Perkins led a life as one of the most honored athletes in the history of the University of New Mexico and the Dallas Cowboys But Perkins's life was far more complex and at times controversial He experienced the traumas of racial discrimination death divorce football related injuries and a never ending search for his own identity In his search Perkins ventured into sportscasting public speaking community relations big rig trucking government work and even amateur theater where he portrayed Frederick Douglass and other famous Black leaders Through it all he remained a kind unassuming charismatic man universally admired by family members friends and millions of fans Don Perkins A Champion's Life is the final tribute he so richly deserves The Dead March Peter Guardino, 2017-08-28 Focusing on ordinary Mexicans and Americans Peter

Guardino offers a clearer picture than we have ever had of the brief bloody war that redrew the map of North America He shows how dramatically U.S. forces underestimated Mexicans patriotism fierce resistance and bitter resentment of American claims to national and racial superiority Domestic Tyranny Elizabeth Hafkin Pleck, 2004 Elizabeth Pleck's Domestic Tyranny chronicles the rise and demise of legal political and medical campaigns against domestic violence from colonial times to the present Based on in depth research into court records newspaper accounts and autobiographies this book argues that the single most consistent barrier to reform against domestic violence has been the Family Ideal that is ideas about family privacy conjugal and parental rights and family stability This edition features a new introduction surveying the multinational and cultural themes now present in recent historical writing about family violence The Complete Soul

Reeves, 2011-08-09 During a five year cross country journey spanning 40 000 miles Reeves created a photo memoir of the neon corridors and dark corners that he found along the back roads of America While searching for meaning in a sprawling and chaotic world he drifts toward a slow reckoning with his own compulsions and unexpected loss The Ideal Society and Its Enemies Miles Fairburn, 2013-10-01 In this challenging and provocative study of the nature of settler society in 19th century New Zealand Fairburn focuses on the lives of the common people and presents a rigorous and original description of the place and time which is radically different from those of previous historians An important book that will have a major impact on our understanding of New Zealand's past it is also a significant contribution to the study of new societies The Liberalism Trap Menaka Philips, 2023 In The Liberalism Trap Menaka Philips identifies a methodological problem in contemporary political theory preoccupations with liberalism have come to dominate the study of politics To evaluate the effects of such preoccupations Philips turns to John Stuart Mill the so called paradigmatic liberal She shows not only that Mill's famed liberal status is habitually substituted for his political arguments but also that this substitution obscures the role of uncertainty in Mill's political thought Across his writings on women's emancipation class reform and British Empire Philips recovers the uncertain strategies that inform Mill's politics offering an innovative account that sets into relief the limits of reading through liberalism Living in the Depot H. Focus On: 100 Most Popular American Football Running Backs Wikipedia contributors, Richard Seddon: King of God's Own Tom Brooking,2014-08-27 2014 Must Read Otago Daily Times The life the health the intelligence and the morals of the nation count for more than riches and I would rather have this country free from want and squalor and unemployed than the home of multi millionaires Richard Seddon 1905 Casting a long shadow over New Zealand history Richard John Seddon Premier from 1893 to his untimely death in 1906 held a clear vision for the country he led Pushing New Zealand in more egalitarian directions than ever before he was both the builder and the maintenance man if not the architect of our country Challenging popular opinion of New Zealand's longest serving Prime Minister as a ruthless pragmatist cunning misogynist and Imperialistic jingoist this landmark biography of Seddon presents an altogether more sympathetic erudite appraisal Reconciling two generations of New Zealand scholarship Richard Seddon King of God's Own demonstrates that while holding fast to common ideals Seddon was successful by mastering the art of the possible He knew instinctively what his electorate would tolerate and remained in step with public opinion Despite contradictions in his attitudes towards other races he fought to ensure privilege did not become entrenched in what he envisioned as a white man's utopia In this perceptive new evaluation political historian Tom Brooking explains Seddon's complex relationship with Maori and shows how he in fact held a progressively bi cultural vision for the future of God's Own Country Seddon was no saint Somewhat autocratic and given to petty nepotism he nevertheless remains the most dominant political leader in our country's history. Internationally his high profile within the Empire helped put New Zealand on the map. Domestically he sought a middle ground between free market extremism and full blown socialism. And more privately Seddon was a devoted family man; his actions shaped much more by his supportive wife and assertive daughters than has previously been realised. Richard Seddon: King of God's Own is a superlative achievement in New Zealand history writing. Absorbing, wide ranging and beautifully articulated, it reframes and repositions one of the founding fathers of modern New Zealand. The definitive biography of one of New Zealand's most influential political leaders. Paul Moon, author of New Zealand in the Twentieth Century. King of God's Own is a nuanced and generous assessment of our most famous Premier, a man very much of his own time. Gavin McLean, co-editor of the bestselling Frontier of Dreams: The Story of New Zealand. An excellent biography and a major revision of an important period in this country's history. Barry Gustafson, acclaimed biographer of Sir Keith Holyoake, Sir Robert Muldoon and Michael Joseph Savage. Also available as an eBook.

The Shaping of History Judith Binney, 2021-05-07. The writing of history will only flourish if there is a vehicle for its publication, such as Sir Keith Sinclair's vision when he founded The New Zealand Journal of History in 1967. Since then the journal has been the conduit for a flow of remarkable history writing. The Shaping of History brings together a selection of essays from its first 30 years by some of the nation's best known historians, including Judith Binney, Tipene O'Regan, Claudia Orange, Barbara Brookes, Alan Ward, Jock Phillips and Jamie Belich. Their sharp analysis and great storytelling make the collection an essential resource for understanding how New Zealand history is shaped.
