Contemporary Problems of Pakistan Korson, 2022-03-07 Contemporary Pakistan Veena Kukreja, 2003-02-24 Veena Kukreja provides a rare reasoned analysis of the political processes at work in contemporary Pakistan and an objective understanding of the problems and crises confronting the country The author points out that for 25 out of the 53 years of its existence the military has been the arbiter of Pakistan's destiny The military she maintains regards its dominance of Pakistani politics not only as a right but as a duty As a result state security has taken precedence over the need to create participatory political processes and institutions The book points out that the terrorist attacks of 11 September 2001 and the resulting US offensive in Afghanistan has put the military regime in Islamabad in a tight spot Caught between unyielding ulemas a faltering economy and American pressure to demolish militant networks in Pakistan these recent developments combined with the dangerous cleavage within Pakistani society could well push that country into another bout of instability and even anarchy The situation is made more complex by the nexus between terrorism and drugs State and Civil Society in Pakistan I. Malik, 1996-11-13 Problems of governance in Pakistan are rooted in a persistently unclear and antagonistic relationship among the forces of authority ideology and ethnicity Based on theoretical and empirical research this book focuses on significant themes such as the oligarchic state structure dominated by the military and bureaucracy civil society Islam and the formation of Muslim identity in British India constitutional traditions and their subversion by coercive policies politics of gender ethnicity and Muslim nationalism versus regional nationalisms as espoused by Sindhi nationalists and the Karachi based Muhajir Qaumi Movement MQM Deconstructing India-Pakistan Relations Sanjeev Kumar H. M., 2023-12-14 This book examines the complex dynamics of India Pakistan relations by situating the same in the postcolonial setting of the subcontinent In pursuit of this the book analyses the impact of the linkages between the postcolonial processes of state making and the structuring of political communities upon the evolution of the problematic of state security in South Asia For the purpose of undertaking this task the author deconstructs the countries colonial history with an aim to map its impact on the making of the foreign policy of Pakistan Drawing primarily from colonial discourse theory and historical sociology the book links the trajectory of Pakistan's international politics to its domestic politics and weak state inheritances By doing this it offers a stimulating treatment of the history of the country's troubled postcolonial relations with India This has been done in the book by presenting the modes by which the religio military and politico bureaucratic classes that constitute the power elite in Pakistan tended to have moulded an India centred State security problematique This book will be of interest to researchers studying South Asian security India Pakistan relations and the defence and foreign policy of Pakistan
