Reading Black Reading Feminist:

Reading Black, Reading Feminist Henry Louis Gates, 1990-10-30 A unique and comprehensive collection of 26 literary essays that explore the rich cultural history of black women in America Black women's writing has finally emerged as one of the most dynamic fields of American literature Here leading literary critics both male and female black and white look at fiction nonfiction poetry slave narratives and autobiographies in a totally new way In essence they reconstruct a literary history that documents black women as artists intellectuals symbol makers teachers and survivors Important writers whose work and lives are explored include Toni Morrison Gloria Gaynor Maya Angelou and Alice Walker and the fascinating list of essays range from Nellie Y McKay's The Souls of Black Women Folk in the Writings of W E B Du Bois to Jewelle L Gomez's very personal tribute to Lorraine Hansberry as a dramatist and crusader for social justice Henry Louis Gates Jr the editor of this anthology and a noted authority on African American literature has provided a thought provoking introduction that celebrates the experience of reading black reading feminist A penetrating look at women's writing from a unique perspective this superb collection brings to light the rich heritage of literary creativity among African American women Why is the fugitive slave the fiery orator the political activist the abolitionist always represented as a black man How does the heroic voice and heroic image of the black woman get suppressed in a culture that depended on her heroism for survival Mary Helen Washington from her essay in Reading Black Reading Feminist

Reading Black, Reading Feminist Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 1990

Black Poetic Feminism: The Imagination of Toi Derricotte Niama Leslie Williams, 2006-12-06 Sexual abuse happens Domestic violence happens We know it happens We have child protective services We watch Law and Order SVU We are surrounded by sex in our media and we are surrounded by sexual violence in our media Yet I have turned to the work of Toi Derricotte because we are not surrounded by sexual violence in our literary criticism because we are not discussing sexual violence in our college classrooms because the work of a poet like Derricotte a poet who reveals the long difficult trajectory of the emergence of voice of the emergence of a healthy vibrant bisexual self is largely ignored by those of us in the academy who contribute articles to that grand behemoth otherwise known as the Modern Language Association's International Bibliography The Black poetic feminism of Toi Derricotte works on this silence in a variety of ways Read on and perhaps learn a great deal from her journey

A Jury of Her Peers Elaine Showalter, 2010-01-12 An unprecedented literary landmark the first comprehensive history of American women writers from 1650 to the present In a narrative of immense scope and fascination here are more than 250 female writers including the famous Harriet Beecher Stowe Dorothy Parker Flannery O'Connor and Toni Morrison among others and the little known from the early American bestselling novelist Catherine Sedgwick to the Pulitzer Prize winning playwright Susan Glaspell Showalter integrates women's contributions into our nation's literary heritage with brilliance and flair making the case for the unfairly overlooked and putting the overrated firmly in their place

writings of the earliest black women writers in the East and West Caribbean Bermuda Canada the US and England The selections span the American Revolution to the decade following the Civil War The nine writers included both slave and free represent a variety of genres regions professions and political perspectives Their words suggest the rich cultural history embedded in the writings and provide a glimpse into the lives of women coping with extreme racism and sexism As black women survival guides the construction of their texts and their public images Each employs diverse strategies of resistance evasion displacement omission and accommodation With an introduction that contains copious biographical details about each writer and a brief chronology preceding each text Nine Black Women is a unique collection of original works Black Feminism in Contemporary Drama Lisa M. Anderson, 2008 An enlightening study of feminism in the work of seven black playwrights Motherlove in Shades of Black Gloria Thomas Pillow, 2014-01-10 This book closely examines the mother figure in six works by African American women at various times in American history Harriet Jacobs's Incidents in the Life of a Slave Girl Pauline Hopkins's Contending Forces Nella Larsen's Passing Gwendolyn Brooks's Maud Martha Alice Walker's The Color Purple and Toni Morrison's Beloved It studies how the mother in each novel negotiates the ragged hostile landscape of a prohibitive environment to love protect and raise her children Delving far deeper than surface explanations it is informed by psychological analysis to reveal the forces that create the unique tensions of the African American mother's life her inspired strategies for survival and the character of the nurturing she gives her children

Writing African American Women Elizabeth A. Beaulieu, 2006-04-30 Women have had a complex experience in African American culture The first work of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women's Studies perspective While Yolanda Williams Page's Encyclopedia of African American Women Writers provides biographical entries on more than 150 literary figures this book is much broader in scope Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries on African American women writers as well as on male writers who have treated women in their works Entries on genres periods themes characters historical events texts places and other topics are included as well Each entry is written by an expert contributor and relates its subject to the overall experience of women in African American literature Entries cite works for further reading and the encyclopedia closes with a selected general bibliography African American culture is enormously diverse and the experience of women in African American society is especially complex Women were among the first African American writers and works by black women writers are popular among students and general readers alike At the same time African American women have been oppressed and texts by black male authors represent women in a variety of ways The first of its kind this encyclopedia approaches African American literature from a Women's Studies perspective and thus significantly illuminates the African American cultural experience through literary works Included are several hundred alphabetically arranged entries written by numerous expert contributors In addition to covering male and female African American authors the encyclopedia also discusses themes major works and characters genres periods historical events places and other topics

Gender in African Women's Writing Juliana Makuchi Nfah-Abbenyi, 1997-12-22 This is a cogent analysis of the complexities of gender in the work of nine contemporary Anglophone and Francophone novelists offers illuminating interpretations of worthy writers Multicultural Review This book reaffirms Bessie Head s remark that books are a tool in this case a tool that allows readers to understand better the rich lives and the condition of African women Excellent notes and a rich bibliography Choice a college level analysis which will appeal to any interested in African studies and literature The Bookwatch This book applies gender as a category of analysis to the works of nine sub Saharan women writers Aidoo B Beyala Dangarembga Emecheta Head Liking Tlali and Zanga Tsogo The author appropriates western feminist theories of gender in an African literary context and in the process she finds and names critical theory that is African indigenous self determining which she then melds with western feminist theory and comes out with an over arching theory that enriches western post colonial and African critical perspectives Literary Theory: The Basics Hans Bertens, 2017-07-14 This third edition of Hans Bertens bestselling book is an essential guide to the often confusing and complicated world of literary theory Exploring a broad range of topics from Marxist and feminist criticism to postmodernism and new historicism Literary Theory The Basics covers contemporary topics including reception theory and reader response theory the new criticism of postmodernism the after theory debate post humanism biopolitics and animal studies aesthetics Literary Theory The Basics helps readers to approach the many theories and debates in this field with confidence Now with updated case studies and further reading this is an essential purchase for anyone who strives to understand literary theory today Emerging Afrikan Survivals Kemayo Kamau, 2004-08-02 This work sets forth the guidelines for an Afrocentric literary theory and goes on to apply that theory to three novels Invisible Man Song of Solomon and The Chaneyville Incident

Places of Silence, Journeys of Freedom Eugenia C. DeLamotte, 2016-11-11 Alice Walker has described the Barbadian American novelist Paule Marshall as unequaled in intelligence vision craft by anyone of her generation to put her contributions to our literature modestly Such praise has echoed through reviews and analyses of Marshall's work since the 1959 publication of Brown Girl Brownstones a novel followed by The Chosen Place the Timeless People 1969 Praisesong for the Widow 1984 and Daughters 1991 Places of Silence Journeys of Freedom is the first study of Paule Marshall's work to focus explicitly on her contribution to feminism It is also the first to identify one of her original contributions to narrative art a technique of superimposition or double exposure through which her books have explored topics now at the heart of feminist debate Centered around the subject of voice and silence these issues include the interrelation between women's power and powerlessness the interpenetration of the political and economic world with the world of the psyche and the mechanisms through which oppressions on the basis of race class and gender operate as mutually shaping forces Ain't I an Anthropologist Jennifer L. Freeman Marshall, 2023-02-28 Iconic as a novelist and popular cultural figure Zora Neale Hurston remains underappreciated as an anthropologist Is it inevitable that Hurston's literary authority should eclipse her anthropological authority If not what socio cultural and institutional values and processes shape the different ways we read her work Jennifer L Freeman Marshall considers the polar receptions to Hurston's two areas of achievement by examining the critical response to her work across both fields Drawing on a wide range of readings Freeman Marshall explores Hurston's popular appeal as iconography her elevation into the literary canon her concurrent marginalization in anthropology despite her significant contributions and her place within constructions of Black feminist literary traditions Perceptive and original Ain't I an Anthropologist is an overdue reassessment of Zora Neale Hurston's place in American cultural and intellectual life

Women's Studies and Culture Rosemarie Buikema, Anneke Smelik, 1995 This major introduction to feminist cultural studies provides an important new synthesis of the feminist critique of culture It also brilliantly reflects the interdisciplinary approach of cultural studies The book opens with an exploration of the development of feminist academic practice and an overview of the full range of feminist theory It includes full coverage of the equality difference debate Chapters then examine the impact of women's studies on linguistics literary theory popular culture history film theory art history theatre studies and musicology Part two explores the politics theories and methods of feminist study including psychoanalysis black criticism lesbian studies and semiotics This book is essential reading for anyone who needs a lively and accessible explanation of how feminism has taken culture and its academic study by storm African American Literary Theory Winston

Napier, 2000-07 The first volume to expound African American literary theory from the 1920s to present African American Literary Theory A Reader is the first volume to document the central texts and arguments in African American literary theory from the 1920s through the present As the volume progresses chronologically from the rise of a black aesthetic criticism through the Black Arts Movement feminism structuralism and poststructuralism and the rise of queer theory it focuses on the key arguments themes and debates in each period By constantly bringing attention to the larger political and cultural issues at stake in the interpretation of literary texts the critics gathered here have contributed mightily to the prominence and popularity of African American literature in this country and abroad African American Literary Theory provides a unique historical analysis of how these thinkers have shaped literary theory and literature at large and will be an indispensable text for the study of African American intellectual culture Contributors include Sandra Adell Michael Awkward Houston A Baker Jr Hazel V Carby Barbara Christian W E B DuBois Ann duCille Ralph Ellison Henry Louis Gates Jr Addison Gayle Jr Carolyn F Gerald Evelyn Hammonds Phillip Brian Harper Mae Gwendolyn Henderson Stephen E Henderson Karla F C Holloway Langston Hughes Zora Neale Hurston LeRoi Jones Amiri Baraka Joyce A Joyce Alain Locke Wahneema Lubiano Deborah E McDowell Harryette Mullen Larry Neal Charles I Nero Robert F Reid Pharr Marlon B Ross George S Schuyler Barbara Smith Valerie Smith Hortense J Spillers Sherley Anne Williams and Richard Wright

Female Subjects in Black and White Elizabeth Abel, Barbara Christian, Helene Moglen, 2023-09-01 This landmark collaboration between African American and white feminists goes to the heart of problems that have troubled feminist thinking for decades Putting the racial dynamics of feminist interpretation center stage these essays question such issues as the primacy of sexual difference the universal nature of psychoanalytic categories and the role of race in the formation of identity They offer new ways of approaching African American texts and reframe our thinking about the contexts discourses and traditions of the American cultural landscape Calling for the racialization of whiteness and claiming that psychoanalytic theory should make room for competing discourses of spirituality and diasporic consciousness these essays give shape to the many stubborn incompatibilities as well as the transformative possibilities between white feminist and African American cultural formations Bringing into conversation a range of psychoanalytic feminist and African derived spiritual perspectives these essays enact an inclusive politics of reading Often explosive and always provocative Female Subjects in Black and White models a new cross racial feminism This landmark collaboration between African American and white feminists goes to the heart of problems that have troubled feminist thinking for decades Putting the racial dynamics of feminist interpretation center stage these essays question such issues

Modern North American Criticism and Theory Julian Wolfreys, 2006-04-21 Modern North American Criticism and Theory presents the reader with a comprehensive and critical introduction to the development and institutionalization of literary and cultural studies throughout the twentieth century and at the beginning of the twenty first Focusing on the growth and expansion of critical trends and methodologies with particular essays addressing key figures in their historical and cultural contexts the book offers a narrative of change transformation and the continuous quest for and affirmation of multiple cultural voices and identities From semiotics and the New Criticism to the identity politics of whiteness studies and the cultural study of masculinity this book provides an overview of literary and cultural study in North America as a history of questioning debate and exploration
