The Romance of Reunion Nina Silber, 2000-11-09 The reconciliation of North and South following the Civil War depended as much on cultural imagination as on the politics of Reconstruction Drawing on a wide range of sources Nina Silber documents the transformation from hostile sectionalism to sentimental reunion rhetoric Northern culture created a notion of reconciliation that romanticized and feminized southern society In tourist accounts novels minstrel shows and popular magazines northerners contributed to a mythic and nostalgic picture of the South that served to counter their anxieties regarding the breakdown of class and gender roles in Gilded Age America Indeed for many Yankees the ultimate symbol of the reunion process and one that served to reinforce Victorian values as well as northern hegemony was the marriage of a northern man and a southern woman Southern men also were represented as affirming traditional gender roles As northern men wrestled with their nation's increasingly global and aggressive foreign policy the military virtues extolled in Confederate legend became more admired than reviled By the 1890s concludes Silber northern whites had accepted not only a newly resplendent image of Dixie but also a sentimentalized view of postwar reunion ever own her especially a playboy who can't commit to a vehicle let alone a woman. However her heart isn't listening to her brain. The only way to battle that is to create a web of lies that keeps Tate believing she doesn't care about him. But maybe she's so busy keeping her lies in place that she almost misses the man's devotion to his siblings and his commitment to righting past wrongs his father committed. When the lies catch up with her it's not going to be easy for a man like Tate to forgive a woman who betrayed his trust. Will it be too late for them or can destiny step in once again and give them a chance at happiness?

LIARS LIKE US The only woman he's ever trusted is about to betray him. Luke Donovan is the irresistible bad boy every woman wants and no woman can catch. Until he meets Helena Montrey. There's something about her reserved manner and fresh faced beauty that makes him want to commit to her. Damn but he's finally fallen in love. It's time to face up to past mistakes and returning to his hometown of Reunion Gap and the family he deserted is the first step. After her fiancé's betrayal makes her question her ability to tell an honest man from a liar. Helena Montrey shies away from men. Then she meets Luke Donovan. Her heart wants to tell him she's the creator of a very successful greeting card line not the struggling waitress and wannabe writer he thinks she is. But her brain forces her to wait until she's sure the former bad boy with an admitted penchant for the open roads and constant change is in this for keeps. When the couple arrives in Reunion Gap the Donovans are waiting for them with a lot of questions and a ton of concerns. How is it that a woman they've never heard of ends up with a man who's vowed he'll never be tied down? What's the woman's back story? More importantly what is she hiding? The truth about Helena will come out and then Luke must decide if he loves her enough to give her a second chance. The Donovans aren't going to stand by and watch this heartbreak happen without getting involved. After all what's family for if not to get involved.
