

The Art and Material Culture of Iranian Shi'ism Pedram Khosronejad,2011-11-30 Shi i Islam has been the official religion of Iran from the Safavids 1501 1732 to the present day The Shi i world experience has provided a rich artistic tradition encompassing painting sculpture and the production of artefacts and performance which has helped to embed Shi i identity in Iran as part of its national narrative In what areas of material culture has Iranian Shi ism manifested itself through objects or buildings that are unique within the overall culture of Islam To what extent is the art and architecture of Iran from the Safavid period onwards identifiably Shi i What does this say about the relationship of nation state and faith in Iran Here leading experts trace the material heritage of Iranian Shi ism within each of its political religious and cultural dimensions

Islamic Art in the 19th Century Doris Behrens-Abouseif,Stephen Vernoit,2006 This collection of essays provides a timely reassessment of nineteenth century Islamic art and architecture The essays demonstrate that the arts of that era were vibrant and diverse making ingenious use of native traditions and materials or adopting imported conventions and new technologies However traditionalists revivalists and modernists all referred in one way or another to an Islamic heritage whether to reinvent revive or reject it Beginning with an historical introduction and an assessment of changing attitudes towards the visual arts the following essays provide case studies of architecture and art in Ottoman Turkey Egypt Morocco sub Saharan Africa Iran Central Asia India and the Caribbean They examine such issues as patronage sources of artistic inspiration and responses to European art The essays have a relevance and importance for our understanding of the societies and attitudes of that time and have a direct bearing on the more general debate concerning cultural identity and the integration of modern ideas in the Muslim world The book is richly illustrated with very many illustrations in black and white and in full colour

A Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture Finbarr Barry Flood,Gulru Necipoglu,2017-06-16 The two volume Companion to Islamic Art and Architecture bridges the gap between monograph and survey text by providing a new level of access and interpretation to Islamic art The more than 50 newly commissioned essays revisit canonical topics and include original approaches and scholarship on neglected aspects of the field This two volume Companion showcases more than 50 specially commissioned essays and an introduction that survey Islamic art and architecture in all its traditional grandeur Essays are organized according to a new chronological geographical paradigm that remaps the unprecedented expansion of the field and reflects the nuances of major artistic and political developments during the 1400 year span The Companion represents recent developments in the field and encourages future horizons by commissioning innovative essays that provide fresh perspectives on canonical subjects such as early Islamic art sacred spaces palaces urbanism ornament arts of the book and the portable arts while introducing others that have been previously neglected including unexplored geographies and periods transregional connectivities talismans and magic consumption and networks of portability museums and collecting and contemporary art worlds the essays entail strong comparative and historiographic dimensions The volumes are accompanied by a map and each subsection is preceded by a brief outline of the main cultural and historical developments during the period in question The volumes include periods and regions typically excluded from survey books including modern and contemporary art architecture China Indonesia Sub Saharan Africa Sicily the New World Americas
