Postmodern Scene Excremental Culture And Hyper Aesthetics:

The Postmodern Scene Arthur Kroker, David Cook, 1986 The Postmodern Scene is a series of major theorisations about key artistic and intellectual tendencies in the postmodern condition Postmodernism. What moment? Pelagia Goulimari, 2024-06-04 This collection assembles many of the major theorists of postmodernism across the humanities and the social sciences to reconsider the nature and significance of the postmodern moment as historical phase and as theoretical field The authors look back on their own contributions to the postmodernism debate of the 1980s and 1990s and address the ways in which the contemporary world and their own concerns have developed and the continuing validity or otherwise of postmodern as a master designator of the contemporary Following a substantial introductory survey the 15 compact articles include contributions from Linda Hutcheon Robert Venturi Zygmunt Bauman Douglas Kellner Arthur and Marilouise Kroker Lawrence Grossberg Gianni Vattimo and Ernesto Laclau The collection provides an important testimonial source for researchers interested in contemporary theoretical developments whether in the arts and humanities or the social sciences It will be a useful text for teachers leading classes with a focus on postwar intellectual history and cultural theory

Postmodernism and the Environmental Crisis Arran Gare, 2006-08-21 Postmodernism and the Environmental Crisis is the only book to combine cultural theory and environmental philosophy In it Arran Gare analyses the conjunction between the environmental crisis the globalisation of capitalism and the disintegration of the culture of modernity It explains the paradox of growing concern for the environment and the paltry achievements of environmental movements Through a critique of the philosophies underlying approaches to the environmental crisis Arran Gare puts forward his own controversial theory of a new postmodern world view This would be the foundation for the environmental movement to succeed Arran Gare's work will be a vital reading for advanced students of environmental studies as well as for environmental philosophers and cultural theorists

Post-Modernism and the Social Sciences Pauline Marie Rosenau, 1991-11-05 Post modernism offers a revolutionary approach to the study of society in questioning the validity of modern science and the notion of objective knowledge this movement discards history rejects humanism and resists any truth claims In this comprehensive assessment of post modernism Pauline Rosenau traces its origins in the humanities and describes how its key concepts are today being applied to and are restructuring the social sciences Serving as neither an opponent nor an apologist for the movement she cuts through post modernism s often incomprehensible jargon in order to offer all readers a lucid exposition of its propositions Rosenau shows how the post modern challenge to reason and rational organization radiates across academic fields For example in psychology it questions the conscious logical coherent subject in public administration it encourages a retreat from central planning and from reliance on specialists in political science it calls into question the authority of hierarchical bureaucratic decision making structures that function in carefully defined spheres in anthropology it inspires the protection of local primitive cultures from First World attempts to reorganize them In all of the social sciences she argues post modernism repudiates representative democracy and plays havoc with the very meaning of left wing and right wing Rosenau also highlights how post modernism has inspired a new generation of social movements ranging from New Age sensitivities to Third World fundamentalism In weighing its strengths and weaknesses the author examines two major tendencies within post modernism the largely European skeptical form and the predominantly Anglo North American form which suggests alternative political social and cultural projects She draws examples from anthropology economics geography history international relations law planning political science psychology sociology urban studies and women's studies and provides a glossary of post modern terms to assist the uninitiated reader with special meanings not found in standard dictionaries Subculture Chris Jenks, 2005 Tracing subculture back to its foundations in the works of Tonnies and Durkheim and to a lesser extent Marx and Weber this work provides an analysis of subculture in American urban sociology and criminology through the traditions of the Chicago School and structural functionalism

Crossroads in Literature and Culture Jacek Fabiszak, Ewa Urbaniak-Rybicka, Bartosz Wolski, 2012-11-05 The book contains a selection of papers focusing on the idea of crossing boundaries in literary and cultural texts composed in English. The authors come from different methodological schools and analyse texts coming from different periods and cultures trying to find common ground the theme of the volume between the apparently generically and temporarily varied works and phenomena. In this way a plethora of perspectives is offered perspectives which represent a high standard both in terms of theoretical reflection and in depth analysis of selected texts. Consequently the volume is addressed to a wide scope of both scholars and students working in the field of English and American literary and cultural studies furthermore it will be of interest also to students interested in theoretical issues linked with investigations into literature and culture Durkheim and Postmodern Culture Stjepan Mestrovic, 2017-09-29 The present work is an elaboration of the author's previous efforts in Emile Durkheim and the Reformation of Sociology 1988 and The Coming of Age of the Modern World 1991 to demonstrate Durkheim's neglected relevance to the postmodern discourse. The aims include finding affinities between our fin de siècle and Durkheim's fin de siècle and connecting the contemporary themes of rebellion against Enlightenment narratives found in postmodern culture with similar concerns found in Durkheim's sociology as well as in his fin de siècle culture contributing to Durkheimian scholarship as well as to the postmodern discourse. The distinctive aspects of the present study flow from the focus on culture, communication and the feminine voice in culture. Durkheim is approached as a fin de siècle student of culture and his insights applied to our fin de siècle culture. Furthermore because Durkheim claimed that culture is comprised primarily of collective representations he was a forerunner of the current postmodern concerns with communication. Because Durkheim shall be read in the context of his fin de siècle this book shall lead to the conclusion that Durkheim was a kind of psychoanalyst such that society is the patient, culture comprises the symptoms and the sociologist must decipher, decode and even deconstruct collective representations. Yet the Durkheimian deconstruction proposed here is unlike the postmodern deconstructions which criticize and tear apart a text without substituting a better meaning or interpretation. Postmodern discourse has made respectable again the synthesis of multidisciplinary insights that was fashionable in Durkheim's fin de siècle. In following this postmodern strategy this book is more than a book about Durkheim. It is also a book about his contemporaries among them Carl Gustav Jung, Thorstein Veblen, Henry Adams, Georg Simmel and Max Weber. The author does not follow the postmodern strategy completely because he follows The Cambridge Introduction to Postmodern Fiction Brian Nicol, 2009-10-08 A lucid exploration of the key features of postmodernism and the most important authors from Beckett to

Postmodern/drama Stephen Watt, 1998

Scrutinizing the critical tendency to label texts or writers as postmodern scholar Stephen Watt argues that reading post modernly merely implies reading culture more broadly In contemporary drama Watt considers postmodernity less a question of genre or media than a mode of subjectivity shared by both playwright and audience 6 illustrations

A Postmodern Reader Joseph Natoli, Linda Hutcheon, 1993-06-29 These readings are organized into four sections The first explores the wellsprings of the debates in the relationship between the postmodern and the enterprise it both continues and contravenes modernism Here philosophers social and political commentators as well as cultural and literary analysts present controversial background essays on the complex history of postmodernism The readings in the second section debate the possibility or desirability of trying to define the postmodern given its cultural agenda of decentering challenging even undermining the guiding master narratives of Western culture The readings in the third section explore postmodernism s complicated complicity with these very narratives while the fourth section moves from theory to practice in order to investigate in a variety of fields the common denominators of the postmodern condition in action

The Politics of Postmodernism Linda Hutcheon, 2003-12-16 This classic text remains one of the clearest and most incisive introductions to postmodernism Perhaps more importantly it is a compelling discussion of why postmodernism matters Working through the issue of representation in art forms from fiction to photography Linda Hutcheon sets out postmodernism s highly political challenge to the dominant ideologies of the western world A new epilogue traces the fate of the postmodern over the last ten years and into the future responding to claims that it has once and for all failed Together with the new epilogue this edition contains revised notes on further reading and a fully updated bibliography This revised edition of The Politics of Postmodernism continues its position as essential reading
