Re Enchantment Of Everyday Life:

The Re-enchantment of Everyday Life Thomas Moore,1996 When he introduced the idea that soul is an essential ingredient of life the author of Care of the Soul and Soul Mates changed the way millions of readers think about psychology and spirituality Now with The Reenchantment of Everyday Life Moore takes another radical step applying care of the soul to our surroundings and the concrete particulars of how we live The Re-Enchantment of Everyday Life Thomas Moore,1996

Doing Time Rita Felski,2000-09 Nine essays that Felski English U of Virginia has revised from publication elsewhere grapple with whether people live in the same time whether it is possible to talk about men s time and women s or Western and non Western time how to explain that individuals and groups may perceive time very differently and yet seem to inhabit the same time in crucial respects and what the stakes are in either affirming or denying the contemporaneity and coevalness of others c Book News Inc The Living Church ,1997 Encountering the Everyday Michael Hviid Jacobsen,2017-09-16 Everyday life is something we tend to take for granted something that just is something unnoticed But everyday life is perhaps the most important dimension of society it s where we live most parts of our lives with each other This book provides a clear contemporary and comprehensive overview of the sociologies of everyday life Looking at everyday activities and experiences from language and emotions to popular culture and leisure Encountering the Everyday explores what social structures orders and processes mean to us on a daily basis The book carefully leads the reader through historical developments in the field beginning at the earlier Chicago school and finishing with up to date ideas of postmodernism and interactionism Each chapter relates theoretical ideas directly to case studies and real empirical research to make complex concepts and core issues accessible relevant and engaging Written by leading international scholars in the field this truly global book will inspire and inform all students and scholars of everyday life sociology The Energies of Love Donna Eden,David Feinstein,2016-01-19 The bestselling authors of Energy Medicine and Energy Medicine for Women present a complete program for using energy medicine to heal and strengthen romantic relationships A relationship begins with the meeting of two unique energies This union of energies though invisible determines the way you communicate fight love and want to be loved In this groundbreaking book the bestselling authors of Energy Medicine draw on the real life experiences of couples who have attended their popular Energies of Love workshops as well as their own experience as husband and wife to show how an understanding of your energy system and that of your partner can help you build a more harmonious and loving bond We all have different ways of making sense of the world around us but when faced with conflict especially with those we care most about we tend to revert to one of four Energetic Stress Styles Visuals are extremely passionate and inspire others to care about the things they care about but in moments of conflict their take on the situation can overshadow what is actually occurring undermining their ability to empathize with their partner Kinesthetics are generous compassionate and accepting of other people but their caring nature pulls them in too many directions They try to meet others needs at the expense of their own which can cause mounting resentment. Digitals are rational and principled and have a gift for quickly understanding complex situations but they can become closed to others' perspectives and feelings. Tonals have a gift for understanding others and their dilemmas but during moments of conflict their ability to read between the lines can morph into hearing what was never said, felt or thought. According to the authors, the strongest relationships are those in which the two parties feel that they are partners on a shared spiritual journey. By helping you better understand your own unique energy system as well as that of your partner, you will be able to recognize your strengths as a couple and avoid the pitfalls. The Energies of Love serves as a powerful resource for anyone who wishes to build a rich partnership while maintaining the spark that keeps a relationship exciting.

Consuming Experience Antonella Caru, Bernard Cova, 2013-01-11 This book covers the hot topic of the experiential consumption in an accessible manner and from a unique industry perspective which is not used in any other book. It highlights the idea that an experience is not something that can be readily managed by firms and is not limited to the market; an individual's daily life is made up of consuming experiences that can occur with or without a market relation. Offering an overview of the consumption experience, it outlines a continuum of experiences of consumption that consumers go through, including those that are mainly constructed by consumers around small items that comprise their daily life, such as organic products and non-profit or local associations; those that have been co-developed by companies and consumers, such as tourism or adventure projects, rock concerts and cultural events; and those that have been largely developed by the companies where consumers are immersed in a hyper-real context, such as fashion, sports, brands, edutainment and retail. Broad and comprehensive, this book provides a challenging vision of the consumption experience which is an invaluable tool for all those studying marketing and consumer behaviour.

The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice Arnold H. De Graaff, 2025-06-20 Scripture's compelling message of love and justice is powerfully relevant for today. The implications of the Amsterdam way of interpreting Scripture are evident throughout the book. It is both a personal and timely way of speaking to our disintegrating society. The Prophetic Call to Love and Justice provides a meaningful and radical yet simple way of re-connecting with the Bible. As one of the founders of the Amsterdam way of interpretation, Karel Deurloo stated: 'The opportunity to learn anew and understand the language of the Bible has been taken away. Often the focus is on the assumed origin and history of a text, a historical literary approach or a fundamentalist view creating a fragmented moralistic and doctrinaire emphasis which has alienated many from churches. Instead, Deurloo and others focused on the prophetic meaning that speaks to all of us as the living word of God today. This alternative is rooted in the Hebrew Scriptures. Its abiding prophetic message of love and justice is reiterated in the Gospels and apostolic letters. Hence the choice of subtitle: Rediscovering the Old Testament. It is a joyful journey of discovery, finding new meaning in the Bible for our lives.'

Smart Living Tania Lewis, 2008 What do the Fab Five from Queer Eye for the Straight Guy, the Supernanny and celebrity chef Jamie Oliver all have in common? Lifestyle gurus are increasingly intruding on everyday life, directing ordinary people to see themselves as projects that can be made over through embracing an ethos of relentless self improvement Smart Living argues that they represent a new form of popular expertise sweeping the world Written in a lively and accessible manner the book examines this cult of expertise across a range of media and cultural sites and offers the reader a range of critical tools for understanding the recent emergence of this popular international phenomenon Smart Living is a must read for anyone interested in the relationship between popular media culture and contemporary social life Food & Faith Michael Schut,2010-05-01 From the creator of the bestseller Simpler Living Compassionate Life A Christian Perspective comes Food Faith Food is itself a joyful gift recall how the gift of food so often mediates the sanctity and preciousness of life This collection of reflections by Wendell Berry Bill McKibben Elizabeth Johnson Alan Durning and others helps you start thinking about the moral spiritual and economic implications of eating Readings focus on the enjoyment and spirituality of good food ways in which eating connects us to the land and to each other and on the economic environmental and cultural impacts of daily food choices Food Faith includes an eight week study guide for groups or individuals which leads to action setting a table that is healthy joyful and just The Oxford Handbook of Western Music and Philosophy Tomás McAuley,Nanette Nielsen,Jerrold Levinson,Ariana Phillips-Hutton,2021 The Oxford Handbook of Western Music and Philosophy celebrates the ways in which musicians have historically called upon philosophy as a source of inspiration and encouragement and scholars of music through the ages have turned to philosophy for insight into music and into the worlds that sustain it House and Home Thomas Barrie,2017-03-16 House and home are words routinely used to describe where and how one lives This book challenges predominant definitions and argues that domesticity fundamentally satisfies the human need to create and inhabit a defined place in the world Consequently house and home have performed numerous cultural and ontological roles and have been assiduously represented in scripture literature art and philosophy This book presents how the search for home in an unpredictable world led people to create myths about the origins of architecture houses for their gods and house tombs for eternal life Turning to more recent topics it discusses how writers often used simple huts as a means to address the essentials of existence modernist architects envisioned the capacity of house and home to improve society and the suburban house was positioned as a superior setting for culture and family Throughout the book house and home are critically examined to illustrate the perennial role and capacity of architecture to articulate the human condition position it more meaningfully in the world and assist in our collective homecoming On Living in an Old Country Patrick Wright,2009-02-26 The hulk of Henry VIII s flagship is raised from the seabed in an operation that captures the mind of the nation The leader of the Labour party wears an informal coat at the Cenotaph and provokes a national scandal An elderly lady whose ancient house is scheduled for demolition dismantles it piece by piece and moves it across the country On Living in an Old Country probes such apparently fleeting and disconnected events in order to reveal how history lives on not just in the specialist knowledge of historians archaeologists and curators but as a tangible presence permeating everyday life and shaping our sense of identity It investigates the rise of heritage as expressed in literature advertising and political rhetoric as well as in popular television dramas conservation campaigns and urban development schemes It explores the relations between the idea of an imperilled national identity and the transformation of British society introduced by Margaret Thatcher This is the book that put heritage on the map opening one of the defining cultural and political debates of our time and showing why conservation is a subject of such broad significance in contemporary Britain This new edition includes an extensive new preface and interview material reflecting on the ongoing debate about the heritage industry which the book helped to kick start

New Forms of Consumption Mark Gottdiener, 2000-11-01 Consumption as a field of cultural studies overlaps with theories of postmodernism the social construction of self commodification in late capitalism and the role of mass media in daily life New forms of consumption such as those facilitated by cyberspace themed environments the commodification of sex and the increasing role of leisure in society all play new and interesting roles in daily life that combine consumerism with the most contemporary social forms This collection of essays examines the recent ways in which consumerism has been approached by cultural studies with special emphasis given to these and other newly emerging topics The book is divided into three parts The first part provides a theoretical overview of consumption studies dealing with classical and more contemporary approaches in light of the debate between advocates and critics of postmodernism In this section there are papers on McDonaldization tourism and cultural studies and the Theory of Shopping The second part emphasizes empirical studies of the commodification process Papers address the transformation of women's bodies and the mass commodification of milk the creation of the toddler as a subject and the commodification of childhood the commodification of sports and the commodification of rock music The third section of the book explores new forms of consumption on a more detailed and concentrated level Papers in this section include the rise of sex tourism as a global industry the commodification of the sacred and the emergence of new consumer spaces in the city An introduction by the editor delineates the advantages of his approach to new forms of consumption based squarely in the emerging issues of cultural studies debates transcending postmodernism and the society of the spectacle

Sacro-Egoism John S. Knox, 2016-05-10 Sacro Egoism The Rise of Religious Individualism in the West discusses the relationship between secularization participation in religious practices and belief and the emergence of radical individualized expressions of faith in the West Using McMinnville Oregon as a case study it presents the data collected and analyzed from several churches denominations and spiritual settings in that unassuming town and compares it to the results of Heelas and Woodhead's Spiritual Revolution project arriving at a provocative conclusion Rather than abandoning Christianity for alternative spirituality practices McMinnville citizens still feel strongly about their Christian faith taking their spiritual walk to a more personal level than ever before in church history Utilizing both quantitative and qualitative research along with personal stories of faith and exploration from McMinnville residents themselves Sacro Egoism The Rise of Religious Individualism in the West tells a story of radical individualists who have become the highest religious authority in their lives even over the church the Bible and traditional Christian society Druidism, Tengrism, Taaraism: Current Reactivations of Ancient Spiritualities and Religions, From Identity to Politics Samim Akgönül ,Anne-Laure Zwilling,2024-02-02 INTRODUCTION 5 Samim Akg n l and Anne Laure Zwilling I NORTHERN EUROPE REACTIVATION AS POLITICS A Pagan Eco fascism The Ecological Thinking of Aleksey Dobroslav Dobrovolsky 19 Adrien Nonjon Stereotyping Estonian Pagans Right Wing Extremists or Tree Huggers from the Forest 39 Ringo Ringvee Note on the Romuva Movement in Lithuania 53 Massimo Introvigne II FRANCE AND TURKEY REACTIVATION AS REACTIVE IDENTITY Our Longest Memory Indo European Paganism as the Foundation of the Ethnopolitics of the French Identitarian Movement 63 Stéphane François Atheism Theism and Reactivation in Turkey Irreligiosity in a Secular State Under an Islamist Conservative Regime 75 Samim Akg n l Align the Ancient One with Our Lives Analysing the Resurgence of An Ancient Cult to Shed Light on Contemporary Religiosity in Turkey 87 Kerem Gökem Arslan Comeback of Witchcraft Thoughts from France 111 Damien Karbovnik III ART A NEW COUNTRY FOR REACTIVATION The Search for Spirituality and Beauty New Ways of Religiosity among Artists and Intellectuals from Dersim Tunceli 131 Martin Greve Performance Art as a Ritual of Reviving Pagan Religions 149 Elif Dastarlı and İlay Canan Okkal Conclusion 161 Samim Akg n l and Anne Laure Zwilling

Ephemeral Retailing Ghaliya Boustani,2019-07-26 Often described as the hottest retail phenomenon ephemeral retail concerns the growth of pop up stores as a new mode of retailing These temporary stores pop up without notice quickly attract crowds then disappear or morph into something else Although they share similarities with traditional physical stores and online stores ephemeral stores outshine existing retail formats as they have many unique and differentiating characteristics These stores are becoming more popular among distribution channels as they offer exclusive and surprising retail experiences Many established brands have already integrated these new points of sale into their distribution channels while other brands are adopting them to raise communication awareness sales or just for experimentation This phenomenon is finding its place amongst retailers not only for its efficiency and effectiveness but also for its unique impact providing a sense of novelty that makes it particularly attractive to postmodern consumers seeking hedonic experiences This concise text introduces all aspects of this growing phenomenon and contextualises it within existing channels of distribution It explores brand atmospheric interventions that are designed to affect customer emotions behaviours or experiences as well as practices retailers adopt to build relationships with their customers It will be of interest to scholars and advanced students in retail marketing and branding The Re-Enchantment of the West Christopher Partridge,2005-03-04 As a book about emergent spirituality in the contemporary West it focuses on the nature evolution and significance of new forms of religion and alternative spiritualities Part One of the book provides the theoretical background and guides the reader through some of the principal debates After an overview of the secularization thesis which argues that the West is becoming increasingly disenchanted the second chapter turns to the sociological analysis of new religions and alternative spiritualities Particular attention is given to the ideas of the sociologist of religion Ernst Troeltsch especially his enigmatic analysis of the emergence mystical religion which presciently provides helpful insights into understanding the contemporary alternative religious milieu Against sociologists such as Bryan Wilson and Steve Bruce this and the subsequent chapter argues that rather than being insignificant new forms of spirituality are actually proving to be a significant part of Western re enchantment Chapter 3 constructs a general theory of the re enchantment of the West Chris Partridge argues that Western Society is permeated by a broad occulture by which he means a reservoir of ideas beliefs theories and practices to which new religions unorthodox spiritualities film and popular music all draw attention This re enchantment of the West should not be seen as a superficial secondary development in the shadow of Christianity In many ways it is a religious phenomenon in its own right Partridge s arguments in this regard are well put and I warmly welcome this timely book Mikhael Rothstein University of Copenhagen Denmark

The Art of Interfaith Spiritual Care Walter Blair Stratford, 2016-06-23 Relationships between people are frequently compromised as a result of religious viewpoints but appropriate spiritual care requires bridges to understanding that will allow for trust and justice to become visible The pattern for this book is shaped on the recognition that while religious expressions differ markedly in their presentation we can discern at the core of all religious expressions a supposition of sacred presence It is therefore helpful for us all in the daily events of our lives that we approach people of other faiths with a degree of humility recognizing that neither we nor they have a final answer to the question of faith The book is divided into four parts each part containing some chapters in which elements of interfaith care are considered Part one explores the complexities of interfaith engagement Part two discusses ways for caring for each other in the search for meaning Part three claims that spirituality is most difficult if not impossible to define but can be visible in a variety of experiences The fourth part explores ways in which all that has gone before may be put into practice as spiritual care
