The Groaning of Creation Christopher Southgate, 2008-01-01 Pain suffering and extinction are intrinsic to the evolutionary process In this book Christopher Southgate shows how the world that is very good is also groaning in travail and subjected by God to that travail Southgate then evaluates several attempts at evolutionary theodicy and argues for his own approach an approach that takes full account of God's self emptying and human beings special responsibilities as created cocreators Christopher Southgate is Honorary University Fellow in Theology at the University of Exeter England and Visiting Scholar at the Graduate Theological Union in Berkeley California Originally trained as a biochemist at the University of Cambridge he is the general editor and principal author of God Humanity and the Cosmos 3rd ed

Natural and Cosmic Theodicy Jongseock James Shin, 2022-10-21 This book presents a third way to envision the Creatorship of the Triune God who is both compassionate and eschatologically redemptive in providential presence rather than biasedly gravitating toward the openness of a self limiting God or God's all determining sovereignty Not only is God in with and under creation God's kenotic presence invites creatures to participate in the self giving love of God through both general and special divine action in a top down through bottom up mode Creatio continua is God's own journey of fulfilling the eschatological promise for creation This redemptive presence of God in creation is a Trinitarian co protesting against the power of death sin and evil considering the cosmic dimensions of the eschatological hope promised in the resurrection of Jesus The new creation is the ultimate fulfillment of creaturely freedom and contingency divinely granted in creatio ex nihilo In arguing this Shin engages in a comparative and critical study of natural and cosmic theodicy advanced by Catherine Keller Arthur Peacocke Wolfhart Pannenberg and Robert Russell

Creation and Salvation: A companion on recent theological movements E. M. Conradie, 2012 Christians trying to save the planet have to relate creation with salvation This volume explores the ways in which this task is approached by a wide range of recent theological movements How God Acts Denis Edwards,2010-01-27 From providence and miracles to resurrection and intercessory prayer Edwards shows how a basically noninterventionist model of divine action does justice to the universe as we know and also to central convictions of Christian faith about the goodness of God the promises of God and the fulfillment of creation Here is wonderfully lucid theology supporting an excitement of how God is at work in the universe Cosmos and Revelation Peter R. Stork,2021-09-30 Science and technology have profoundly altered the cosmic and societal perceptions of the world Regrettably the Christian imagination has not kept pace Most believers still adhere to pre scientific views Cosmos and Revelation urges the Christian community to reimagine God s creation by engaging the data of science For if God has indeed brought forth an intelligible world for us to explore through scientific research those who profess this faith ought to as a minimum allow scientific findings to expand their theological horizon Drawing on his scientific qualification and academic background in theology Peter R Stork opens several windows on God s creation from galactic star nurseries to the wonderland of living cells After rereading Genesis 1 and 2 the author interlaces examples and reflections to present a coherent yet provocative sketch of the new landscape that spreads out before us leaving it to his readers to intuit for themselves the immensities Christians are challenged to embrace in the age of science Divine Action and the Human Mind Sarah Lane Ritchie,2019-07-25 Challenges theological models of divine action that locate God s activity in human mind Emphasizes God s relationship with all of nature Learning to Be You David D. Swanson,2012-09-01 We all want the confidence that comes from living out of our true identity but how do we get there We don t magically discover our true selves when we reach our twenties And some of us spend our entire lives feeling like we are living a lie We can be torn apart by our duplicity or we can become so comfortable with putting on various personas to suit our situation that we don t even realize we re doing it But if we are followers and disciples of Christ our identity is already decided What we need to learn is how to understand and embrace it In this honest and penetrating book David D Swanson calls readers to take off their masks discover the true source of their identities and enjoy the peace and satisfaction that comes from being authentic and transparent to ourselves our God and the people who surround us He gently leads readers from their hiding places to a life of conviction and courage The Big Bang and God Chandra Wickramasinghe,Theodore Walker,2015-09-09 As advanced by astronomer cosmologist Sir Fred Hoyle astronomy biology astrobiology astrophysics and cosmology converge agreeably with natural theology In The Big Bang and God these interdisciplinary convergences are developed by an astronomer collaborating with a theologian
