Reenchantment Of Art:

The Reenchantment of Art Suzi Gablik, 1992 Argues that artists should reject the patriarchal system that only causes alienation and engage in a spiritual quest connected to ritual myth and the earth

The Reenchantment of Art Suzi Gablik, 1995 The Reenchantment of Art Suzi Gablik, 1998 Sacred Interconnections David Ray Griffin, 1990-01-01 This book shows the interconnections between postmodernism religion politics economics and art It shows that the awareness of interconnectedness is at the center of the postmodern sensibility Sacred Interconnections illustrates the rejection of the modern idea that these subjects can be discussed as separate disciplines While the term postmodern has been widely used for deconstructive cynical even nihilistic attitude especially in the world of art and literature the book represents the emergence of a reconstructive reenchanting postmodernism even within the artistic and literary circles

Reclaiming the Spiritual in Art Dawn Perlmutter, Debra Koppman, 2016-02-24 From Walt Disney World to the movie Natural Born Killers this book explores uncommon indicators of the spiritual in contemporary art and culture Drawing on a diversity of perspectives in philosophy and aesthetics to highlight conscious and unconscious manifestations of the sacred in art this work makes a compelling case for its continued contemporary relevance Contributors include Andrew Doerr Melissa E Feldman Cher Krause Knight Debra Koppman Janice Mann Dawn Perlmutter Crispin Sartwell and Susan Shantz

Mexican Media Art, Ecologies, the Posthuman, and Politics Claudia Costa Pederson, 2025-03-31 This volume focuses on the connection between ecological thought and the technological arts in Mexico in order to challenge assumptions that ecological thought is a domain exclusive to the arts of the Global North and reconceive it as an inventive nexus of materialist speculations into a global posthuman world Tracking the concept of ecology through a series of case studies taken from the histories of new media arts in Mexico over the last 50 years from the mid twentieth century to the present this book differs from ecological art histories that either ignore technological art or associate it exclusively with the Global North It includes artists and collectives working both in Mexico and transnationally and examines collaborative projects responding to anthropogenic environmental degradation in Mexico and elsewhere The book will be of interest to scholars working in art history Latin American studies media studies and environmental studies

Conversations Before the End of Time Suzi Gablik, 1997 In this series of nineteen dialogues with the art critic Suzi Gablik artists writers and philosophers address the central questions of the meaning and purpose of art in an age of accelerating social change and spiritual uncertainty The books includes conversations with Artur C Danto and gallery owner Leo Castelli as well as artist Coca Fusco psychologist James Hillman and art activists The Guerilla Girls For anyone seriously concerned about the future of contemporary art and culture this book is an inspiration

The Art of Re-enchantment Nick Wilson, 2014 Historically informed performance HIP has provoked heated debate amongst musicologists performers and cultural sociologists In The Art of Re enchantment Making Early Music in the Modern Age author Nick Wilson answers many salient questions surrounding HIP through an in depth analysis of the early music movement in Britain from the 1960s to the present day Memento Mori in Contemporary Art Taylor Worley, 2019-11-28 This book explores how four contemporary artists Francis Bacon Joseph Beuys Robert Gober and Damien Hirst pursue the question of death through their fraught appropriations of Christian imagery Each artist is shown to not only pose provocative theological questions but also to question the abilities of theological speech to adequately address current attitudes to death When set within a broader theological context around the thought of death Bacon's works invite fresh readings of the New Testament's narration of the betrayal of Christ and Beuys' works can be appreciated for the ways they evoke Resurrection to envision possible futures for Germany in the aftermath of war Gober's immaculate sculptures and installations serve to create alternative religious environments and these places are both evocative of his Roman Catholic upbringing and virtually haunted by the ghosts of his excommunication from that past Lastly and perhaps most problematically Hirst has built his brand as an artist from making jokes about death By opening fresh arenas of dialogue and meaning making in our society and culture today the rich humanity of these artworks promises both renewed depths of meaning regarding our exit from this world as well as how we might live well within it for the time that we have As such it will be a vital resource for all scholars in Theology the Visual Arts Material Religion and Religious Studies The Philosophy of Reenchantment Michiel Meijer, Herbert De Vriese, 2020-10-27 This book presents a philosophical study of the idea of reenchantment and its merits in the interrelated fields of philosophical anthropology ethics and ontology It features chapters from leading contributors to the debate about reenchantment including Charles Taylor John Cottingham Akeel Bilgrami and Jane Bennett The chapters examine neglected and contested notions such as enchantment transcendence interpretation attention resonance and the sacred or reverence worthy notions that are crucial to human self understanding but have no place in a scientific worldview They also explore the significance of adopting a reenchanting perspective for debates on major concepts such as nature naturalism God ontology and disenchantment Taken together they demonstrate that there is much to be gained from working with a more substantial and affirmative concept of reenchantment understood as a fundamental existential orientation towards what is seen as meaningful and of value The Philosophy of Reenchantment will be of interest to scholars and advanced students in philosophy especially those working in moral philosophy metaphysics philosophy of religion theology religious studies and sociology Art-Care Practices for Restoring the Communal Barbara A. Bickel, R. Michael Fisher, 2022-12-28 This book contributes to a larger global call to radically re create ourselves to transform our fear and alienation from art Nature and ourselves With compassion and grace the co authors outline how everyone may access the gift of Spontaneous Creation Making and change dominant narratives of individualism Discovering interconnectivity through art care we can dream courageously together into the unknown possibilities of a precarious future Art care as coined by the co authors is a matrixial form of communicating through art and reverence This theoretically informed and practice based book bridges the individual with the communal in Creation centred ways that interweave the many parts with the whole It provides examples of teachings practices and spontaneous creations of makers that will benefit those who want to integrate art care into individual practices or group facilitation This book benefits socially engaged artists arts based researchers artist philosophers activists students teachers organizers therapists caregivers and more

Re-Enchantment James Elkins,2011 The near absence of religion from contemporary discourse on art is one of the most fundamental issues in postmodernism Artists critical of religion can find voices in the art world but religion itself including spirituality is taken to be excluded by the very project of modernism The sublime re enchantment as in Weber and the aura as in Benjamin have been used to smuggle religious concepts back into academic writing but there is still no direct communication between religionists and scholars Re Enchantment volume 7 in The Art Seminar Series will be the first book to brid

Re-Enchantment James Elkins,David Morgan,2011-01-13 The near absence of religion from contemporary discourse on art is one of the most fundamental issues in postmodernism Artists critical of religion can find voices in the art world but religion itself including spirituality is taken to be excluded by the very project of modernism The sublime re enchantment as in Weber and the aura as in Benjamin have been used to smuggle religious concepts back into academic writing but there is still no direct communication between religionists and scholars Re Enchantment volume 7 in The Art Seminar Series will be the first book to bridge that gap The volume will include an introduction and two final synoptic essays as well as contributions from some of the most prominent thinkers on religion and art including Boris Groys James Elkins Thierry de Duve David Morgan Norman Girardot Sally Promey Brent Plate and Christopher Pinney The

Re-enchantment of the World Gordon Graham,2007-11 This is a philosophical exploration of the role of art and religion as sources of meaning in an increasingly material world dominated by science Relating themes in the history of European philosophy to topics in contemporary philosophy Gordon Graham investigates the idea that art has the potential to re enchant an irreligious world New Art Examiner ,1999 The independent voice of the visual arts Arts and Cultural Leadership Kenneth Foster,2022-10-17 This textbook provides an expert overview of the challenge of arts and cultural leadership in the contemporary world Grounded in theories of sustainability and with a renewed global focus for this second edition the author s insights from contemporary arts organizations facilitate meaningful student comprehension Drawing on the work of practitioners and theorists in the fields of philosophy biology and ecology as well as the arts Foster proposes a rethinking of organizational design strategy and structure that is based on ecological concepts and the creative process that is intrinsic to the arts rather than the conventional business model that currently prevails particularly in western arts and culture organizations He contests conventional thinking about arts administration and management and urges arts leaders to foreground innovation as they reimagine their organizations for a world unlike any other New sections include an enhanced theoretical discussion as well as new material on business models strategy and organizational design and practice Applicable to any arts organization the entrepreneurial focus is especially relevant in the aftermath of the global pandemic the ongoing climate crisis and the quest for democracy and social justice This updated edition will be a valuable resource both for present day arts and cultural leaders who are working to adapt to the current environment as well as students and future leaders who aspire to make change in the world through arts and cultural leadership Art Journal ,1960 Flash Art ,1992
