Professor Kahn pieces together the fragments of Heraclitus thought and philosophy The World's Paper Trade Review

, 1901 Reading Dante's Stars Alison Cornish, 2000-01-01 Astronomy is one of the most prominent and perplexing features of Dante's Divine Comedy. In the final rhyme of the poem's three parts and in scores of descriptions and analogies the stars are an intermediate goal and a constant point of reference for the spiritual journey the poem narrates. This book makes a sustained analysis of Dante's use of astronomy not only in terms of the precepts of medieval science but also in relation to specific moral philosophical and poetic problems laid out in each chapter. For Dante, Alison Cornish says, the stars offer optical representations of invisible realities from divine providence to the workings of the human soul. Dante's often puzzling celestial figures call attention to the physical world as a scene of reading in which visible phenomena are subject to more than one explanation. Cornish contends the poetry of Dante's astronomy as well as its difficulty rests on this imperative of interpretation. Reading the stars like reading literature is an ethical undertaking fraught with risk, not just an exercise in technical understanding. Cornish's book is the first guide to the astronomy of Dante's masterpiece to encompass both ways of reading his work.

One World Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Jhumpa Lahiri, 2009-05-01 This book is made up of twenty-three stories each from a different author from across the globe. All belong to one world united in their diversity and ethnicity. And together they have one aim: to involve and move the reader. The range of authors takes in such literary greats as Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie and Jhumpa Lahiri and emerging authors such as Elaine Chiew, Petina Gappah, and Henrietta Rose Innes. The members of the collective are Elaine Chiew, Malaysia; Molar Wood, Nigeria; Jhumpa Lahiri, United States; Martin A. Ramos, Puerto Rico; Lauri Kubutsile, Botswana; Chika Unigwe, Nigeria; Ravi Mangla, United States; Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie, Nigeria; Skye Brannon, United States; Jude Dibia, Nigeria; Shabnam Nadiya, Bangladesh; Petina Gappah, Zimbabwe; Ivan Gabirel, Reborek, Australia; Vanessa Gebbie, Britain; Emmanuel Dipita, Kwa, Cameroon; Henrietta Rose Innes, South Africa; Lucinda Nelson, Dhavan, India; Adetokunbo Abiola, Nigeria; Wadzanai Mhute, Zimbabwe; Konstantinos Tzikas, Greece; Ken Kamoche, Kenya; Sequoia Nagamatsu, United States; Ovo Adagha, Nigeria. From the Introduction: The concept of One World is often a multi-colored tapestry into which sundry if not contending patterns can be woven for those of us who worked on this project. One World goes beyond the everyday notion of the globe as a physical geographic entity. Rather, we understand it as a universal idea, one that transcends national boundaries to comment on the most prevailing aspects of the human condition. This attempt to redefine the borders of the world we live in through the short story recognizes the many conflicting issues of race, language, economy, gender, and ethnicity which separate and limit us. We readily acknowledge, however, that regardless of our differences or the disparities in our stories, we are united by our humanity. We invite the reader on a personal journey across continents, countries, cultures, and landscapes to reflect on these beautiful at times chaotic renditions on the human experience We hope the reach of this path will transcend the borders of each story and perhaps function as an agent of change Welcome to our world Reading Virgil and His Texts Richard F. Thomas,1999 Dynamic textual interplay inherent and inherited Inventions of Reading Clayton Koelb,2019-06-30 Where do writers of fiction get their ideas Clayton Koelb here takes issue with those who regard inspiration or imitation as primary forces influencing literary invention He finds that another mechanism which he calls rhetorical construction underlies much fiction and some nonfiction as well Rhetorical construction Koelb says is a way of producing writing out of reading The rhetorical writer begins by discovering an interpretive crux in a familiar text a passage from the Bible for example or a commonplace expression and then proceeds to imagine a fictional situation in which all the meanings of the passage contradictory though they may seem may be realized According to Koelb inventions of reading do not stop with the discovery of the eternal and inevitable deconstructibility of language they somehow generate an urge to put language back together through the invention of a fictional world Among the texts he discusses are writings by Boccaccio Rabelais Goethe Schiller Kleist Hawthorne Hans Christian Andersen Nietzsche Kafka Calvino and Flannery O Connor Japan in the World, the World in Japan Center for Japanese Studies,2020-08-06 In fall 1997 the Center for Japanese Studies at The University of Michigan celebrated its fiftieth anniversary The November symposium featured more than fifty speakers moderators and musicians who celebrated the occasion and offered reminiscences on the Center s multifaceted scholarly and professional missions discussions of the accomplishments of its alumni and perspectives on wartime and postwar Japan U S relations As the first American interdisciplinary institute devoted to education and research on Japan The University of Michigan Center for Japanese Studies has a path making legacy This volume which includes the public presentations from the November 1997 symposium reflects that legacy and the university s long and continuing involvement in Asia which dates back to the 1870s Back to the Future (RLE Social Theory) Philip Cooke,2014-08-21 Is modernity being replaced by an opposite culture of postmodernity or is postmodernism simply an internal critique of modernist culture This key question is central to this stimulating book which explores the transformations taking place in social life cultural preferences economic organization and political attitudes particularly in the context of the contemporary city as a lived or written experience This book contains accounts of the development of modern ways of life and their erosion in the 20th century The author argues that a whole set of modern institutions from the corporation to the novel are being exposed to internal critique and external competition As a result new ways of seeing and thinking are moving us into what some observers see as postmodern culture However these tendencies may in fact be the continuation of modernity by other means Jersey Bulletin and Dairy World ,1928 Electrical World ,1883

Speculation Ed Pavlic, Ivelisse Rodriguez, 2023-04-11

How can the literary imagination bring us closer to a better world The world is always changing But there are also inflection points in history when the world feels changed Art has the prophetic power to imagine where we are going It is perhaps no surprise then that in a world historical moment of global upheaval and transformation speculative literature and other futurist arts are enjoying a renaissance Boston Review believes that the arts must have a voice in the conversation about how we heal In this new anthology of poetry fiction and essays from renowned writers and newcomers contributors share with readers their feats of imagining the past and future that help us better understand what it means to be present in the world Speculation can lead us to collectively imagine better futures or better ways of understanding our past Abolition civil rights and Black Lives Matter all speculate about a future free of racial violence just as MeToo imagines one free of gendered violence In some of our most joyful private moments we speculate about what will be delicious and pleasurable about what notes will sound good played together on an instrument about spirits and the afterlife about what we wish a lover would say to us about what aliens might be like if we ever met them Such works of the speculative imagination are thankfully almost boundless though we imagine them within the bounds of who we are and what we assume to be true about the world Where will speculation lead us next

The Art and Thought of Heraclitus Heraclitus, 1981-09-03 Behind the superficial obscurity of what fragments we have of Heraclitus thought Professor Kahn claims that it is possible to detect a systematic view of human existence a theory of language which sees ambiguity as a device for the expression of multiple meaning and a vision of human life and death within the larger order of nature The fragments are presented here in a readable order translation and commentary aim to make accessible the power and originality of a systematic thinker and a great master of artistic prose The commentary locates Heraclitus within the tradition of early Greek thought but stresses the importance of his ideas for topical theories of language literature and philosophy
